HIGH SCHOOL LECTURE

The concluding lecture of the High School series was given in the assembly hall of the school last Thursday evening. The chair was acceptably filled by Mr. Joseph Thompson, and a short musical and literary programme preceded the lecture. Miss Arnold rendered a very pleasing vocal solo, Mrs. Towris a couple of humorous readings, and Miss Bottomley two choice violin solos. Rev. Wm. Usher of this village then delivered a most instructive and interesting address on Jerusalem and Southern Palestine, in the course of which a large number of splendid lantern views were displayed. The address was listened to with keen interest throughout, and the vote of thanks to the speaker, moved by Geo. Cowan and seconded by Wm. Glover, was enthusiastically and heartily given. The school and the audience were much indebted to Mr. Usher for his very able and interesting description of his visit to the Holy Land and for the excellent views which he himself had taken during his trip.

BOX SOCIAL

The Bluebird Mission Circle held a very successful box social last evening in the school room of the Methodist church. The boxes were tastily made and bidding was warm at times. A. M. Lee was auctioneer and filled the position admirably. Mrs. T. S. Kendrick occupied the chair and the following musical and literary numbers were given:

Piano duet—Mrs. Kendrick and Miss Rhena Kendrick.
Gramophone selection.
Recitation—Miss F. Wiltse.
Vocal Solo—Miss Gwen Wiltse.
Piano Solo—Miss M. Rowsome.
Recitation—Miss Keitha Smith.
Vocal Solo—Miss M. Slack.
Gramophone selection.
Vocal Duet—Misses L. Gorman and M. Brown.
Vocal Solo—Thos. Horsefield.
Harmonica Duet—Misses M. Slack and M. Brown.
Rev. George Edwards gave a short address which was well received.

AT REST

At the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Edmund Halladay, on Friday morning last there passed into the Rest of Paradise, Samuel Swayne, one of the early pioneers of this country, at the advanced age of over 95 years.

The deceased was a native of Enniscorthy, County Wexford, Ireland, and came to Canada over half a century ago before steamships were in use, and settled on his farm near Smith's Falls where he resided until about two years ago.

He possessed a remarkably healthy constitution and had the unique experience of never requiring the attendance of a physician. Even at the close of his long life he had no illness, passing away as if asleep. In politics Mr. Swayne was a staunch Conservative; in religion an Anglican, being a member of St. John's church, Smith's Falls from the time of its erection as a parish.

The large concourse of friends and neighbors who attended the funeral service on Sunday afternoon in St. John's church attested their respect for a consistent honorable citizen. Interment was made in the church cemetery. Requiescat in pace.

The Rev. W. G. Swayne, rector of Athens and Lansdowne Rear is the only surviving son.

"THE MARCH TO THE BATTLE-FIELDS"

Canada's Men on the Way

The "March to the Battlefields" or Canada's Men on the Way" is the title given a picture that will for many years to come be a highly prized treasure. It is a photographic reproduction showing the 32,000 men of Canada's first contingent breaking camp and on march to join the Continental forces. It shows miles and miles of the white tents and the marching men. It is a most inspiring sight. The size is 20x16 inches, all ready for framing. This picture is sure to be a popular souvenir of the war as far as Canada is concerned, and will be in great demand. It is owned by the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, and a copy is being presented to all subscribers to that great national weekly newspaper, The Family Herald, Montreal, whose subscription of one dollar a year is received from this date for a limited period.
