An Outrage.

Our attention this morning was called to an outrage committed by the Department of Marine and Fisheries after Sir Edward Morris came into power.

It was the dismissal of Mr. Hudson, the old lighthouse keeper at Cape St. Francis. The old man had been lighthouse keeper for 24 years, ever since the light was placed there in Mr. Neville's time.

He tells us that he was accused of taking an active part in politics for the Liberal Party. But this he absolutely denies. He declares he did not take an active part in politics in the last campaign.

He is a Liberal who has been voting Liberal for half a century, and if anybody asked him about voting, he told them to vote according to the dictates of their conscience.

But at the time Sir Robert Bond was kicked over the wharf at Western Bay, he says that in a conversation he expressed the opinion that Sir Robert's assault was no man, and that no man would ever have committed such an outrage.

He declares that this was the only foundation for the accusation on which he was dismissed. He appealed to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries and told him the facts.

He got no redress and has since that time been out of the lighthouse and received no recognition but this harsh dismissal for his long service to the country.

He says that when the property of the family was given up for the wharf and approach to the lighthouse he was promised the job for life. Now, however, he is dismissed without even a pension.

BROKE HIS HIP.—While ascending the stairs in his home yesterday, Mr. E. Fitzgerald, butcher, fell and broke his hip. He was taken to Hospital for treatment.

War News

Special Evening Telegram.

LONDON, To-day.

The formal suspension of the Eastern war proved only for a day. Turkey rejected the Balkan terms for an armistice apparently before the plenipotentiaries had time to come together at Hadimkum. Kinal Pascha, Grand Vizier, declared the allies' overtures were impossible. He ordered the Commander-in-Chief to continue fighting "with help of the Almighty" until Turkey obtained reasonable and moderate conditions. This decision came as an utter surprise. Diplomats are not wholly convinced Ottoman troops will really take up arms again in the cholera stricken trenches at Tchaltajia. While Bulgarian conditions, for Bulgaria is acting as the mouthpiece for the allies, were extreme, stipulating the surrender of Adrianople and Scutaria, both of which strongholds are making an heroic defense, as well as the cession of all territory except the narrow strip above Constantinople, they were advanced as overtures. In other words they were apparently put forward as the basis for negotiations, the Porte treated them as an ultimatum. This perhaps is the Oriental method of beginning negotiations, designed to induce the enemy to show his hand. It is pointed out that these terms were submitted merely as an answer to Turkey's demands for an armistice. It is practically certain their rejection will result in more active and determined resumption of hostilities. Probably the allied troops will now refuse to treat with Turkey until they are in a position to dictate perhaps sterner terms in the Capital. The Sultan's negotiations thus far are being conducted through the Russian Ambassador at Constantinople, but the Turkish Ambassador at Berlin, Osman Nizami Pascha, was on his way to join his colleagues, appointed to meet Bulgarian representatives, when the Turkish Government's startling decision was telegraphed abroad. Even yet it would seem that Turkish officials have not abandoned hope that the Powers will come to their rescue and attempt to dictate a compromise, but Sir Edward Grey announced last night the Powers have not gone so far as to arrange a general conference after conclusion of war, their only agreement is keep their hands off. Continued successful defense of Tchaltajia lines would undoubtedly strengthen Turkey's diplomatic position, but defeat after more prolonged fighting of her own choosing would inflame the Bulgarians with a desire to make a triumphal progress into Constantinople. Popular clamor in Sofia is demanding more strongly each day that the advance shall not stop only at the Bosphorus. European military officials consider the allies' terms harsh in one respect, that is, they should concede to the garrisons of Adrianople and Scutaria the right of marching out with the honours of war, which they have when in possession of compelling unconditional capitulation.

Beware of Blood Poison.

Zam-Buk Is A Sure Cure.

Mr. Jas. Daley, of 786 Ellise Avenue, Winnipeg, says:—"A few months since I was cured of a poisoned finger through the timely use of Zam-Buk."

"I cut a deep gash across the knuckle on the first finger of my right hand in opening a lobster can. I suffered at the time with the soreness and pain, but had no idea it would become a serious wound. However, in about two days I was greatly alarmed; as my whole hand and arm to the elbow became suddenly inflamed, and the finger was much discolored, showing signs of blood-poisoning. The pain was dreadful and I was forced to leave off my work and go home."

"The wound on the knuckle had been poisoned by dust and dirt getting into it. I then decided to start the Zam-Buk treatment, and having first bathed the cut, I applied the healing balm. It soothed the pain almost instantly, and by next day there was a great improvement."

"In a week's time, through perseverance with this wonderful preparation, a complete cure was brought about."

Zam-Buk is just as good for eczema, ulcers, scalp sores, abscesses, piles, ringworm, boils, varicose ulcers, running sores, cold sores, chapped hands, etc. It draws all poisonous matter from a wound or sore and then heals. Use it, too, for cuts, burns, bruises and all skin injuries. Zam-Buk Soap should be used in conjunction to the balm for washing wounds and sore places. Excellent, too, for baby's bath.

All druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk Soap at 25c. tablet. Post free upon receipt of price from Zam-Buk Co., St. John's, Nfld.

tion. Two more chapters of the war are reported. The naval engagement of Varna between the Turkish cruiser, Hamidiah Bulgarian and a torpedo boat, and the occupation of Florina by the Greeks. The Bulgarians report they did great damage to and probably sank the cruiser. The Turks report that they sank two torpedo boats and the cruiser was only slightly damaged. By the occupation of Florina, which lies south of Monastir, the Greeks, according to Athens, have cut off the rear guard of the Turkish army to the number of 30,000 retreating from Monastir.

Not in Politics.

Mr. Morine, K. C., has taken office in the Board of Trade Building and will be ready to receive clients there on and after Monday next. There is naturally considerable discussion as to the part which so old and ardent a politician may take in the politics of the Colony. He asks us to say that it is not his intention to take any part therein at present, but that he proposes to devote his attention to the practice of his profession.
