We learn from unquestionable authority that cigarette smoking among the young irritates the nervous system, impairs the ung power, causes heart enlargement, is bad for digestion and baneful to the brain. Two hundred physicians gave testimony to the evil effects of tobacco using by boys, through a report placed before the Michigan Legislature. They said; "Boys are being dwarfed, rendered incapable of speech, made insane, aud killed, through the use of tobacco." Need we wonder at this when we learn that there are five poisons used in the composition of the ordinary cigarette of commerce. The oil in the paper, the oil of nicotine, the oil in the flavoring, saltpetre, and opium. Dr. Dudley, profesowing to ill health I have decided to sell my interest in the Mill at Gagetown Wharf. The old Gentleman was not as Green

He Looked. In a pullman car on the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway the othes week a young traveller noticed an old, white-bearded gentleman trying to get into a light dust coat. The young man rushed to his assistance, and in helping him with the garment noticed a good sized whiskey-flask protruding from one of the pockets. Being of a waggish nature, he appropriated the bottle, helped the stranger on with his coat and then pulling out the flask said, "Will you take a drink?"

"It won't hurt you," insisted the wag, "its the best." "Young man," said the old gentleman, peaking loud enough for all in the carriage to hear, "if you persist in drinking whiskey you will be a ruined man at 40. It is the curse of the land! When I was a she did was to call me to her bedside and reference to the use of cigarettes, it is say: John, promise me that you will never touch a drop of liquor.'

"Oh, well, in that case," said the joker "I must drink it myself," whereupon, suiting the action to the words, he pulled the cork out and took a good drink." A moment later he dropped the bottle with an exclamation which certainly did not sound like a blessing, and yelled out, "Ugh! ugh! my mouth's all raw!" Then it was the old gentleman 'discovered his loss and to the amusement of the other passengers, said: "Ah, young man, you will be careful in the future he this vice, which assuredly paves the way fore you take other people's property.
