JEFFRIES SMITH AND CORBETT STEPHENS ENTER THE RING.

A Chatham artist has sent in the following pugilistic sketch of the local political combatants. Both of them, and especially his worship the Mayor, should be entitled to support on account of good looks. The cartoon is produced just as drawn. It is not copyrighted so that Mayor Smith and Ald. Stephens may have as many copies as they like reproduced to send to their friends.

NOTE OF WARNING

Chamberlain Sounds One to the British Electors Against Over-Confidence.

A Second Manifesto From Mr. Balfour—Leonard Courtney Admits the Government Will Likely Get a Big Majority.

London, Sept. 29.—The parliamentary general election campaign presents no new feature of a remarkable character.

A. J. Balfour, First Lord of the Treasury, seems to recognize the khaki issue alone is not strong enough, and has written a second manifesto in the shape of a letter to the Times, dealing with domestic questions. Speaking last evening at Manchester, Mr. Balfour, replying to a question on the subject of international currency, said he had always been in favor of a stable par of exchange which would benefit the trade and commerce of Great Britain and of other countries.

Speaking yesterday at Bilton, Mr. Chamberlain warned the electors against over-confidence.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of the Exchequer, speaking last evening at Bristol, said the country had quite enough on hand at present, and to attempt to establish an English administration of a portion of China would be an act of madness.

Leonard Courtney, speaking at Battersea, London, in favor of the candidacy of John Burns, admitted that the Government was likely to get a big majority.

Mrs. Geo. Cornwallis West (Lady Randolph Churchill) is assisting her son, Winston Leonard Spencer Churchill, in his canvass. Disorderly scenes have attended some of his meetings.

Piles cured in 3 to 6 nights.—One application gives relief. Dr. Agnew's Ointment is a boon for Itching Piles, or Blind, Bleeding Piles. It relieves quickly and permanently. In skin eruptions it stands without a rival. Thousands of testimonials. If you want evidence, 35 cents.—23

Sold by J. W. McLaren, Chatham.

A man finds no sweeter voice in the world than that which chants his praises.—Fontenelle.

To Starve is a Fallacy.—The dictum to stop eating because you have indigestion has long since been exploded. Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets introduced a new era in the treatment of stomach troubles. It has proved that one may eat his fill of anything and everything he wishes, and one tablet taken after the meal will aid the stomach in doing its work. 60 in a box, 35 cents.—24

Sold by J. W. McLaren, Chatham.

COGHLAN'S BODY IS FOUND.

Casket Containing Actor's Remains Recovered Near La Marque, Tex.

Galveston, Tex., Sept. 29.—A report reached here to-day that the casket containing the remains of Charles Coghlan, the actor, who died in this city last winter, was found at a point about sixteen miles north of Galveston, near the town of La Marque. The casket was washed from the receiving vault at Lakeview cemetery, which was destroyed by the storm. The undertaker who placed the casket in the vault went to La Marque this evening to identify it.

Gentlemen.—While driving down a very steep hill last August my horse stumbled and fell, putting himself fearfully about the head and body. I used MINARD'S LINIMENT freely on him and in a few days he was as well as ever.

FURS FROM ARTIC TO ANTARTIC

Look at the Furs! More than all the rest of the town put together! You don't expect to sell them all! Why the prices are away below last year! The finest stock I ever saw! We have some of the exclamations from visitors during our opening. If you purpose buying a fur garment this season and quality and price are inducements, you must see our lines. Our fur department is a small store of itself containing every kind known to the trade. We handle specimen furs and sample lines, that means you secure fine selected stock and better workmanship. This was Fair week a year ago and we had some cold weather and large sales of furs, but we surpass last year up to this date and we are only beginning. You will hear from us again.

MISS CATHCART'S MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Is now in full swing. Artistic taste and deft fingers have transformed finest material into things of beauty and loveliness in Ladies' Headgear. On every hand during her opening days were heard approvals and flattering comments, while some fine goods were disposed of and orders taken. The styles though the latest are moderate in price. No lady need sigh for a deep pocketbook, to gratify her desires—make a note of this.

STANDARD FASHIONS ARE THE FASHION. For style, exact fit, simplicity, completeness, etc., they lead.

Hazleton P. A. Sept. 29.—Notwithstanding the rumors of settlement there was no change in the great coal strike situation here to-day.

A MISSING YOUNG MAN.

The Sarnia Canadian says:—Edward Gilhooly, of Wallaceburg, was in town on Monday on his way to Port Huron to look for his son, Stephen, a young man who has been working in the lumber camps in Michigan, and who, while on his way home, mysteriously disappeared in Port Huron on Thursday night. Young Gilhooly informed his people that he would not be home for a year or two, but recently decided to come down with several friends, one of whom, Bob Harper, was also a resident of Wallaceburg. On arriving in Port Huron they parted company and Gilhooly told his friend he would take the first train in the morning for home. In the morning Harper heard Workman, one of the other two lumbermen, say to his friend, "He didn't want to drink but we got him drunk all right. I've got his money. I left him four dollars. It ought to take him home."
