Wales Beat the New Zealanders.

"ALL BLACKS" WATERLOO.

The English papers of recent date contain a vivid account of the great rugby game in which New Zealand went down before the representatives of gallant little Wales, who, by the way, received the only reverse of their remarkable tour.

There were several contributing causes to the downfall of the All Blacks but possibly the singing by Welshmen of the song annexed hereto had most to do with the defeat of the visitors. The strange looking poetry is called "The Cymro's song of peace" and sung by 50,000 voices as only Welshmen can sing was enough to demoralize any visiting team.

THE CYMRO'S SONG OF PEACE.

The Cymro's Song of Peace, sung by the Victors before the match.

Mac hys wlad ym mawr yn awyrl i mi, Gwlad gwlad a chanorion, awyrlion o ffri;
El gwyl rhyfelwyr, gwladgarwyr tra mawr;
Tros ryddid gollasant eu gwlad.

Gwlad, gwlad, pleidiol wyt i'm gwlad, Tra mor yfyr! bur hoff bau, O bydded r hen aith barhau.

It was a great game, full of incident from start to finish and the Britishers were jubilant from one end of the field and to the other at the fact that the prestige of British rugby football had been rescued from irretrievable disgrace. Fifty thousand spectators went to the match with delight when Morgan, the speedy left winger, raced over the line and scored, and when the final whistle blew leaving the Welshmen victorious such a scene of indescribable enthusiasm was witnessed as never before had occurred on a football arena.

PAYS TO WIN.

London, Jan. 2.—The New Zealand footballers, who return via Canada and the United States, are having their expenses paid by the New Zealand government. In appreciation of their good showing and great victories, which are still the talk of sporting circles and the press.

BURNS—MACLEAN.

The marriage of Mr. A. P. Burns, Builder and Contractor, to Miss MacLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacLean took place on Wednesday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church. The event evoked more interest than perhaps any similar event for some time on account of the popularity of the contracting parties among all classes in town. The Church was crowded some time before the ceremony commenced. Miss Mallins played the Wedding March as the bride, looking very nice, entered the church leaning on her father's arm and attended by Miss Nesbitt and Miss Bella MacLean, the bridesmaids. The bridegroom was assisted by Mr. Beech, of Moose Jaw as best man. Mr. Hague, of Moose Jaw, Mr. Harry Tweed, of the "ushers. On the arrival of the bride the Rev. J. W. Morrow at once commenced the ceremony and in a very short space of time the knot was tied.

The bride was gowned in white silk crepe de chene and white Louisiana silk with satin trimmings, and wore a veil caught up with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Nesbitt wore pale green crepe de chene, trimmed with white chiffon and Miss Bella MacLean, white point de esprit net over green tulle silk.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a host of friends offered congratulations and the wedding party sat down to a sumptuous repast at the residence of the bride's parents.

The happy couple left on the south train for New York and will spend a few weeks in the Southern States.
They had an enthusiastic send off by numerous friends at the depot.

The "Times" joins Mr. and Mrs.
Burns' many friends in wishing them long life and happiness.
