THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., FEB. 25, 1896.

Local and Provincial.

On Sunday evening last Rev. Mr. Marple, evangelist, administered the ordinances of baptism to eleven candidates in the Baptist church.

A fairly large crowd was at the rink on Wednesday evening last, a number of whom came from Horton Landing. The Wolfville Band furnished the music.

Read Carver's advertisement for HALF-PRICE SALE on Saturday, Feb. 23rd.

Mr. C. E. Starr has purchased from Prof. Haley the residence on Acadia St. until lately occupied by the latter gentleman, and will, with his family, move in it as soon as possible.

The children's carnival in Aberdeen rink this evening promises to be a pleasant affair. There will no doubt be a full attendance of young people, which will naturally bring out many spectators. The Wolfville Band will discourse a good programme for the occasion.

Hides are worth 40c. per pound at Brookside Tannery, Greenwick.

The Rev. Jos. S. Coffin, of Aylesford, delivered a most able and interesting lecture last Monday evening in the Methodist church, on "Through Fire and Flood with General Havelock."

Prof. E. E. Faville gave a dinner at the Hotel American, on Saturday evening last, to about twenty of his "American" friends. The event was in honor of the 16th anniversary of Washington's birthday, and was most successful.

Speeches were made by Dr. Young, U. S. Consul; Prof. Haley, Prof. Faville and others, which were fairly sparkling with eloquence and wit. The Professor is right up to date.

The news has just reached us as we go to press, of the death of Mrs. Higgins, wife of Rev. T. A. Higgins, D. D., late pastor of the Wolfville Baptist church.

This lady, who was esteemed and loved by a wide circle of friends, passed away after a long and painful illness, at an early hour yesterday morning. To the sorrowing husband and other friends and relatives we tender our sympathy. A more extended notice will appear in our next issue.

Does your head ache? Read's powder are a sure cure.

Messrs Dorman Bros., who for some months past have been carrying on a shirt polishing business in Wolfville, have closed up, and departed in search of greener and less restricted pastures in which to play. These wags and knights have succeeded in ingratiating themselves into the affections of a number of our business men for various reasons.

This seems to be a favorite spot for folks, and we ought to consider ourselves extremely fortunate in being able to retain our health.

Kentville Division, S. of T., paid a fraternal visit to Wolfville Division on Monday evening. The roads were in good condition and the evening a pleasant one, and a goodly number of visitors were present. Temperance Hall was well filled, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. A good programme of music, readings, speeches, etc., was presented, and suitable refreshments were served. Such meetings tend to create a stronger bond of union between the sister societies, and are productive of much good in the old order that has gone and is being to make for the new.

The division drive to Billtown was postponed on account of bad roads. Better luck next time.

The division intend giving a dramatic entertainment in Oddfellows' hall in the near future.

We are to have a new dry goods store. Mr. N. H. Loomer, who has been in the employ of R. W. Kineman, is to open a business of this kind in the store formerly occupied by A. B. Bazin.

The donation to Rev. Mr. Fisher came off Tuesday evening. The sum of $91.13 was realized, and the large number in attendance showed the regard the people have for their pastor. His term expires in July, and we understand that he is to go to Hanport.

O. D. Harris of the Glasgow House, wants 2 tons of Dried Apples at 5c. See adv.

Waterville.

Is enjoying the change in the temperature of the atmosphere very much.

Leander Kineman, of this place, is dangerously ill with la grippe. We hope he may soon recover. Dr. Middlemas is the attending physician.

Mr. Absalom Brown, of Grafton, is very ill.

The revival meetings still continue with much interest.

The Christian Endeavorers of this village participated in a sleigh drive on Saturday, leaving Waterville at 8 p. m. for Church street. Notwithstanding the cold the young people enjoyed the drive immensely, only one mishap occurring which might have proved serious.

One of the sleighs overturned, emptying its live and youthful cargo into the snow. No injury was done and the accident is only added spice to the affair. But the praiseworthy note in the character of our young temperance heroes came out when they arrived at the place of destination. Although the zero weather had had some little effect on some, yet they resolutely partook of their well-filled baskets of the needful with no other drink than pure ice cold water.

That is for youth's resolve! That hot and hoarse must have felt highly gratified with their young cold water army.

Mr. J. Beasley, one popular village blacksmith, has been very ill with la grippe but is some better now. We hope to see his genial face around soon.

Read Carver's advertisement for HALF-PRICE SALE on Saturday, Feb. 23rd.

A correspondent from Kentville sends us the following item for publication: "Can some one inform me whose work it is to keep the Kentville Post Office steps clear of ice? It has been allowed to form at an angle of nearly forty-five degrees and endangers limbs, if not life. One lady has fallen twice and hurt herself badly. She has decided if it occurs again she will bring an action against the town for damages."

Mrs. James M. Payant, of this town, celebrated her ninety-third birthday yesterday, by giving a five o'clock tea to a number of friends. Mr. Payant is ninety-four and both are well and active as they were ten years ago. Such cases of longevity are rare.

The entertainment given in Temperance Hall, on Saturday evening last, under the auspices of Acadia Lodge, was fairly well attended, and the programme an excellent one. Rev. Mr. Trotter's address was of a most pleasing nature. He thanked them for the privilege of being present, and assured them of his cordial and hearty sympathy with the temperance movement, and urged upon the various temperance societies of the town the necessity of continuing the work so well begun. The Wolfville Orchestra rendered three of their delightful selections. The piano duet by the Misses Denovos showed good musical ability and fine execution. The vocal solos by the Misses Masters and Miss Readall, were enthusiastically received, which in view of the cultured and musical audience present, was evidence of their merit. Misses Forbes and Patrician recited very nicely, each receiving an encore. Miss Bealton played the accompaniments for the vocalists.
