

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

Cannot be cured with ordinary soothing syrups. The disease must be attacked at the root to eradicate the irritation of the lungs, heal the wounds and strengthen the respiratory organs. The composition of of Tar and Cod Liver Oil and other Medicinal Extracts marks it amongst all other remedies as the only specific for the diseases of the throat, the bronchial tubes and the lungs. Here are a few conclusive proofs:

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

That, I think, must be news. So many people seem not to know it. There is an otherwise well-bred young girl among my acquaintances who is forever talking about how homely her nose is. Now the nose is not a Grecian, neither is it anything so startling that people would think about it if they were not so frequently reminded of it.

Indeed, the nose itself is not half so bad as her habit of talking about it. It is perpetually "What would you do if you had a nose like mine?" or "I really think I would be almost good looking if it were not for my nose." Her friends are kept continually protesting and comforting until they learn to steer carefully clear of the subject of noses in particular and personal appearances in general.

Aside from the fact that this habit of running one's self down is bad policy, because it concentrates other people's attention to deficiencies they might otherwise not have thought much about, it is also bad taste because it holds people up for contempt and reassurances at the pistol point of common decency. And people as a rule somehow seem to resent such hold-ups. The girl who is always referring openly to some deficiency in herself probably thinks she deserves praise for frankness, but as a matter of fact, she deserves blame for indulging in frankness at the expense of making other people feel awkward and uncomfortable.

She wants people to know that she is not conceited and that she fully realizes that she is decidedly plain or overgrown and awkward, or that her nose is too large or her skin is sallow, but since this opportunity to prove her own self-knowledge and lack of conceit involves the discomfort of others, she would do well to forego it.

To keep one's deficiencies is desirable. To keep quiet about one's knowledge is equally so.

Improve your deficiencies when you can.

Ignore them—that is, don't think about them and don't force other people to, when you can't.

Admit your deficiencies if you are ever taxed with them, but never unnecessarily drag them into the limelight.

There seems to me some pretty healthy rules to follow in this matter.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every mouth it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y. If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 31 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing copy, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 30 stamps.

Household Notes.

A tasty salad is made of cold-boiled oyster plant, cut in pieces, pieces of cold-boiled beets and sprays of cauliflower, dressed with oil and vinegar or with mayonnaise.

It is an excellent plan to cut the stems of flowers with a sharp knife rather than a scissors. Scissors compress the stems and close the tiny pores to the life-giving water.

If a simple brown frame for a photograph seems too dark, it may be greatly lightened by introducing a tiny moulding of gold just inside the inner edge of the frame.

New shoes should be allowed to stand over night in a pan in which just enough olive oil to cover the soles has been poured. They will last much longer and will never squeak.

Embroidered table linens should never be folded when put away, but rolled in a long roll with tissue paper rolled up with it. This will save a great amount of pressing.

When making lemonade one of the lemons may be peeled and run through a meat chopper with a small piece of the peel. This will give the lemonade a delightfully piquant flavor.

Clear soup should be strained without forcing through a folded towel, laid on a colander; otherwise particles of egg used in clearing will be forced through and spoil the soup.

Keep a bottle of coal oil on the shelf in the bath-room, and make it a rule that each member of the family, when the bath is finished shall wipe out the tub with an oiled rag.

To take axle grease out of goods, rub the spot with lard. Rub the goods in the hand as if washing. Let stay in three hours, and then wash out in cold water, using plenty of soap.

In making a shoe bag or laundry bag that is to hang flat against the door, use brass rings instead of loops for slipping over the nails. They will not pull out as the loops may.

When preparing fish for broiling, split it open down the back. After washing and drying on a cloth, rub the fish well with oil and flour. This prevents it slipping from the broiler.

For toast to be served with poached eggs, cut out the centre of slices of bread with a round biscuit cutter; toast these rounds either in the oven or over the coals before buttering them.

Rice should be thoroughly washed before cooking, as this cereal nowadays is often coated with a preparation to improve its appearance. It will cook better if it is soaked for 30 minutes.

Minard's Liniment Co. Limited, Gentlemen.—Theodore Danais, a customer of mine, was completely cured of rheumatism after five years of suffering by the judicious use of MINARD'S LINIMENT.

The above facts can be verified by writing to him, to the Parish Priest or any of his neighbors.

Wants the Cash.

San Francisco, Feb. 25.—Jack Johnson has turned down Hugh McIntosh's offer of a $30,000, split 60 and 40 to meet Sam Langford. Johnson says he is willing to fight if guaranteed $30,000 for his end of the purse, but not otherwise.

He also objects to Eugene Corro, the London referee whom McIntosh suggested as the third man in the ring for a battle to take place in London or Paris in May or June.

Rev. Canon Dunfield Laid to Rest.

At 3 p.m. yesterday the funeral of the late lamented Rev. Canon Dunfield took place from the Rectory (St. Thomas's) to the cemetery on Forest Road. For an hour previous crowds of citizens had been wending their way towards the Parish Church, and by 3 o'clock the place was filled with visitors. The body of the Rector lay in the chancel, covered with choice flowers and wreaths from hundreds of friends all over the city. Amongst those who were present were His Excellency the Governor, Lady Williams, Capt. Goodridge, A.D.C., Mr. Fitzherbert, Private Secretary to His Excellency; Sir E. P. Morris, Premier; Hon. W. R. Warren, Speaker of the House of Assembly, and the members of both branches of the Legislature: Chief Justice Horwood, Judge Johnson, Judge Emerson and representative clergymen from all the religious denominations. Rev. Henry Uphill, Rector of St. Mary's, read the opening sentences and Psalm of the burial service. Hymn 283 was then sung.

"God of the living, in whose eyes Unveiled Thy whole creation lies; All souls are thine; we must not say That those are dead who pass away; From this our world of flesh set free, We know them living unto Thee."

The Lesson 1 Cor. 15: 20 was read by Rev. G. H. Bolt, M.A. Hymn 451 was then sung: "Jesus, my Shepherd, here I know, He knoweth all my needs; And when the living waters flow His flock He gently leads."

The organ then pealed forth the Dead March in Saul, the whole congregation standing the while. The procession then passed out of the sanctuary to the cemetery in the following order: Choir of St. Thomas, Theological students, Clergy in robes, The Hearse, Relatives of deceased, Church Wardens of St. Thomas's, His Excellency the Governor, A.D.C. and Private Secretary, Officers of the C.L.B. Church Lads' Brigade.

After these came the general public of all classes and orders. The procession advanced from the church down Military Road and Forest Road to the cemetery. Both sides of the street were thronged with a vast crowd of sympathetic people—men, women and children. Rev. Canon White read the committal prayers at the graveside. Then followed the hymn which had been a favorite with the deceased, "Jesus lover of my soul." Rev. F. Colley, of Carbonear, pronounced the Benediction.

Sealers Notice.

All men who intend leaving for the sealfishery should take with them one or more bottles of "Stafford's Liniment," the Queen of Liniments (at 14 cents a bottle).

You will be surprised with its marvellous results. When rubbed to the wrists and arms, ankles and legs, it will not only enable you to travel on the ice faster, yes, faster even than the seals themselves, but it will relieve the tired muscular tissues of the limbs, the result of excessive walking and hauling. Once you have applied it to your wrists and ankles you will never again think of proceeding to the fishery without a good supply. It is worth its weight in gold. It should always be in every household as it is also one of the best preparations for the following diseases:—Zarchie, Headache, Toothache, Faciaeche, Neuralgia, Wounds and all Skin Diseases, as Itch, Acne, Ringworm, Barber's Itch, Eczema, Hay Fever, Burns, Scalds, Excessive Sweating on body or feet, Diphtheria, Croup, Catarrh Sore Throat, Laryngitis, Hoarseness, Quinsy, Mumps, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Pneumonia, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Colic, Cramps, Wind, Diarrhoea, Florida, Piles, Rheumatism, Lombago, Sciatica, Strains, Bruises, Sprains, Corns, Warts, Tender Feet, Chills, Bolls, Bites of Animals, Stings of Insects, Chapped Skin, Worms, Poisoned Wounds, Carbuncle, Swollen Muscles. This Liniment can be used internally as well as externally. Prepared only by DE. E. STAFFORD & Son, St. John's, Nfld.

Rev. Fr. Curran on Conrad the Novelist.

An excellent article from the pen of Rev. E. F. Curran of Pouch Cove, appears in the last issue of the Catholic World Magazine on "Conrad the Novelist," who has written sea stories chiefly. Father Curran gives a keen analysis of his style, and if one were to be convinced by his opinions, Clark Russell, Capt. Mounzatt and even R. L. Stevenson will be forgotten when Conrad's "Nigger of the Narcissus" and "Lord Jim" will be green in memory. Father Curran himself is achieving fame abroad as a magazine writer and his articles are largely sought by the leading Catholic publications.

MADRID, March 7. An attempt to assassinate King Alfonso was narrowly frustrated yesterday at Alcazar de San Juan. Anarchist plotters had made plans to kill Alfonso when he arrived at a point on the Royal train when coming from Spain. Only a few hours before the train was due at Alcazar de San Juan the authorities learned of the conspiracy and arrested the would-be assassin just as he was leaving his home to go to the railway station. He had been chosen by lot to attempt the life of the King. The train arrived fifteen minutes after the anarchist had been arrested. The prisoner was brought to Madrid, and the authorities expect to ascertain the names of the leaders in a widespread revolutionary conspiracy. The prisoner attempted suicide after his arrest.
