

JOURNAL and VOTES
OF THE
HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, OF THE PROVINCE OF
NEW-BRUNSWICK.

TUESDAY, February the 13th, 1787.

THE house having been prorogued until this day, met, and there being only twelve Members present, adjourned until one o'clock to-morrow.

WEDNESDAY, February 14th, 1787.

As there was only the same number of Members present as yesterday, the house adjourned until to-morrow one o'clock.

THURSDAY, February 15th, 1787.

House met.—Col. Billogg and Mr. Paine, were directed to wait upon his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, and to acquaint him that the house were met and wait his commands. Message to the Lieut. Governor.

Message from his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor to the house, requesting their attendance in the Council Chamber. Message from his Excellency.