1 2, 1903

rap to cap-

d with two

et to watch

lt. At the

the crafty

nouts of joy

lcome intel-

on the bul-

o the trap. out devising

ous animal

ond pit dug

d in this a

placed. A

rge enough

om the new

tiger was a

aced in the

thin wall of

it and the

ned and the

ged through goat. The

nd him, and

ed safely to

l remains, an

HINKING

at I started

lification for

ful merchant

ve done by

dealing, and,

entioned rule

n as of slight

s astonishing

ed to others

oinions which

When any

arises, the

nally reserve

have learned

n the subject.

er importance

course is fol-

an has been

morally by

ions of others

act at once.

eve taking ad-

v times when

ch one should

ecide whether

ts that come

iy to be re-

ak as he who

the opinions

Though the

e trifling and

our own, they

ourselves than

ons borrowed

TEREST

the Boston

if any one

or myself."

"What I

Advice to Old Maids

Give your gentlemen friends good tea. It is unnecessary to go to India for a Mon-soon.

Lead Packets.

All Grocers.

INDO-CEYLON TEA

ONE CUSHION FRAME

There are many imitations, but only one Hygienic Cushion Frame. To it this present revival in wheeling is due. It has put more comfort and more pleasure into the sport. It does away with all vibration - smooths over the rough road. The Hygienic is to wheeling what the "Pullman" is to railroading. It makes all roads smooth roads.

CUSHION FRAME

Massey-Harris Bicycles have it. Call at the showrooms and see the new wheel. One price to all.

34 King Street West.

Write for our new booklet, "In Bicycledom." .. Store open evenings.

CANADA CYCLE & MOTOR COMPANY

TORONTO

from others. The thinking habit is of the highest importance. It gives independence of character, reliance on one's own resources, and readiness of action. It makes a man of what is only a machine when the individual is controlled by outside influences.

And the earlier in life this habit is formed the more beneficial it is. It is the boy who thinks that is known in manhood as one who lifts the thought of the world to a higher level. James Watt had already learned the habit of thinking for himself when the smell so good. Dick's little nose almysterious force within the tea-kettle | most touched them! And then he sat directed his attention, boy as he was, to the importance of the hitherto un- for cook to return quickly and save chained power of steam. Newton had him from becoming a thief. also acquired the same habit when, at eighteen years of age, the falling apple bade him investigate the hidden force of gravitation.

The opinions of others should always be regarded with respect; but, while this is true, no individual can be regarded as fully fitted for the duties of life who has not learned to think intelligently for himself.

HONEST LITTLE DICK.

In all my life, I never saw so honest a little cat as our Dick. He not only Folks.

never stole himself, but he would not allow any other cat to steal if he could help it. The dear little fellow, however, was strongly tempted once and came very near losing his good name.

One day the cook carried out a pail of nice little frost-fish and set it down in the yard. Dick was there. Dick always was nearby when there were good things to eat. The cook went back into the house and Dick sat down to wait for her return; and two of his especial friends were at the window upstairs, looking down to see what "honest little Dick" would do.

The cook was a long time coming back to dress the fish, and all the while Dick kept watch—now on the pail, now on the kitchen door. At last he went somewhat nearer to the pail, then nearer, then nearer. Ah! frost-fish down and cried at the top of his voice

Still she did not come. At last Dick put his forepaws on the edge of the pail. Then he looked at the kitchen door and cried again. But the door did not open. So slowly, softly, a paw reached down into the pail. But, before it had gone down as far as the fish, it came back with a jerk, empty; and its owner ran around the corner of the house where he would not see or smell those nice frost-fish any more. He did not want to be a thief; and we believe that the little fellow never came so near it again.—Little

THE BABY CHOIR.

'Now all you tots sit in a row, 'Cause you are the big church choir, And I'll stand here to lead, you know;

And when I wave my stick—just so— Then you must all sing higher." But Roy sang of a "choo-choo" car, And Gracie of "nice weather,"

While Rob's and Bessie's "twinkle Went wandering high and low afar-

They couldn't keep together. The little leader's eyes grew wet, And then a smile o'erran them;

"You see, mamma, they can't do it; They can't sing songs the leastest bit, And so they singed an anthem!"

-Kate W. Hamilton.

THE TWO "JOBS."

"Grandmother gave you the nicest job," grumbled Susie, "I believe she loves you best."

"Best-notning!" answered Aleck, boylike; "grandmother sent me to drive the sheep 'cause I'm a boy, and 'cause I've got a whip. Girls can't drive things !"

These two little city children had fashioned trundle-bed in the farmhouse where their father was born. But immediately after breakfast they had asked for a job-"something that father used to do when he was little.'

Now, as Aleck was a good-hearted fellow, and did not like to see Susie vexed, he "swapped jobs" with her, and set off to pick raspberries, whistling like a red-bird.

But alas for the folks that turn from their own work to snatch at other people's! Before Aleck had covered the bottom of his shining tin pail he heard loud screams from the lot, and dropping pail and berries he flew to see what was the matter. Ah, the little red-frocked girl! She was fleeing and screaming as she fled, before the old turkey-cock, which, with a or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. hateful sound of "gobble, gobble, gobble," was close upon her.

Dusty from the talls, and smeared with tears and grass stains, Susie sobbed on grandmother's shoulder: "I tried to catch him-I thought-I thought he was a scarlet tanager, like the picture in my book!"

"And Mr. Turkey thought you were little soldier coming to give him battle," laughed grandmother.

"Next time I'll attend to my own job," said the little scholar, who had learned something that morning more important than the difference between it went hard with Michael O'Halloran the turkey-cock and a scarlet tanager! after that,

PAYING FOR A PLEASANTRY.

It was a prisoner of great activity of speech who recently faced the magistrate in the Philadelphia Central Police Court.

"What is your name?" asked the magistrate.

"Michael O'Halloran," was the re-

Why Impure Blood In the Spring?

The Necessity of Looking to the Health of the Liver and Kidneys -The Natural Filters of the Blood,

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

If the liver and kidneys were always kept in perfect health and activity, ready at all times to thoroughly filter the impurities from the blood, there would be no necessity of making special effort to purify the blood.

During the summer season, when the diet is composed largely of natural foods, such as fresh fruits and vegetables, there is little trouble from impure blood, because the slept only a single night in the old- | filtering organs are kept healthy and active. It is the artificial life of winter that brings on constipation of the bowels, clogging of the kidneys and a congested condition of the

For this reason spring finds the blood loaded with impurities and it becomes absolutely necessary to use some means of makng the filtering organ active, in order that the blood may be purified and the poisons driven from the system.

Nature has only provided one way of ourifying the blood, and that is through iver and kidneys. Because Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act promptly, directly and thoroughly on these filtering organs, making them healthy and vigorous in action, they are unsurpassed as a medicine for purifying the blood.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have come to be considered a necessity in thousands of disease, liver complaint, constipation, biliousness and impurities of the blood, there is no treatment so eminently satisfactory as this great prescription of Dr. A. W. Chase, One pill a dose, 25 cents abox, at all dealers,

"What is your occupation?"

"Phat's that?"

"What is your occupation? What work do you do?"

"Oi'm a sailor."

The magistrate looked incredulous. "I don't believe you ever saw a ship," he said.

"Didn't Oi, thin?" said the prisoner. "An' phwat do yez t'ink O1 come over in-a hack?"

The Philadelphia Record says that

Feel Good

cious, new, healthful Cereal "Wheat Marrow" for breakfast you will start out in the morning clear headed and with firm, elastic step. Wheat Marrow contains four fifths of the elements necessary to sustain life.

There is nothing else like it. The weakest stomach digests it easily. Send us your grocer's name if he doesn't keep it and you'll get generous samples-free. Best Grocers sell it.

Lat Wheat

tism in any ill send their -62 Winthrop he will direct re. He has e; only tells after vears of andreds have