

Published under the direction of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference of Eastern British America.

VOLUME XIII. No. 15.

Great, valiant, pious, good and clean

Bright effluence of exceeding grace,

Blest man! the swiftness of the race,

The peril and the prize !

Sublime-invention ever young,

Of vast conception, towering tongue

To God the eternal theme :

O'er meaner strains supreme

Strong in the Lord, who could defy

Satan and all his powers that lie

And hell, and horror, and despain

To his undaunted might.

Pleasant-and various as the year

Man, soul, and angel, without peer,

Priest, champion, sage and boy ; In armor or in ephod clad,

His pomp, his piety was glad-

Majestic was his joy.

His muse, bright angel of his verse,

Gives halm for all the thorns that pierce

For all the pangs that rage ;

Blest light, still gaining on the gloom,

The more than Michael of his bloom.

The Abishag of his age.

He sang of God-the mighty source

Of all things-the stupendous force

All period; power and enterprise,

On which all strength depends

Commences, reigns and ends

Sweet Hermon's fragrant air ;

Sweet is the dew that falls betimes,

And sweet the wakeful tapers smell

That watch for early prayer.

Sweet when the lost arrive ;

Sweet the young nurse, with smile intens

And drops upon the leafy limes ;

Sweet is the lily's silver bell,

From whose right arm, beneath whose eye

In sempiternal night :

Were as the lion and the bear

Notes from von exaltations caught

Unrival'd royalty of thought !

Strong, constant, pleasant, wise !

Sublime contemplative, serene,

HALIFAX. N. S., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1861.

WHOLE NO. 613.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE DUCHESS .- Monday

next, between one and two o'clock, is the day then the body will remain at Frogmore. On the privacy. As the distance from Frogmore to Windsor is little over a mile, the body will, by this arrangement, be taid in Wolsey Chapel, ad-joining the Chapel Royal, before daylight. Here it will remain until the hour fixed for the funeral ceremony, when the procession will be formed ed deep anxiety as to the religious future of the ground had been secured for the pupose. The tant station of Bastia had lately been the scene A brother said he longed for a closer walk daughter of a minister of Christ, who was now the Lord Mayor. Shortly afterwards his Lord-Religious Miscellann. nations of Europe, but will, I trust, stimulate to services had for a considerable time been held of a religious awakening. France had there a with God. He had a strong desire to labor greatly afflicted. She manifested her desire for ship issued a proclamation, which was affixed to efforts in order to meet the calls for a wide pro- in what the friends of the movement now de- military force, or Legion of all nations, which in the vineyard of the Lord, and he wished the religion by rising up. He requested the prayers the walls of the Mansion-house, and the great clamation of the saving truths of the Gospel .- scribe as a miserable dark hole ; but he could re- she sent to Algiers ; they came from all parts of brethren to pray that he might be strengthened. of the brethren for this afflicted servant of God bell of St. Paul's was tolled. To the Prophet David. ng The kingdom of Italy, rich in historical associa- member that Mr. Toaseand himself (Mr. Arthur) Europe. News from Algiers showed that some He stated that when he was convicted of sin he and his penitent daughter.

The London Literary Journal says "the followin Ode was composed about the year 1762, by an author named Smart. But its interest is derived from the extraordinary fact that it was written in a madhous in which poor Smart was confined, and what is stitions, till lately closed against all evangelical thought it a wonderful place when they were first of them had been converted. One of them had flew to Mr. Gardner (known as "awful Gardtions, till lately closed against all evangelical thought it a wonderful place when they were first of them had been converted. One of mem nau new to all of them had been converted. One of mem nau new to all of them had been converted. The day is to secure it for divine worship. It received a Bible, which was the means of saving ner") for advice, being of the same disposition A brother said :-- "On last Saturday I pre-fixed for the interment of the remains of ber efforts, is now, in the providence of God, open so happy as to secure it for divine worship. It received a Bible, which was the means of saving and habits. Mr. Gardner was now laid on a sented for the prayers of the people here, a man late Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent. Till nore strange, pen and paper being denied to mprinted it with a key thon the wainscot of it consisted of nearly one hundred stangas; bution of religious books and tracts, and to the place they had to pay a rent of £200, and for wise have entered his breast. The book became bed of sickness, and he asked the meeting to who had been recently let out of the Penibution of religious books and tracts, and to the place they had to pay a rent of £200, and for wise have entered no book because the intermed to health and re-dissemination in all its simplicity, and truth, and the school-room, a further rent of £50, while the the means of saving both body and soul. Ano-It consisted of nearly one hundred stanzas; it is one of the finest sacred lyries in existence. It is a curious problem whether he could be really deranged at the time when this majestic poetry was flowing from him. It would seem to give the appearance of truth to the hackneved assertion, thus, if line wit is oft to madness near allied.' Mark the monderful march of thought and intellect in the following stanzas:" power, of the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. French Conference obtained another out-of-the ther letter spoke of the conversion of several turn to his labors. This field of usefulness has occupied the atten- way place for the residence of the Ministers, for young men, and of their becoming members of tion of the Committee, and is about to be enterwhich they paid other £60 rent. The buildings Society. The town was every year visited by there were rented in what this country were cal- hundreds of Italians from Florence, Genoa, &c., stances showing how God answers the prayed upon by the designation of a Missionary .-One of our honoured brethren, who for some led flats or floors. In Paris these flats are and the Pastor was learning Italian himself that ers of the brethren. On Saturday he made a py in Jesus."

years has been earnestly and usefully engaged houses. In one of these Mr. Toase and himself he might do them good. When in France they request in the John-street meeting for prayers Prayers were asked for a sick person, that she might be converted. of a Christian wife. to depart to labour as a Missionary in Italy.— steps. Even for such apartments they had to He asks not only the warmest sympathy of his pay an enormous rent in proportion to its area. years past they had themselves wished to send also asked prayers for her five children, most of

He asks not only the warmest sympathy of his pay an enormalized reaction do its area. years base day has a store prayers of the prayers of the meeting and the count carried into the chapter to years of maturity, that they here is to labour, but trusts their case will call a site at the rate of £17 the square yard, but if have a good chapel belonging to France. France forth your earnest and believing prayers. Mr. they did not buy it, it would be sold the next had a peculiar claim upon the sympathy of this Saturday, and on the following Sabbath, it was Another devoted lady who was present, fol- posited in the Royal vault, which already con-Arthur. one of the General Secretaries, will day. There were other parties ready to take it country. France could not rise but all Europe my privilege to see one of the children at the al-lowed, stating that this passage of Scripture was tains the remains of so many of our nation's more fully lay before the meeting a statement of at once. They bought the site, which was 86 would rise with her. All they did for France, tar. He asked prayers for her husband who was foreibly brought to her mind while her sister was rulers. Within a comparatively recent period her feet frontage, by a depth of 53 feet. They had they did for Spain and Italy. the reasons for the step now taken. since been offered at the rate of £26 per square M. De Valcourt next addressed the meeting the meeting would be answered in his conver- surely ye shall not be established.' Jesus says, mausoleum at Frogmore, which will be completed The Rev. Wm. Arthur-The objects of the meeting to-night are, as you, Sir, have just said, yard for part of it. They proposed to occupy it, in French, Mr. Arthur giving the translation in different from those of our ordinary meetings in and erect on the ground floor school-rooms, one English to the following effect :-- I feel every day terest in his church was subsiding, and feeling cleanse you, a new heart I will give you, a new date. When ready, in compliance with the this place. They refer to countries nearer our of them being capable of being used also as a more and more this fact, that in all Christians own, and to work more nearly like to that in morning chapel, and in which they hoped to there is but one and the same life. I have felt, which we are engaged at home. There is noth- have preaching, and general meetings. Above during the two days I have been here, that afing particularly romantic in the work to excite that would be a chapel to seat 700 people, and fection reigns in your hearts; and I am grateour interest. It is to be carried on amongst a above that would be two Ministers' houses, - ful for the flattering reception I have received people with complexions like our own, and pos- very much better, indeed he could assure the among you. Therefore I am impelled to offer essing all the appliances of civilized life. But meeting, and far easier of access than those you my sincere and affectionate thanks. What I believe that to every man who feels in his own apartments which Mr. Toase and himself occu- I have heard has deeply touched and interested soul the saving power of God, and has had op- pied. But to proceed with their plans the me, especially so far as regards France, for portunity of seeing a civilized people to whom friends in France were of themselves unable. have lived in that country a great number of the Gospel is but partially known, this sight is He wished the friends in this country would take years. You have, my dear friends, an arduou in some respects more moving than the total up the matter in the way they had recently done work to do in France. I call to mind what darkness of heathen countries. Now we are for the liberation of some children from slavery, have read in one of your excellent books, that going to call attention to a country, one of the and send their remittance in postage stamps or in Jerusalem, a city of 150,000 inhabitants, nost important in the world-at all times and otherwise-in shillings or pence-though he did there were 480 synagogues. Paris, in the same under all the transitions through which it has not object to pounds nor £50 or £100. He proportion to its inhabitants, would require wassed. We have all heard of the important wished his good friends in various parts of the 4,000 places of worship, -- and, that being the of God in prosperity, but in adversity, and it is sought for a holy class-leader, that she might, sonflicts which have recently been going on in country would say,-I will lay one stone for case, I ask if Christians, under its present state, well that I was called to pass through adversity, under his teachings, grow up to be a sanctified that country, which have already resulted in very Christ in Paris. To himself he did not know can say, "our task is finished." That ought to for I live nearer to Christ than I would if I were woman. - N. Y Meth. there had been a happier day in his life than that make every one of us look within, and not to in prosperity. Whenever I meet my old comremarkable events, and are likely to lead to whereon he saw that initiatory step of securing spend our time uselessly, but daily to employ it panions-and there are hundreds of them in others still more remarkable. We have on the platform an excellent brother, who this week one corner of that city for Christ. Surely friends in the service of the Lord,-whether it be in this city travelling the downward road to ruin. leaves the shores of his native country; he ap- in England would help that good work. There acts, or, better still, in prayer and in exercises I meet them with a different cordiality than I pears here as a friend and neighbour, who is was present in the meeting a gentleman who of faith. Therefore, my dear friends, I feel im- formerly showed. I do not have to tell them that weeks since, a young man rose and saidshortly to be your representative in Italy. It had made a large contribution towards the object. Brother Green our best wishes for the Mission for they see it within me. I need not ask you a residence in St. Louis, one of the most wicked promptly answered he had. to such a work, and it is a small thing. Mr. chitect of the place. He gave freely all the time he had already devoted in preparing plans, difficult. He will soon find himself in the midst you to pray for my companion who is out of the ing mother, whom I left here in New York. Al Green, however, will this week go forth with, and be followed, I believe, by the sympathy and &c., and presented his services for the entire su- of a people very ignorant, and among whom the ark of safety. and be followed, I believe, by the sympathy and event of the erection. He had, more-earnest prayers of every man and woman pres-perintendence of the erection. He had, more-Gospel has not till lately been at all preached. A city missionary said the power of God was earnest prayers of every man and woman pres-ent. We know that, however feeble this effort may appear to be, God can, by his power, make one man as good as a thousand. The victory of Christ is never carried by numbers, nor by tal- in his power. They (the Committee) would like the presence of God, and humble prayer and tians continued to pray, and talk, and labor, ents, nor by riches, or any of the ordinary means to draw the attention of the meeting to Spain confidence that God will give power to the minis- New-York would be redeemed.

Which smiles o'er sleeping innocence ; of influence. It is accomplished by the power also. He knew some in that room who had been try thereof.

his wife while on a drunken frolic. I report tohis wife while on a drunken frolic. I report to-day that the grace of God hath re-united those o'clock in the marning, and with the strictest REWARKABLE ANSWERS TO PRAYER. two hearts that rum had severed, and that I saw A brother said he would mention a few inthe man and his wife in church last night, hap-

Pravers were asked for the inebriste husband A DEEPER WORK OF GRACE.

A sister desired the prayers of the meeting and the coffin carried into the Chapel Royal, in Mexico, and he had no doubt the prayers of speaking, "If ye will not believe steadfastly, late Royal Highness ordered the erection of a sion. This brother stated that the religious in- 'I will receive you, from all your idols I will within a month or six weeks from the present anxious that the work of the Lord should re- spirit I will put within you.' Why, I just as wishes of the illustrious deceased, the body will vive, he asked the brothren in John-street on much believe in God's promises to-day as that I be privately removed from the vault of the Cha-Friday, to pray that the work might revive, and see the brethren and sisters before me. God pel Royal, and faually deposited at Frogmore. for the encouragement of the meeting he said, cannot lie; he is faithful to all his promises; The remains, as usual, will be enclosed in four that on the Saturday night following new sub- may we be faithful in believing what God coffins-two of plain solid mahogany, one of lead, and an outer case of mahe gany and crimson velvet. The two inner coffins were sealed A sister said :-- "The Lord has cleansed me from all my idols, because I desired to give down on Monday. . . . The funeral will be conthem up." She asked the brethren to pray for ducted with the strictest privacy, and no tickets

ANOTHER ANSWER TO PRAYER.

A Positive Witness.

It is of Warren, the author of " Ten Thousand a Year," that this sharp practice in the examination of a man accused of swearing falsely a will case is related. It shows great dramatic power, unconsciously exhibited in his business. The prisoner being arraigned, and the formalities gone through with, the prosecutor, placing his thumb over the seal, held up the will, and demanded of the prisoner if he had seen the

A Mother's Pravers. In the Fulton Street Prayer Meeting, a l

"When God inclines a heart to pray,

That night, this her son was converted."

General Miscellann

He hath an ear to hear.

testator sign that instrument, to which he "And did you sign it at his request as sub cribing witness ? " " I did " " Was it sealed with red or black wax ?" "With red wax." my life long I had neglected religion, in spite of my mother's prayers. When I got to St. Louis, " Did you see him seal it with red wax ?" "I did." "Where was the testator when he signed this will ?" " In his bed." " Pray, how long a terest in my spiritual welfare. I was led by piece of wax did he use ?" "About three or four inches long," " Who gave the testator this them to the house of God and the prayer meeting. Two years ago, I became, as I hope, a piece of wax ?" "I did." "Where did you Christian. I am here to-day for the first time in get it ?" "From the drawer of his desk." How did he light that piece of CONVERSION OF AN AGED MAN. An elderly man rose and said :--- I rise to a brother who was in the habit of attending the of admission to the chapel will be issued. It is testify to the goodness of God, for I feel his meeting, but who had absented himself for a understood that the Court mourning for her late love shed abroad in my heart. It has been but few weeks from the house of prayer. His store Royal Highness will be for six weeks. a few weeks since I have been in this way, but had been robbed, and she feared he was grieving thanks be to my Heavenly Father, those few too much about it. She was anxious to have weeks have been happier to me than all the all her classmates wholly sanctified, and when rest of my life. I did not experience this love she arrived in this country from England, she jects came forward to the altar for prayer, so says."

that they resolved to continue their extra meet-

CONVERSION OF A YOUTH ON HIS WAY TO CHUBCH.

fts, very shortly. TREET--- HALIFAX. ER'S arilla ach to TEX DOLLARS, velvet, pspier machie and clasps, and shields,

SITORY.

MILY BIBLE with on index, &c 6s 3d ol'd engrav gilt extra

Hustrations, Family Bi-

in morocco

uo ble, quarto

, elegas

maps, index

m rocco Bible, up to amily Bible, y and Scot, oroece, pro-

Pulpet Bible,

-9 rols, (mo

Bibles,

lied edges ra gilt,

165 Od

30s 0d 30s 0d

17s 6d 30s 0d

128 6d

24s 0d

358 00

. 5s 0d

40s 0d

408 00 708 00

32s 6d

954 Ud

60s 04

100s 0d

FOCK low Prices. ND AT THE

G THE BLOOD. the following complaints us Affectious, such Sores, Ernptions, Blotches, Boils, Diseasce. blue, 6th June, 1859. is has done for me. is infection. I have suffered years. Sometimes it burst a and arms, isometimes it benit and covered my scalp register of the stamach. Two heat and covered my scalp register of the stamach. Two may medicines and several a relief from any thing. In a risk theory from your reputs-inger that you had propared if there from your reputs-de must be good. I sent to dist till it curvel me. I bolt asso of a tensponful over a bottles, "New and healthy der the icach, which after a w clear, and i know by my inf am saying when I tell r of the apostles of the age, Neuron, its set

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

ALPRED 5. IALLSI. Rose or Exysipelas, heum, Scald Head, Zyes, Dropsy. tes from Salein, N. Y., 12th ured an inveterate case of to terminate fatally, by the parilla, and also a dangerons rge doess of the same; says or Swelled Neck. Texas, vrites : "Three bot d me from a Goire - a hid which I had suffered from ites. Over inn Tumor, n. Female Diseases. New York Gity, writes; "I have request of your skewin Sarsaparila a most excilent us complaints for which we especially in Beade Diseases. I have cured many involg-rition of the userus. The ulco-d. Nothing within my knowl-male derangements." bury, Ala., writes, "A dan-

LECTED ASSORTMENT le at the lowest prices, a large Stock of Christemedies we could the start of Sar-thought nothing but extirpa-he advised the trial of your resort before cutting, and it ting your remody eight works ercurial Disease. OBLEANS, 25th August, 1859. heerfully comply with the re-port to you some of the effects Sarsaparilla. my practice, most of the com ded, and have found it the cure of Epurcel and *Mer-*patients had Syphilitic ulcers consuming his palate and the Saranperilla, steadily taken. Another was attacked by sec-rose and the ulceration had art of it, so that lieve the brain and kill man. But of your Sarsharilla: the gain, not of course without A wougan who had been by increasive was suffering They had become so seen a demp day size suffered ex-s and boues. She, too, was illa in rfew we hich your agent gave mo, that nr laboratory must be a great ese truly remarkable result

G. V. LARIMER, M. D. t, Liver Complaint. wit, Liver Complexity, 1852. have been afficient with a pain-for a long 'ting, which to find the stuck to me in spite of all the still itrid your Sanaparilla. One weeks, and restored my general and far better than before I was anderful medicine. J. FREAM. anderful medicine. J. FREAM. St. Louis, writes: "I have been an agreetion of the Liver, which tried every thing, and every thing d I have been a broken-down main other cause than derangement of pastor, the Hev. Mr. Rays, advised him, because he said he keew you, is was worth trying. By the blee-me, and hasiso purified my blood of me. I feel young again. The you is not half good enough."

Tumors, Enlargement,

s have been reported to us where le complaints have resulted from but our space here will not admit may be found in our American gents below named are pleased to call for them t Disease, Fits, Epilop-choly, Neuralgia t Discasse, Fits, Epilep-chaoly, Neuraigia kres of these affections have been power of this medicine. It stimu-ns into vigrous action, and thus hich would be supposed beyond its has long been required by the ne-and we are confident that this will wilche can do.

herry Pectoral RAPID CURE OF F RAPID CURE OF Influenza, Hoarseness, hitis, Incipient Con-and for the Relief umptive Patients vanced Stages the Discase.

universally known to surpass any hroat, and hing complaints, that it the evidence of its virtues. the the evidence of its virtues. Its icr couples and culds, nucl its truly pulmonary discesse, have , made it the civilised instanss of the earth-tism, or even families, among them personal expirience of its effecta-ing the second second second second disculs distantly of the so discretes, and a effects of this remedy, we need not we hen that than now all the vir-when making the curse which have a the confidence of markind. of man C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass

swell, Hollis Street, Halifax ruggis

IAL WESLEYAN, EVERY WEDNESDAY, ference Office and Book Room, STREET, HALIFAX, N. S. th this Paper is published are -Ten Shillings yearly RTISEMENTS: WESLEYAN, from its large, in al circulation, is an eligible and or advertising. Persons will find to advertise in this paper. TERMS: under, 1st insertion 12-(additional) tee one-fourth of the above rates. not limited will be continued und and charged accordingly. JOB WORK, WORK executed with neather

Sweet the musician's ardor beats, While his vague mind's in quest of sweets, The choicest flowers to hive.

Sweeter in all the strains of love, The language of the turtle dove, Pair'd to thy swelling chord Sweeter, with every grace endured, The glory of thy gratitude, Respired unto the Lord

Strong is the horse upon his speed Strong in pursuit the rapid glede Which makes at once his game Strong the tall ostrich on the ground Strong through the turbulent profound Shoots xiphias to his aim.

Strong is the lion-like a coal His eyeball-like a bastion's mail His chest against his foes; Strong the grey-eagle on his sail; Strong against tide the enormous whale

Emerges, as he goes.

But stronger still, in earth and air, And in the sea, the man of prayer. And far beneath the tide And in the seat to faith assigned Where ask is have, and seek is find, Where knock is open wide.

Glorious the sun in mid career; Glorious the assembled fires appear Glorious the comet's train : Glorious the trumpet and alarm Glorious the Almighty's stretched out

Glorious the enraptured main :

Glorious the northern lights astream Glorious the song when God's the theme Glorious the thunder's roar; Glorious hosannah from the den Glorious the catholic amen :

Glorious the martyr's gore Glorious-more glorious is the crown

Of him that brought salvation down By meekness called thy Son; Thou that stupendous truth believed, And now the matchless deed's achieved, Determined, dared and done. -----

Weslevan Missions to the Continent of Europe. (From the Watchman.)

On Wednesday evening, at the Centenary truth-by truth and love; not to go to scold, been previously banished from France on ac Hall, a public meeting was held to take leave of but to go believing that the way to man's heart count of their religion, had gone to the valleys the Rev. R. Green, appointed to labour in Italy; is the same all the world over-by love. We of Piedmont, when the Church of the Waldenand to hear statements from the Rev. Luc Puls go, contending by all means for the faith of ses, though oppressed, maintained its indepenford, of Paris, and others, respecting the pro- Christ, but contending always under the per- dence. But, now, some of the very men who ject for a new chapel in that city. On the plat- vading influence of love and charity. If we had been sent out of the country, and not al form were the Rev. W. W. Stamp, President of look at the openings for the Gospel in Italy lowed to re-enter it during the late reign, had the Conference, the Revs. Dr. Osborn, W. Ar- they are very extraordinary. (In proof of gladly returned, and were zealously proclaiming thur, (General Secretaries of the Missionary this Mr. Arthur read his own translation of the Gospel of Christ, Many of the Vaudoi Society,) and W. B. Boyce, the Revs. B. Field, an article from a recent number of a Paris would be able to tell, if they had the opportuni R. S. Hardy, W. West, (from Africa,) G. Alton, journal, in which the temporal power of the ty, that it was through Methodist preaching (late of Gibraltar,) the Rev. R. Green, Mission- Papacy was compared with the decaying Otto- they had themselves been brought to Christ .ary Designate, the Rev. L. Pulsford, M. De man Empire, and the Pope at Rome with the So that, in one sense, there was already a Valcourt, (of Paris,) W. Davenport, H. M. Har- Sultan, in this respect-that there was now an- Church that might not improperly be stated to vard, and others.

After praise and prayer, conducted by the to whom that epithet had been given by the late arrived in Italy, he would perhaps be met by President and the Rev. B. Field, a portion of Czar Nicholas.) In continuation of his remarks other Christian men, who would say, "We Holy Scripture was read by Dr. Osborn. The PRESIDENT-The service of this evening though going out singly was not intended to la- have met them on the Continent." The speaker appears to myself fraught with more than or- bour alone. The Rev. H. J. Piggott, of Ham- then proceeded to refer to the work of God in dinary interest. Our customary Missionary mersmith Circuit, had offered his services to the Corsica, as testified by the letters of his brother gatherings have generally reference to regions Committee, who had also accepted them, and he in the Gospel, M. Le Gresley. In the town of far beyond—to fields of usefulness in distant regions of the globe. The present has reference to places pears to be appointed to Italy. Another object of the present has reference be appointed to Italy. Another object of the places pears to places nearer home. The important and stir-ring events which have recently taken place on the continent of Europe, have not only awaken-

The President next called upon the Rev. Geo. labouring and praying for that country. In a resting upon operations often apparently feeble recent number of a Jesuit print-the Civilta Alton, who had laboured in Gibraltar, to give of an inward life, and by the power of the Spirit Cattolica-published in Rome, the Spanish cor- some account of the work of God there. and insignificant. Now as we are going to Italy, we don't wish you to think that it is we who commence evangelistic efforts there. Others we don't wish you to think that it is we who respondent, desirous of informing the Italian The Rev. Geo. Alton expressed the great pleaand insignificant. Now as we are going to Italy, which was carried by acclamation.

praver.

no to'

The President, in reply, expressed pleasure which the meeting had afforded him.

Nearly Home.

" Beyond the gathering and the strewing,

"Beyond the gathering and the strewi I shall be soon; Beyond the ebbing and the flowing, I shall be soon; Beyond the coming and the going, I shall be soon; Love, rest, and home, Sweet home! Lord, tarry not, but come!"

Religious Intelligence.

Meeting.

We continue to furnish an account

TWO CHILDREN CONVERTED.

in Spain, described the state of public opinion anything concerning the spiritual state of a have done that-have done it under circumthere as utterly lost and hopeless, and as to the country for which he had laboured so much stances far harder than any that beset the prefuture of his Church, he did not know what was and felt so deeply. He then proceeded to sent undertaking. The old Church of the Vaudois from those valleys in which it had long been to become it. Mr. Alton, well acquainted with describe the religious condition of Spain at shut up, has come down, and by the diffusion of that country, was present, and he doubted not the close of the last and the commencement the meeting would be glad to hear him. those saving truths of which it had been the The Rev. Richard Green (who met with a most upon it of the various political conflicts by faithful depositary, had already done a great work. I hope when we appear side by side with cordial reception) then gave a brief statement of which the nation had been repeatedly convulsed that Church we shall be ready to help it, by his views in reference to his departure as a Mis-during the last fifty years. He next spoke of A HUSBAND CONVERTED FOR WHOM PRAYER words and deeds, to diffuse more widely the sionary to Italy. If he understood rightly, he evangelical Protestants to spread the knowledge Gospel of salvation. God has not only employ- was to go simply as a Methodist Preacher and ed the Church of the Vaudois, but has also been he was very proud to be assisted in that work working through our friends in Geneva, who with his brother Piggott. The remarks made have been labouring some time, and helping by by the last speaker would be to him as a direcsome length, and the Rev. Gentleman concluded men and means. There is also a considerable tory, and Wesley's maxim would be that of the with a number of interesting facts connected evangelical work being accomplished by a native Wesleyan evangelists in Italy-" the friends of with his own labours as a Missionary in Gibraltalian Church-a Church which has been raised all, the enemies of none." Some of the existby individual influence through the reading of ing evangelical communities in that country had tar, and as agent of the Bible Society in differ the word of God ; and, in different parts of that been brought very near to each other by their ent parts of Spain. country there are many such communities enga- common faith in Christ. At Florence, during ged in spreading the truth among their fellow the New Year's Week of Prayer, they had been vote of thanks to the President. countrymen. We go as friends to aid that good drawn to thoughts of becoming a united Church. The Rev. W. B. Boyce seconded work, and not to excite jealousies amongst those His own first wish had been to dedicate himself who are engaged in it. Our object is rather to to the Missionary work. Circumstances and bring all sincere Christians nearer to one another. tender ties that had withheld him were now When a man says he is a Methodist, that very dissolved, and he went forth with only one feeling profession makes him the avowed friend of all of regret-that his position would be so conspic the friends of the Saviour ;- not that he shuts uous. He expressed his thanks to Mr. Arthur his eyes to the difference of opinion or practice for the very marked attention he had received between his own Church and those of others, or from him, and commending himself anew to the is capable of undervaluing the peculiarities of prayers and sympathies of God's people, and to his own Church, but is by its pecular spirit bound the guidance of His Spirit, and depending more to love and labour with others, making all dif- than ever, for himself upon the mediation of the ferences short of the vital principles of the Gos- Lord Jesus Christ he was going forth to preach pel subordinate to the one great object of saving His Gospel in Italy.

and blessing the souls of men. All who bear The Rev. Luc Pulsford expressed the grea this name should ever be ready to say, "If thy happiness he felt at being present at the meeting heart be as my heart, give me thy hand." That for the designation of the first Methodist Minisis the spirit in which we wish to go into Italy- ter who was going out to Italy. Italy was the the spirit of friendship with all the friends of sister of France. Mr. Green's going there the Saviour of every denomination. I would would be followed not only by the prayers of not wish to go where other Churches are labour- British Christians, but many French Christians ing for the same great end, but would like to would follow him with theirs also. When he find new ground-as showing a more friendly arrived in the country, the Italians would say, feeling and a more catholic spirit than an op- "We know the Methodists." They knew that posite course. As to the professors of the Ro- Methodist Ministers had not been sent there man Catholic faith, all our proceedings towards without well-known precursers, Charles Cook, them we would have characterized by love and Rostan, and others, now in heaven, who having mid-day convocation for praver. other " Sick Man" in Europe (beside the Sultan be of Methodist planting. When Mr. Green

Mr. Arthur proceeded to say that Mr. Green, know your good people, the Methodists, we thankful to God that He led them to the mercytheir peace with God.

moved "up town," and neglecting to identify himself in church-fellowship with the people of of the present century, and the influence sins. I stand up for Jesus to-day, he said, and proving that, intend to continue to do so until I die. the various efforts which have been made by

The meeting on Tuesday will be long rememof the Gospel in the Peninsula. The efforts of bered by those who had the privilege of being the Wesleyan Missionary Society, and the Brit- present. The Holy Spirit's influences rested up ish and Foreign Bible Society, were detailed at on the assemblage, and every heart appeared to Death of the Duchess of Kent. be melted by its power. The Leader, in open-The death of the Duchess of Kent took place ing the exercises, said :-- "What miserable trash the riches, honors, and pleasures of this world on Saturday. Her Royal Highness had been are compared with an hour's communion with unwell during the week, cancer, from which she

God, and a consciousness that we have passed has suffered for several years, having made a from death unto life, that we are Christ's and fatal progress. On Tuesday, in consequence of Dr. Osborn offered a few words of encourage ment to the Missionary Designate, and moved a Christ is ours! Glory to God in the highest the unfavourable accounts from Frogmore, the

that we can have such communion here, that God Queen and Prince Consort made a visit to Froghas opened up a way for us to have peace like a more, and the Princess Alice visited her Illusriver, and joy unspeakable, and full of glory. If trious grandmother on Thursday. The illness we are steadfast and unmoveable, if we are did not, however, assume, until about one o'clock prompt in the discharge of duty, if we only act on Friday, such a character as to cause alarm of on Finday, such a constance. as to the find of that people. One giant to give the shall hold that sweet communion to-day in this her Majesty's physician, called at Frogmore-is not. Go to Italy-decay, degradation, suffer-Dr. Osborn closed the proceedings with meeting. You will recollect that last week a house on that day, and was informed by the lady came to the meeting to request prayers for a sister's husband who was seeking Christ. I Duchess's medical attendant, that a sudden and arisely submand who was seeking Christ. a sister's husband, who was seeking Christ. I a sister's misoling, who was been and that on the James at once returned to London and commu-by some invisible power; the people dare not " Almost well, and nearly at home," said the evening of the day the request was made, your nicated the intelligence to the Prince Consort. speak aloud; they walk slowly; an armed soldving Baxter, when asked how he was by a friend. martyr, when approaching the stake, being and she, who had been for some time previous questioned as to how he felt, answered, " Never in the dark, received a great blessing in her own better ; for now I know that I am almost home." soul. Oh, how blessed is this spot! how I like Frogmore-house, and remained during the whole Then looking over the meadows between him to look into the faces of those who meet here, night in attendance on the Duchess, whose weakand the place where he was to be immediately especially because our souls have been filled with joy and peace, and we have enjoyed the smiles on Saturday morning, when her Royal Highness the Bible. Eater the Vatican, and inquire for a especially because our souls have been filled with burnt. he said, " Only two more stiles to get over. and I am at my Father's house." "Dying," of God. You, whose heads are as white as said the Rev. S. Medley. "is sweet work-sweet mine have had these blessed visitations; many her couch being surrounded by the Queen, the work. Home ! home !" Another, on his death ruined, lost sinners have been picked up on the Prince Consort, and Princess Alice; and her by side with the works of Diderot, Rosseau, and bed, said, "I am going home as fast as I can, brink of hell, by Jesus Christ, who picked us up Royal Highness's ladies. The Queen and Prince Voltaire. But pass over the Alps into Switzerand I bless God that I have got a good home to and set us at liberty, not only in this meeting, with the Princess Alice, overwhelmed with grief, land, and down the Rhine in Holland, and over and in Brooklyn are visited by the Holy Ghost."

> GREAT REVIVAL IN STATEN ISLAND. their sorrowing parents. A brother from Staten Island said :-- " I have a request to present to my brethren here to-day, of her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent ference?. There is no brighter sky-there is no having been absent from you three months. I was issued on Saturday :-

want to tell you a little about what God has been FROGMORE, March 16. doing for us in answer to your prayers. Since I last assembled with you we have had something health had been declining for some time, but W. Adams, D.D. like seventy-eight conversions in our Sabbath- without giving any cause of immediate anxiety fourteen weeks, and, as I tell my brethren, we rigor. From this time the symptoms assumed are sailing in deep water; God is moving upon a very dangerous character, and, although she the hearts of the people. We have conversions passed a quiet night the prostration of her we continue to intrins an account of the interacts of the proper. We have almost every night; most of our Sabbath- strength continued to increase rapidly, and her be seen at midsummer-time in the boarsy Her ters.

A MINISTER'S DAUGHTER SEEKING JESUS.

my life. I feel that it is due to my dear praying "How did he light that piece of wax?" "With mother, that I stand here, a witness to tell what a candle." "Where did that piece of candle A young brother said that some time since the Lord has done for my soul, and to acknowl- come from?" "I got it out of a cupboard in "Who lit that piece of sandle ?" " I lit thers to pray for their unconverted sons." "Who lit that piece of eandle?" "I lit it." A gentleman arose and said :---"I know this "What with ?" "With a match." "Where God, he lost his religion. He then made up his young man's praying mother. She has prayed did you get that match ?" "On the mantlemind to ask God for Christ's sake to pardon his much for this her son. One night she prayed shelf in the room." Here Warren paused, and sins, and as he was starting one evening to go through all the still hours till morning, and then fixing his large deep blue eyes upon the prisoner, to church, before he got there, God forgave his became assured that her prayers were answered, he held the will up above his head, his thumb still resting upon the seal, and said, in a solemn measured tone : " Now, sir, upon your solemn oath, you saw the testator sign that will; he signed it in his bed ; at his request you signed it, as a subscribing witness; you saw him seal it ; it was with red wax he scaled it ; a piece of one, two, three, or four inches long ; he lit that wax with a piece of candle, which you procured for him from a cupboard : you lit the candle by a match which you found on the mantle-shelf ? "I did." "Once more, sir, upon your oath, you did ?" " I did !" " My lord, it's a wafer."

The Effects of Protestantism.

-Blackwood.

Tell me where the Protestant religion and the Bible are, and where they are not, and I will write a moral geography of the world. I will show what, in all particulars, is the physical conmost unfavourable change taken place. Sir There is a heaviness in the air ; you feel cramped A special train was immediately ordered to con- diery is about their dwellings; the armed police vey the Queen, the Prince Consort, and Princess take from the stranger his Bible before he enters Alice to Windsor, whence they proceeded to the territory. Ask for the Bible in the book stores; it is not there, or in a form so large and expensive as to be beyond the reach of the combreathed her last, peaceably and without pain, Bible, and you will be pointed to some case where it reposes among prohibited books, side remained at Frogmore during the day, where the channel to England and Scotland, and what the Prince of Wales and Princess Helena joined an amazing contrast meets the eye ! Men look their sorrowing parents. The following bulletin announcing the death with an air of independence; there are industry, neatness, instruction for children. Why this diffairer scenes of nature-but they have the Bible ; and happy are the people who are in such a case, "Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent's for it is righteousness that exalteth a nation .-

An English Lavender Field.

We take from Mr. Piessi's latest volume, the following fragrant description of a sight that may

There is one sight in old England that I love Two young men have promised me to go to the Telegrams to announce the melancholy event beyond measure, and that is a lavender field; it altar for the first time, this evening, and breth-ren and sisters, I want you to pray that God of Prussia, the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, color of its flowers all the ailk-dyers are trying manner that they will be savingly converted. I the King of Portugal, the King of Hanover, the Then its fragrance !----ha! how inimitable, as the thankful to God that He led them to the mercy-seat. They told him (the speaker) they felt satisfied in their own minds that they had made for us, and we have made up our minds to con-statisfied in their own minds that they had made tinue to labor till every sinner is converted to Viscount Palmerston and her Majesty's Minis- matched " in all the world," and he is proud of it accordingly. In this little island, no less than

An extraordinary Gazette was issued on Satur- about 270 acres of its precious land is devoted school and church ; we have held meetings for till yesterday, when the Duchess had a violent The John-Street Daily Prayer reason to believe that the publicity given to it in school teachers, a great many of the children, Royal Highness died at half-past nine o'clock fordshire meadows the Methodist, has increased the interest of this and even whole families, are converted to God this morning." A brother stated that he requested prayers