

HARDY TEUTON PREPARING FOR WAR

GERMAN KAISER and HIS GRIM FIGHTERS

Emperor William II. of Germany.
Photo by Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.

German Skirmishers' Lying in Ambush for the Enemy.
Copyright by Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.

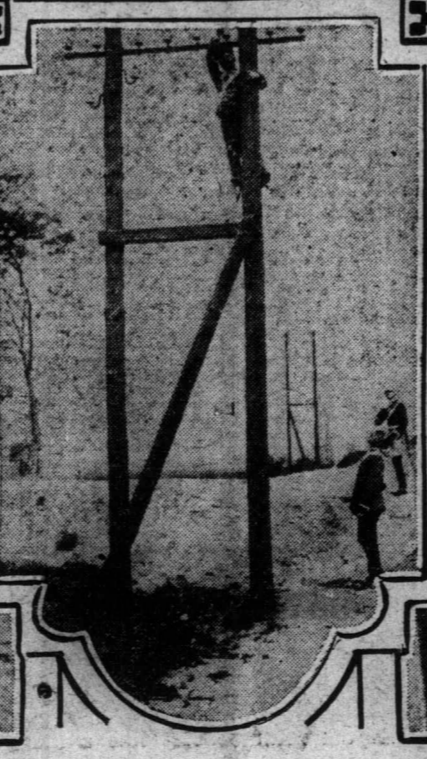

General Von Lochow, Commander of the Third Army Corps, Berlin, German Army Strategist.
Copyright by Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.

Namur, Belgium, a Pivotal Point in the German Advance.
Photo by Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.

General Von Below, Commander of the Twenty-First Corps, Saarbrücken, German Army Strategist.
Copyright by Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.

German Engineers Crossing Bridge of Their Own Construction.
Copyright by Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.

56 COLUMNS

FORTY-FOUR

Blue
Cau
O

BRITISH
IS TRU
OF ITS

Failure of tain The
to Gener
Continu
Several

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The publishes the following d from Amiens, great Satur I read this morning's Paris to me, knowing a portion truth, it seemed incredible the people of Paris
it has to face.
The press reads like ch prattle of gleanings from talk of parents a week ag is not well. I plead with ish censor to let my messa I guarantee him that as the situation of troops I thing to say that is not and noted already by the general staff. On the oth it is important that the should know and realize t tain things are bitter truth we can face them. We count our losses, to take the situation, to set our First, let it be said honor is bright. Amongst straggling units that I h at the front—the flotsam sam of the fiercest fight tory—I saw fear in no ma It was a retreating and army, but not an army of men. Nor in all the plain officers, non-commission cers and men did a single the white feather reach m one could answer for eve

SIDELIGHTS
FROM
OF

AUSTRIANS RUN
LONDON, Aug. 31, 7:15
Commenting on the ter the Austrians in crossing tula, apparently with th tion of joining hands.
army engaged in the Er Lublin, the St. Peter respondent of the Time
"By placing the Vistula themselves and their bas cow the Austrians are terrible risk. We must that their aid is urgently Lublin, where, according headquarters staff desper ing has been in prog nearly a week.
"Col. Shumsky, milit
of the Bourse Gazette,
ing on the operations,
that instead of their
their design of outflan road of the Russian adv Berlin, the Austrians t are compelled to retire Galicia.

BOULOGNE IS QU
LONDON, Aug. 31.
—The correspondent of at Boulogne, wiring his the situation there says
"The war cloud has away to the south, le town calm and peaceful
"The governor has
address to the townspl plaining that they are