

“ tion : That the Persons who have relied on the Faith of this Pro“ vince may have no further reason to complain, and may rest satisfied “ with the Security You shall provide for the Discharge of their “ Claims.—On this Occasion, so important, I cannot urge You too
“ strenuously : And I shall rely on Your utmost Exertions for a pur“ pose so pressing and necessary for Your own Credit, Welfare and “ Prosperity.

“ In the course of Your Session the Revival of expiring and neces“ sary Laws, with all the requisite Amendments and Explanations
“ of the Laws in General, will come under your Consideration.

“ The Proper Officers will lay before You all Papers necessary
“ for Your Inspection and Information.—Unanimity in Your Delibera“ tions will much forward the Dispatch of Your Transactions and “ will leave You at Liberty to follow Your other necessary Pur“ suits and Avocations.

“ My Wishes, Gentlemen for Your Welfare are earnest, and You “ cannot afford me any thing more grateful, than the means of pro“ moting it.”
