

PROGRESS OF THE WAR

Ostend, one of the famous submarine bases on the north sea, is in British hands. Bruges is practically captured, while to the south from the region east of Roulers, the Allied forces are fast driving toward Ghent in an endeavor to seal the western Flanders sack and retain in it large elements of the enemy's forces. Strong opposition is being offered on the Courtrai sector to prevent the Allies from carrying out their manoeuvres to the full. More than a score of additional villages have been liberated by the Allied troops, and numerous guns and quantities of stores have been captured.

"The king and queen of the Belgians expressed the wish to visit Ostend, either from the sea or the air." In view of the difficulty of landing, and the uncertainty of the situation, they proceeded in the destroyer Terzaght, flying the Belgian flag at the main, to the vicinity of Ostend. "The senior officer of the British motor launch patrol off Ostend, which had been reinforced by French motor launches, reported that all had been quiet for some hours. "Their majesties, therefore, landed and proceeded to the Hotel De Ville (town hall). They were received everywhere with indescribable enthusiasm. They returned to Dunkirk about ten o'clock at night. "The British naval forces suffered no damage and no casualties."

Zeebrugge, Germany's second great submarine base on the North Sea has gone the way of Ostend. The flag of Belgium once more flies over it. To the south Bruges has been evacuated and Tournai, Roubaix and other towns have been delivered. Out of the great sack between the North Sea and the Lys River the enemy is fleeing fast in an endeavor to prevent capture or internment in Holland. His hope is that he will be able to reach Antwerp and there reconstitute his line from the Dutch frontier through Antwerp and Namur to some point in the south, probably Sedan or Metz, and establish it for the moment at least to the Swiss frontier.

London, Oct. 20.—The Selle River has been crossed north of Le Cateau by the British, in spite of stiff opposition, Field Marshal Haig reported today. The British advance continues further north, and Denain, five miles southwest of Valenciennes, has been captured. The text of the Field Marshal's statement reads: "At an early hour this morning our troops attacked the enemy's positions on the line of the Selle River, north of Le Cateau and have crossed the River, despite considerable opposition. Further north the advance continued yesterday afternoon and last evening. Our troops completed the capture of Denain and have reached the general line of Havely—Wandignies—Hamag—Brillon—Beuvry. The enemy's resistance is increasing on this front." In their attack across the Selle River, in the region of Le Cateau today, the British advanced one mile on a front of ten miles. The town of Solesmes, five and a half miles north of Le Cateau, was recaptured.

"Victory crowns the Allied arms on every battlefield. Northern Belgium is being rapidly cleared of the enemy by British and Belgian forces. Belgians have occupied Zeebrugge and Hazele have crossed the Ghent-Bruges Canal and on their left have reached the Dutch front, where 15,000 Germans cut off from their retreat by the advance northward from Eecloo, are reported to have withdrawn into Holland, where they were interned. Ghent, it is predicted from British headquarters, will fall at an early date and the French, by a swift stroke, along an extended line have put their forces within two miles of Tournai. This is in the hands of the French despite stubborn enemy resistance as well as the high ground round about.

British troops have crossed the Selle River, have re-conquered

Solesmes and have had hard fighting not only in the section around that town, but at St. Pythan to the east. Here the British have captured more than 2,000 prisoners. Since the beginning of the operations in Flanders, the Allies have made advance of more than 10 miles over a thirty-six mile front, clearing all the coast of the enemy. Fighting desperately to hold their position to the north and south of Le Cateau the Germans on a front of forty miles have massed nearly half a million men. Their line is vital to the success of the Allied arms, which are steadily pushing the enemy back and breaking through at strategic points.

The British third army is smashing its way forward to the south of Valenciennes. Success so far has attended this effort and the turning of this line will prove a source of great danger to vast masses of German troops holding the territory to the north and south. The American forces operating in conjunction with the British north of Wassy have advanced to the Sambre Oise Canal. They occupied Rejet, east of St. Souplet, at the point of the bayonet. Wave after wave of machine gunners faced the Americans, who inflicted enormous losses on them. West of the Meuse American activity was confined to the consolidation of positions captured from the Germans.

On the front in Russia, severe defeat with the loss of 1,000 men killed, has been inflicted on the Bolsheviks in the Yekaterinburg district by Czech-Slovak and Siberian forces. Three armored trains with eleven locomotives and sixty machine guns were captured by the Allied forces. Germany's reply to President Wilson has been handed to the Swiss minister at Berlin for transmission to the United States, according to official advice reaching Amsterdam from German sources. In the reply Germany expresses a willingness to evacuate Belgian soil, but believes such a withdrawal would necessarily take several months. It is added that the German government is prepared provisionally to abandon its U-boat campaign. A Madrid despatch says that Germany has officially notified the Spanish government that the German admiral has recalled all submarines to their bases.

Paris, Oct. 21.—The situation is without change on the Oise front, according to the war office announcement tonight. Between the Oise and the Sere the French have occupied Mestrecourt-Bischoffcourt.

London, Oct. 21.—From the Dutch border at Bede to the Argonne, the Germans are now behind a series of water defences, broken only by a few short stretches. This 200-mile water line is formed by the derivation canal, and the Scheldt, Harpies, Oise, Sere and Aisne rivers. The Belgians are five and a half miles from Ghent, and the British less than two from Tournai and two from Valenciennes.

The fall of Valenciennes to Field Marshal Haig's forces is imminent. Despite the desperate resistance of the Germans, the British have entered the city on the west, while to the north they have made a deep thrust into the great Bois des Forest, and are moving in the direction of Conde, near the angle of the Scheldt.

A NERVOUS WRECK FROM HEART AND NERVES.

There are many people at the present time whose nerves are unstrung, heart affected, and general health impaired. To such we offer Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as the best remedy that science has produced for such troubles. These pills have a wonderful effect on the nerve cells of the body, giving them new life and energy; they strengthen and regulate the heart and make the blood rich and nourishing.

Mr. Joseph Daly, Wolfe Island, Ont., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I was a regular nervous wreck from my heart and nerves. I saw your advertisement in the paper and decided to try your pills. I took five boxes of them, and now I am as steady as a clock."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are sold at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Before leaving Ostend the Germans scuttled a large mail boat alongside the old British warship Vindictive which was sunk in the channel there last May. They made thus doubly sure that the canal will be blocked for a long time.

The Manchester Guardian's London correspondent learns indirectly, but in a most unquestionable way, that only a few days ago Marshal Foch told Field Marshal Haig personally that it was the British break through the Hindenburg line that brought about the German peace offer.

President Wilson has rejected the Austro-Hungarian Government's offer to conclude an armistice and negotiate peace on principles announced by him and has given notice that mere autonomy for Austria subject to nationalities is no longer acceptable, that they must have liberty.

A cablegram received by the Belgian legation Washington Oct. 21, states: The Belgian Government already has taken steps to compute the enormous total of the damage done to property in Belgium by the Germans during their occupation of the country.

Arrangements have been made by the Belgian relief committee with the British quarter-master general for $20,000,000 emergency ration to be furnished immediately to the civilian population in Belgium. Herbert Hoover, chairman of the commission, announced in Washington on the 18th that the ration would come from the stores of the British army in Belgium, and would be paid for by the relief commission.

According to advice received from Washington the tidal wave which followed the earthquake in Port Rico, added to the death toll, and devastations, as the American Red Cross was advised in cablegrams from San Juan. The city of Mayaguez, the third largest city on the island, practically was destroyed by the rush of water while the town of Aguadilla was badly damaged. Other towns on the western part of the island were damaged by the earth shocks, and the death list is placed at more than one hundred with probably three hundred injured. Hundreds of families are homeless, and the property loss is estimated from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000.

Prodigal Waste By Big Earners

War Prosperity Has Led to Injudicious Spending. No Thought of Lean Years Ahead.

Side by side with a good deal of thrift, there is a good deal of thriftlessness among us just now. In the writer's immediate neighborhood in the East end of Toronto, and no doubt it is the same in other places, thrift is quite as much in evidence as is thrift. It is surprising that this should be the case in this neighborhood, for it is one in which, only the year before the first year of the war, the people, very many of them, experienced the pinch of dire poverty. Work was scarce. Many who had bought their houses could not keep the interest payments, or pay the taxes due on them. Many who lived in rented houses could not pay their rent. Yet, although this was only between four and five years ago, many of the people who suffered most have already forgotten that then they went hungry, and, in most cases, almost starving. They don't realize that what then was may be again. They don't believe it. They think that the present boom—for wages are quite abnormally high—will last for ever.

BOUGHT TWO CARS.

Here is a concrete case. A certain man who, four or five years ago, lacked food and all the necessities of life, is today making big money at munitions. He is not putting by a cent. In the three years and more during which he has been working on munitions, he has bought himself two cars. His first car didn't last long. He gave the poor thing no rest. When it was "all in" he bought another. Yet this man will edge for clothes for his children, and send his children to the school dentist.

Now when the call is for economy, many women whose husbands are making big money, are outrageously extravagant in clothes. One of them in the same quality is so in love with fine clothes that she was soon wearing a silk dress when scrubbing the floor. Until her husband got his present $50 a week job, they had never had more than $20 a week to get along on. They have nothing saved (as she admits) and if the man was out of a job tomorrow all they would have to show as resultant from their present prosperity would be a quantity of partly-worn fine clothes.

EATING THEIR EARNINGS.

Many families are literally eating up their big earnings. One that I know will give $9.50 for a leg of lamb for Sunday dinner. The father takes to work for his much sliced ham bought cooked at a store, for which a big price is paid. The butcher who serves them says he could not begin to afford the expensive food they consume in large quantities.

War-time prosperity is just giving them a good time—for a time. What of the "lean years" that may be ahead?

Buy Continued Prosperity

Before our last Victory Loan financial experts were dubious as to the outlook for Canada. She could not borrow abroad. It was necessary that she have a large available capital to finance credit for British and foreign war orders. Canada was thrown on her own resources and appealed to her citizens.

The remarkable over-subscription of the 1917 Victory Loan completely changed the uncertain outlook which prevailed. It gave a new impetus to agriculture, commerce and prosperity. It invigorated our efforts in the war. It allowed our provincial Governments, municipal and other borrowers to finance their requirements at home. In short, it gave another lease of life to the activities of the Dominion.

The Victory Loan of 1918 will accomplish the same purpose. Upon the ready response of the large and small investor, depends the immediate economic future of Canada. Everyone's prosperity is involved. Prepare to buy continued Prosperity in Victory Bonds.

HER LITTLE GIRL COUGHED UNTIL SHE FAIRLY CHOKED.

Mrs. John Reinhardt, Ridgeway, Ont., writes:—"My little girl at the age of 7 years and a half had had a awful cough. She would cough until she would fairly choke, and I was afraid it would go to her lungs. I thought I would use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, as I knew of quite a few persons who had used it with good results. I am glad I did so, as I only used one bottle. It is a sure cure for coughs and colds."

There is no reason why Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup should not be recognized as the very best cough and cold remedy on the market to-day, combining as it does the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree, to which are added wild cherry bark, glyster, and other soothing and healing medicinal remedies.

It has stood the test for the past 30 years and is becoming more generally used every year on account of its great merit in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma, sore throat, and preventing pneumonia and in many cases consumption.

So great has been its success that there have been a great many imitations put on the market to take its place. See that none of these so-called "pine syrups" are handed out to you when you ask for "Dr. Wood's." The genuine and original is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees in blue and white; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
