Give Your Wife a Bond As a Christmas Gift

Yes, it is a little early to talk of such matters, but we want to call your attention to it before you make other arrangements. Have you ever thought of giving such a handsome and enduring gift? Just think what it would mean to her-every six months a little coupon to cut off and money coming in-a practical and welcome reminder of your thoughtfulness. And this will continue year after year until the bond is due, then she will have the face value of the bond to re-invest. She will also have joined the "BONDHOLDER" ranks-a distinction that any thoughtful and careful woman would be glad to attain.

We offer a number of safe bonds in as low a denomination as $100. Think it over. Better send for our list

Obituary.

JOSEPH SHEA.

Many in the city, who knew an esteemed Mr. Joseph Shea, in years gone by, will learn with extreme sor row of his death, which occurred a Vancouver, on Sunday, the 1st inst. after an illness of some months dura tion. The deceased was the eldes son of our respected fellow-towns man, Dr. Henry Shea, formerly Resi dent Physician of the General Hospital, and after receiving an excellent education abroad returned home and took up the law as a profession passing with honors after the usua time devoted to its study. After practicing several years in St. John's Mr. Shea determined to go abroad and proceeding to Canada, joined the North West Mounted Police. Late: other avenues of employment were followed by him, when contracting severe cold, pulmonary trouble en sued and he entered Queen's Hospital Vancouver, where the end came. Mr Shea was a young man of splendid physique and an athlete almost without compeer in the city. He was par ticularly distinguished as a crickete and socially was immensely popular being of an enjoying and affable dis position. He was one of the old time oupils of the Christian Brother Schools, of this city, and will be lov ingly remembered by those of h college classmates, who were former y pupils of the late Rev. Brothe Slattery. He served his articles a law student under the present Chie Justice, was enrolled as Solicitor and mourn him are his aged and esteemed father, Dr. Henry Shea, his brother Surgeon-Major Henry Shea, of Amballah, India, and his sister Mrs. orman Outerbridge, residing in St John's, besides several other relatives

"Dead" Husband Appears in Court.

t sun was brought to a sensational halt vesterday when the "dead" husband of Mrs. Helen Cauley, plaintiff against David A. Sherard, a wealthy truckman, was brought into court very much alive. The woman had just testified that her husband had died in December 1903, in a railroad accident near Pittsburg, and as a result a charge of perjury was lodged against her. The husband Andrew J. Cauley, who seemed to be puzzled as to why he had been brought to the court room was placed on the witness stand and testified that he had married the paintifi ten years ago, and that he had breakfasted with her at their apart ments vesterday morning.

"When did you hear of asked Mrs. Cauley's lawyer.

"I haven't heard of any case. I got did not know what they were for. She left the house this morning and said she had an engagement.'

Mrs. Cauley, who is a trained nurse alleged in her suit that Sherard had won her heart, while she nursed him in a hospital here and had promised t

Pastor Wounds Two in Shotgun Fight.

Greensburg, Ls., Dec. 11.-Three men, each armed with a shotgun stood up and fired at each other until one was mortally wounded, the second so hadly disabled that he could not fire and the third, a clergyman, slightly hurt Thursday evening, in a remote section who are deeply sympathized with in of the parish, according to reports brought here to-day.

The Rev. Fleet Harrell, the clergyman, sheltered Mrs. Charles Lindsey in his home after she separated from her husband. This enraged Lindsey and on Thursday he met the clergyman in front of the pastorate, told him he was armed and suggested that Hr. Harrel get his gun. The clergyman stepped into his house, got his gun and on returning Lindsey opened fire. The clergyman returned it, and Lindsey Nat Lindsey, son of Charles, then rushed up, and after the elder man had got to his feet, both fired at Mr. Harrel. In exchange of shots the son was mortally wounded, the father was shot again, but will live. The clergy nan was only slightly hurt.

Mr, Harrell assisted the wounded men into a wagon to be taken to a physcician.

The kind-hearted wife of a recently elected Scottish town councillor was informed of a desperately poor family. She immediately paid a visit to the household.

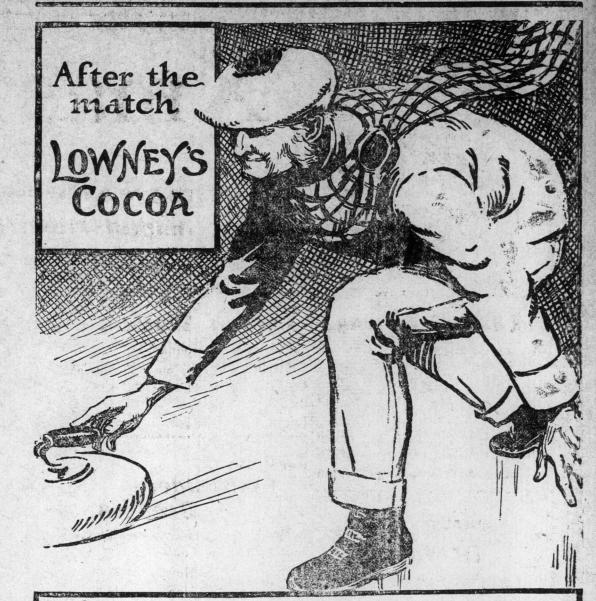

A man with a month's growth of peard opened the door for her. The oom, of course, wasn't very cheerful, but in one corner there was a lamp, still burning, although it was within an hour of midday.

"Well," she said to the man, "why lo you keep your lamp burning al!

"Oh, ma'am," he answered, "w havena' ony matches, an' if we put it oot, we cud never licht it again, ve see, ma'am."

When you are considering the Boys' Christmas Box, and have decided on presenting him with one of Jackman's warm, comfortable double-breasted Prussian Collar Overcoats, please remember that the boy's age and a general idea of his size is sufficient. We will guarantee a fit and alter the garment if necessary free of charge. ment if necessary free of characters. LTD.
