BRITISH POLITICS.

to Evening Telegram.
LONDON. This morning, evening sitting was devoted to getting the Legislative Bill way. Premier Asquith gave notice of the Veto Bill and of the Government's intention of the whole time of the House later in order to get the Veto passed before the Coronation.
The references to the Reciprocity debate in the Constitution contained nothing of special interest. Lord Lansdowne intimated that the Government about the changes in the Constitution upper Chamber and the relation of the two Houses. The Prime was of opinion it would be the present to withhold of the Reciprocity Agreement as certain as the rise and to level the Tariff wall ada. It was certain the Government could do nothing by prevent the natural trend of Mr. Balfour, speaking in at a meeting last night, an-that he had had a conference with Chamberlain with a view to settling the differences which arose over the referendum. He himself in favour of an agreement which would involve taxation on imported food is considered that they are in many cases sold at such close profits,

that the fact of reducing them even a little, brings them down to cost.
