A Real "Star" Artist of the Afro-American Race
TO PLAY IN COLLEGE HALL TUESDAY EVENING.

Miss Carrie Lucas, of transcendental fame as instrumentalist, who has just closed a most successful engagement at Halifax, is to perform here at College Hall on Tuesday evening next. This lady is reported to be the leading female instrumentalist of the race, and she enjoys the distinction of being the first and only one who has performed before the Queen and received a gift and testimonial from Her Majesty. Here is what a Halifax paper says of her performance in that city:

"The refined musical work of the star of the evening, Miss Carrie Lucas, was an astonisher. It was the verdict of all who heard her that she is a most gifted woman. Her cornet rendition of "Because," a catchy ballad of the sentimental sort, was exhilarating, and it received round after round of applause. She was equally effective in her mandolin solo, "The Lost Chord," but the most delicate and difficult number was her violin solo, "La Traviata."

She appears here under the management of the Rev. Dr. Robinson, pastor of the Cornwallis street Baptist church, Halifax, who comes to us highly recommended by leading citizens of that city. He will also introduce his wonderful "New Grand" graphophone. The proceeds are for the benefit of that church's debt.

Personal Mention.
[Contributions to this department will be gladly received.]

Mr C. E. Power, travelling for the Massey-Harris bicycle, paid Wolfville a visit during the week.

Mr J. M. Grant, of St. John, was in town on Monday representing the Scotch Union and Lancashire Fire Insurance companies.

Rev. W. R. Turner, of Weymouth, was in town on his way from Halifax on Wednesday, and was the guest of his father-in-law, Mr E. L. Collins.

Mr Clifford Tufts, L. L. B., a graduate of Acadia in the class of '96, has entered into partnership with Mr Barclay Webster, Q. C., of Kentville. The firm has opened up a branch office at Aylesford.

Mr J. D. Spencer, the popular and energetic manager of Messrs Miller Bros., 101-105 Barrington St., a most enthusiastic over the merits of the "Heintzman & Co." piano. He reports having returned from a short business trip east, where in one day he sold four "Heintzman & Co." pianos, besides transacting other business. Not much wonder that there should be a great demand for this make of instrument when you call to mind the fact that artists such as August Bylstedt, the great Danish pianist; Madame Albani, the world's greatest soprano; Pól Pisscon, the great French basso, together with many other renowned artists that might be mentioned, endorsed those instruments.

Chipman Brook.
A picnic was held on the 8th, at the residence of Mrs John Hedden. The proceeds were presented to Mr Freeman as an expression of the good will of his friends at Chipman Brook.
