THREE FAVORITES WON AT WINDSOR.

Old Honesty Ran a Mile in 1.38.45 Beating Hanbridge by a Neck.

Maskette at 3 to 10 Easily Won the Alabama Stakes at Saratoga-Ballacalla Beat Steve Lane and Selectus in the Steeplechase.

In the mile purse race, which featured esterday's card, at Windsor, the best thrilling contest, victory finally going Old Honesty, by a short margin over Hanbridge, the favorite. The pace in race was speedy from the start, and rd of 1.38 4-5 was equaled. During the early stages Hanbridge and John A. alternated in the lead, with Old ty a close follower At the stretch and joining Hanbridge in the last sixenth, both horses were put to a hard drive. Old Honesty stood the test the etter and landed a head in front of Hanbridge. John A., though tiring, was best of the others to-day and landed Yesterday's card served to bring out one of the best crowds of the meeting and visitors were well entertained. The winners all came in for liberal support, and the layers again recorded losses.

The 13-16 mile race, in which some fair selling platers met, resulted in the closest finish of the afternoon, Flora Riley beating Reidmore, the favorite, in the last stride after a determined stretch drive. General Marchmont, a recent arrival

General Marchmont, a recent arrival from Texas, took the measure of a fair band of sprinters in the fourth race, but his victory was a fluky one, his rider, Howard, contributing in a measure by this rough riding, Billy Boedmer being the principal sufferer.

Galvesca outclassed her opponent in the first race and scored impressively over Infliction and Banives.

A change in riders from Flynn to J. Reid worked a change in the running of Minnie Bright, and she disposed of her opponents in handy style in the second race, for which Youthful was the favorite, but failed to get a portion of the purse.

The first disqualification of the meeting came with the running of the mile dash, in which maiden jockeys were the pilots. A. Burton, on Lucky Ford, landed his mount in front by a close margin over Mary Candelmas and Gwendolyn F., but was set back for fouling and the purse was given to Mary Candelmas. Gwendolyn F. was placed second and The Thorn third. Burton cut sharply across soon after the start and nearly threw half of the field down.

The closing dash, also for maiden jockeys, was taken by Ceremonious, the favorite, in a tight fit with Uncle Toby, Posing lauding in third place.

Jockey Morehouse, who had the mount on Occidental, one of the early leaders, fell after passing the three-quarter pole when his mount stumbled. He struck the fence and suffered a deep gash on the head, which left him unconscious for a period. He recovered when brought back to the jockey quarters, and was hurried to a nearby hospital for treatment.

SARATOGA RACES.

SARATOGA RACES.

Saratoga, Aug. 6.—Maskette, at the prohibitive odds of 3 to 10, easily won the Alabama Stakes, 11-8 miles, here yesterday. The Keene filly so outclassed ner field that she was practically held out in the betting, very few memory brokers laying prices against her. She took a lead of two lengths going around the first turn and increased this advantage to four lengths on the upper turn. Here Miss Kearney began to move up, but though she closed some ground never threatened the winner, who was hard held to win by two lengths.

The weather was threatening and the track deep in sloppy mud.

Moran and Driscoll to Fight on September

JEM DRISCOLL.

London, Aug. 6.—As surely as beans is beans, Sept. 13 is going to be unlucky for either Jem Driscoll or Owen Moran. Also it is sure to be the date of the greatest battle of the year, from a scientific standpoint, when these great little men clash for the featherweight championship of Great Britain.

Following as it does upon the heels of the Welsh-Josephs battle for tre lightweight championship, the fight has stirred English sportsmen as they have not been since the days when Charley Mitchell was in his prime.

partments of the Canadian Pacific Railway in Montreal met here last night and decided to form an amateur athletic association, which, it is hope, will ultimately become one of the big athletic affairs of the continent. Considerable discussion arose over the question of professionalism and amateurism, but this was dropped, to be settled later on by the governing body. Mr. George II. Ham presided over the meeting, and assured the representatives that the movement would meet with the hearty support of the executive of the company. It is expected that the movement will ultimately extend to every centre of the company's activity. partments of the Canadian Pacific Rail-

The contenders will be the Keystones and Alerts, and while the Alerts realize their opponents ability, they are confident that the result will be in their own favor. They will make one strong effort to win, and will have their usual line-up. Burns and Bill Brooks will be the opposing twirters, and as this will be their last chance this season they can be depended upon to pitch. The second game will be the one that counts, and should be one of the best contests of the year. The "champs" are going out to win this game, and as they realize their position now it's a sure bet that they will play for all that is in them. On the other hand, nothing would please the Bayaides better than a victory. Janieson will twirl for the Baysides, and Manager Potter intends to strengthen the weak spots on his team. In the absence of Bothan, Jackson, the well-known twirlet, will pitch for the Broadviews, and "Jack's" reputation will speak for itself. The big game will start promptly at 4 o'clock, with Jack Lavis, the well-known umpire, in charge of the indicator.

The Church League may also come to

The Church League may also come to a close to-morrow. Should the First Methodist defeat the St. Thomas, the Ascensions will win the league. If the Saints win a tie with the Ascensions will result, and both teams will have to play off next Saturday. Only three teams remain in this league, the other two having dropped out. The game will start at 3 o'clock, with Mr. Catchpole, the league umpire, in charge.

Should another tie result in the City League, arrangements will likely be made for the deciding game to be played at Britannia Park. This would be a big card for the Inter-City and be a big card for the Inter-City, and besides the teams should play under better conditions to decire such an im-portant game. It will also show the fans some of the promising material that will be ready for the Inter-City next year.

Nix Bathan, the pitcher who has twirled the champion Broadviews to victory so many times, is spending his vacation in Chicago. He intends seeing the Cubs play, and will no doubt have a lot of valuable "dope" for the fans when he returns.

For the championship game the Alerts may import a battery. They have under consideration a number of pitchers and catchers who play it the next by towns and villages. A Dundas man may twirl the deciding game.

The Woodlands and Emeralds will play this evening at Woodland Park at 7 o'clock.

The Benedicts put it all over the Bachelors by a score of 15—11.

McBride, for those in single harness, showed his Kelley propensities to good advantage, while Smith, for the same aggregation, by using his catching abilities to good advantage, saved the team from further ignominy.
