Mysterious Ship May Seek Treasure.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—The old lure of pieces of eight and bright doubloons is again calling to those for whom lost and pirate treasure still sound an irresistible call.

In the departure of the former scow schooner Robert Henry, on a mysterious expedition to the lower coast another effort is on foot to wrest from the abandoned hulks of the sea and the supposed treasure filled beaches of distant shores booty and loot untold.

Seeking salvage in all parts of the world is the work of the American Deep Sea Exploration Company of this city, which yesterday cleared on the Robert Henry for Magdalena Bay via San Diego.

Just what is the object of the quest the outfitters were not prepared to say, but it is understood that time-old wrecks that litter the shores of Magdalena Bay, which was the retreat of many dark craft of former decades, are the attraction. But it remains to be seen whether the salvage will be golden ingots or rusty anchors and chains.

The Tramp Reporter.

The Crescent Picture Palace presents a big mid-week feature programme to-day: "The Tramp Reporter," a two reel feature produced by the Powers Biograph Company, in which Edwin August plays the title role. After getting the details of a murder which is a big scoop for his paper, the young man generously hands it over to the old reporter who is under notice to quit which ensures for the old man his position for life and he himself is forced to tramp.

The Nestor tells a fascinating story of two men and a girl in "The Greater Love," this is a very strong western drama full of intense situations and dramatic interest.

"Almost a Winner" and "Pearl as a Clairvoyant" are two very fine comedy reels, especially the latter which features Pearl White.

Mr. Frederick Knight sings "The Bay of Biscay," the song was made famous by John McCormack, and being an English sea song is sure to find favour with the patrons of the Crescent.

One Dose and You Will Feel Better.

We are able to produce letters from all parts of Newfoundland which highly recommend the wonderful results derived from using this preparation called Prescription "A."

It is for sale in nearly every outport from the leading business places.

Why are you too tired to do anything? A feeling of distress after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headaches. You feel more tired when rising in the morning than you were retiring at night.

Your sleep is disturbed and you feel as if you are going to suffocate and afraid to go to sleep again.

You have to be careful of what you eat for your breakfast.

Why go on suffering like this when you can be cured by obtaining a bottle of Stafford's Prescription "A" for—small size, 25c.; postage, 5c. extra. Large size, 50c.; postage, 10c. extra. Stafford's Liniment and Phoratorne Cough Mixture are still in great demand.

Our Drug Store (Theatre Hill) is open every night until 11 o'clock. oct10,tf

Bandit's Wife Shot in a Cave.

RAND DESPERADOES TREACHERY

Johanenburg, Sept. 13.—Yet one more act of treachery and tragedy closed the career of the Mosler motor bandit gang, whose crimes and pursuit resulted in the death of ten people, including the accidental killing of General Delaney. Almost within sight of 100,000 people all three men were killed, and apparently Mrs. Foster, the wife of the leader of the gang, was murdered when she entered their cave refuge to act as mediator.

Yesterday Foster agreed to surrender if his wife were allowed to enter and take away their revolvers. The police brought the woman and her babe to the cave and then moved away, only a few picked men remaining to prevent a surprise. Mrs. Foster went into the cave with her baby, but later brought out the child and handed it to her mother. She then returned.

Shots were heard, and the police entering the cave found all the party dead. Mrs. Foster, her head terribly wounded, lay underneath. Upon her was her husband, and on top of him was Maxine, who had apparently shot the others and then committed suicide. Mosler, the third member of the gang, lay cold near the entrance, apparently having been shot dead by his friends as he was attempting to surrender.

Big Decrease in Attendance at the Universities.

German Professors and Lecturers at Edinburgh Asked to Resign.

London, Oct. 7.—The English and Scotch universities opened their fall terms to-day with greatly reduced attendances. Cambridge University had only 1,500 students as against 3,500 last year, many of those at the institution last year having joined the army. The other seats of learning have lost students in about the same proportion.

Much comment has arisen over the action of the Faculty of Edinburgh University in asking all its German Professors and Lecturers to resign.

The German Rhodes scholars and other German and Austrian students, who have been attending English universities in large numbers, all are absent this year, a majority of them being with their armies.

Michael Ernest Sadler, Vice-Chancellor of Leeds University, at the convocation at Leeds, announced that three of the university's students already had been killed in action. He added that the University had sent more than 150 students and professors into the army as commissioned officers.

The Pilgrimage.

Life is a weary road to travel, and hard upon the feet, if we are bound to snarl and cavil at every one we meet. We ought to bow to strangers passing, and not knock off their titles, for they will answer us with sassing, or give us smiles for smiles. If you are quarrelsome and straggly, nor prone to gain a friend, you'll find the pilgrimage unhappy and dismal to the end. But if you wear a smile that's winning, a smile that inches deep, some other chap who sees you grinning, will straightway cease to weep. A smile like yours or mine's contagious; folks seeing it will say, "This life can't be so blamed outrageous, if pilgrims smile that way!" A scowl, alas, is just as catching; afar its influence goes; folks seeing it will soon be hatching another brood of woes. This life's a time that's full of jangles, a discord, lame and halt, if we go seeking rows and wrangles, and keep on finding fault. But it's an anthem, grand, inspiring, sweet as the angels' song, if we go down the road inquiring who we can help along.

Here and There.

FOGOTA—The Fogota left Newtown at 9:40 a.m. to-day, going north.

The R. M. S. Mongolian leaves Philadelphia on Sunday next for here.

EARL OF DEVON—The Earl of Devon left St. Anthony at 7:30 a.m. to-day, going north.

CODFISH PLENTIFUL—Codfish were plentiful at Twillingate yesterday and the hook and line men there secured good fares.

Stafford's Liniment should be in every home. No advance in the price.—sep19,tf

FROM LABRADOR—The schr. Merry Widow, John Milley, master, has arrived at Exploits from Labrador with 400 qts. codfish.

TO CHARTER BONAVENTURE—We understand that negotiations are now going on for the charter of the s.s. Bonaventure to take a cargo of codfish to Mediterranean ports.

WILL LECTURE—On next Monday evening, His Excellency the Governor will lecture at the Grenfell Hall on "The War," which, no doubt, will be treated in a thorough manner.

People are doing more reading to-day than ever before, and it is very important to those who wear glasses that they should be properly fitted. If you have any trouble or are in doubt, go to TRAFNELL, the Eye-sight Specialist.—sep12,tf

CASE OF DIPHTHERIA—Yesterday afternoon, a case of diphtheria was reported from a residence on Mullock Street. The patient is a 9-year-old boy, and is being nursed at home.

SQUID PLENTIFUL—Squid were fairly plentiful in the offing yesterday, and some of the boats which obtained a bait supply went outside the Heads and secured good catches of codfish.

Stafford's Phoratorne Cough Cure will cure that cough and cold you have had for a long time. Price 25c. Postage 5 and 10c. extra.—sep10,tf

OUTPORT CRAFT ARRIVE—Quite a number of outport craft arrived in port yesterday afternoon with cargoes of codfish. They are discharging at the different waterfront premises to-day, and when finished will load supplies.

THE LAST OF THE FLEET—The schr. Katherine P., with 500 qts. of fish on board, taken at Grois Islands on the French Shore, has arrived at Catalina on her way to Bonaville. She is the last of the Bonaville fleet to arrive.

IN TIMES OF WAR you cannot do without clothes any more than you can in times of peace; but at such a time it is necessary that you economize as much as possible; and in order to keep all our help at work we intend to make up Suits and Overcoats, until further notice, at the smallest possible margin of profit, but must be strictly cash orders. Investigate and get our prices; quality of our work needs no advertising. SPURRELL BROS., 365 Water Street, next door to Parker & Moore's.

DICK GRAY AT WORK AGAIN—Last night, Dick Gray, one of a pair, and a familiar character in police circles, was caught trying to do a "Wholesale" business with a pants and coat belonging to some other person. He was arrested by the police and appeared before the magistrate to-day. Dick was sent to the Penitentiary where he will sojourn for a month.

What a queer thing the British Empire is when you come to think of it! In ordinary times you would naturally judge from the hot lines and the dominions and colonies talk about Great Britain that the poor Old Country did have a friend on earth. In ordinary times of peace some part of the British Empire is always bearing the Home Government. In times of peace everybody feels at liberty to assume a possible revolution in India; separation of the dominions, and all sorts of other disasterous things. In times of peace the Empire is always more or less "doomed," according to the statements of many gloom-laden British subjects. But in time of war how suddenly things look up in that queer, queer British Empire! "I haven't a thing to take back," says Ireland, "but under the circumstances kindly show me the enemy as soon as possible. I want to get at him." "Yours of recent date received," says Canada, "Am sending men as fast as they can be got ready and transportation secured." "Reserving for a more auspicious time any hatred a part of our population justifiably bears to England," says South Africa, "we are prepared to do our utmost in the present war." "Serious local dissatisfaction will arise, unless the Indians are permitted to give their lives for the honorable Empire, now that it is at war with a foreign nation," says India. It's everywhere the same story. In peace, it's "Confound your stupid, unreasonable fat-headed, doomed, arrogant scoundrels!" In time of war it's "Count on us to the limit!" Which is why we say that the British Empire is a queer, queer institution!

The 4 British Belles

Draw Large Crowds.

Last night Rossey's was crowded out to the doors, for patrons know it is not often they get such a treat in the singing and dancing of the right sort as given by the British Belles. Last night's act was even better than Monday's; each night sees new and beautiful costumes. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday the British Belles will give a wonderful show as their farewell. The pictures last night created quite a sensation last night. On Monday comes the greatest circus act on record, Serpenteo and the Frog Men, in all new acts, contortion, horizontal bars, flying trapeze, Roman rings, leap for life and swing o' death, hair raising tricks, with beautiful equipment and stage setting. Mr. Rossey has cabled the greatest double voiced male vocalist also female impersonator.

The lids of saucepans often need to be raised while cooking—and a clothes peg with a tack in its top will answer the purpose. Fix the peg on the edge of the saucepan as if it were a line and rest the lid on the tack.
