DISGRACEFUL.

The above is the only who will describe the humiliating tattle provided by the Liberal Dominion House on Saturday.

Dr. Clark of Red Deer leader and Grit papers describe as a hero. The Toronto Globe of him:

"Dr. Clark, the British member for Red Deer, and the fairest and most gentlemanly debater in the House named" by the Speaker in his opening upon the constitution of every member of Parliament.

In reality Clark is one of the greatest obstructionists with whom Canada has ever been afflicted, and once belonged to the British where he sat under closure.

After he had repeatedly defied the ruling of the Speaker, this "I will name you Dr. O'House."

"Name us all," chorus members of the opposition "Name and be damned," he shouted.

And according to the Globe Wilfrid Laurier sat up to the news and when told what happened said he was proud boys' to whom he conveyed hearty congratulations.

Think of that coming from Premier!

The situation is clear. A hungry politician are just to have another chance at power in order to force an appeal to willing to go to any and every excess.

If they should prove successful which is doubtful, they will be a smashing as no other party sustained in this Dominion.

SHOULD BE AN ENQUIRY

Once again the people of Ontario have been put to great loss, discomfort and positive gain by a break in connection with gas supply.

That mishaps will take place in connection with any public enterprise we all know, but recurrence of a similar mishap that of last year, in connection with the gas service, calls for investigation.

It is true that it is a private corporation, but in all essentials, public service (as it should be) made in the first place in addition the municipality is a heavy stockholder, with the of the time being having a share of the board.

The Grand River in 1912 showed what it could do at flood time breaking the main pipe near Cocksbutt Bridge, and now a similar incident has been recorded.

Surely there should have some lesson conveyed by the break, and the pipe placed in a more permanent position.

As it is, shivering Brantford were again forced to do without and cooking facilities, at a when cold weather was again upon us.

The average folk are long suffering and good natured enough they have to face the inevitable this does not look like that.

The general public have rights, as well as corporations, this
