out. For sale by J. E. Richards, druggist.

Mr. Paul F. Weisbrod, of Woodstock, spent Sunday last in town, with his many Aylmer friends.

House to rent. Apply to Thos. Dredge, 20 Washington Ave., Toronto, or Mr. W.
J. Youell, Aylmer.

Mr. W. B. Gates, of Fairground, was in town on Saturday last. He brought up over 200 bushels of dried apples and sold them to Mr. Joshua Siler.

Private funds to loan at lowest rates of interest on good farm security. A. E.
Haines, Barrister, Brown House Block, Aylmer.

The many friends of Mr. Claude Sinclair will be sorry to learn that he has been compelled to drop his studies at McMaster University and return home, being threatened with an attack of fever.

If every merchant paid as much attention to their ads as E. A. Caughell does they would reap more benefits from advertising.
His ads are always well written and must bring him good results. This week's ad on the back page is exceptionally strong.

NEW INDUSTRY IN AYLMER.—Ladies—Bring your kid gloves, silk waists, light trimmings on dresses, dresses, jackets, light felt hats, ribbons, fine laces, white furs, in fact everything that cannot be laundered and have them dry cleaned and made to look like new. Mrs. Ayres, 103 John street, south.

Our lace, silk and tapestry curtains, are best and cheapest. A. J. Anderson.

Dried Apples—Highest prices paid for choice stock at Bingham's.

been spending a few days in town with his mother.

Curtain poles, window shades, lace, chenille and tapestry curtains, large line and price low at Anderson's.

Mr. Bert Garrison has been transferred to the Windsor office of the G. T. R. and Mr.
E. Orton is filling his place here for a time.

For Sale—1 jogging cart, with runners; 1 speeding sleigh, 1 Borland buggy, nearly new; 1 pair pacing hoppers.—S. Anger, Mero house, Aylmer.

Little Mabel Wilson gave a party to her friends at her home on Tuesday last. About 25 were present and it is needless to say all had a good time.

10,000 bushels of dried apples wanted immediately, for which the highest market price will be paid. J. B. Hambridge, Clutton's old stand.

Mrs. A. E. Haines has been spending the past few days in Toronto, making the trip at the present time in order to take part in the reception to the returning soldiers from Africa.

Send THE EXPRESS to your friends who are away from home, from now to Jan., 1902, for $1. Mailing it yourself during that time will cost you 65c for postage, and a lot of bother.

Mr. G. H. Gardner, of the city mills, is having a fine new engine and pump placed in his mill, which was about the only piece of machinery needed to make the whole plant first class in every particular.

Mr. Walter S. Downs, who has been employed the past summer with F. Turner, architectural carver and modeler, Hamilton, is spending a couple of weeks in town visiting his parents, Fourth Ave., and recovering from an attack of illness.

An auction sale without an add in the EXPRESS sale register is like bread without butter. It may go, but it won't go very well. If you get your bills at this office the add in the sale register will be free. Otherwise it will cost you not less than $1. Our prices are as low as those of any good office for the same class of work.

Mr. Samuel W. Walker, one of our popular young citizens and Miss Rose McGuigan, were married at the home of the bride's mother, St. George St., on Friday last, the Rev. C. T. Scott officiating. The bride as well as the groom, has many warm friends in Aylmer, who will join with us in tendering their congratulations.

You can get the best ten dollar overcoat in Canada at Simpson & Case's and over. $100,000 at 6 per cent. in sums of $200 and over. Double security required on 5 per cent. loans; gilt edge security on 5 1/2 per cent. loans; good security on 6 per cent. loans, with privileges to suit the borrower. Land bought and sold on commission. Real estate valued, rents collected, assignees, trustee, etc. C. O. Learn, real estate broker, Brown House block, Aylmer, Ont.

Coke Dandruff cure puts hair on bald scalps. For sale by J. E. Richards.

Mr. Alex. Lane received word a few days ago that his son, Mr. Geo. A. Lane, of Marlette, Mich., had received serious and painful injuries by a fall the early part of last week. He was fixing a belt in the elevator and reaching up, he took hold of a board for support. The board happened to be loose, and gave way throwing Mr. Lane to the floor about 15 feet below. The fall broke three of his ribs, tore the lining around the lungs and the muscles of his breast, besides bruising him considerably.
He will be in bed for a few weeks and the attending physician says he will not be able to do any hard work for several months.
Many friends in this section will be sorry to learn of his bad luck.

A nice line of fancy Bohemian glassware just opened out at R. G. Moore's.

Mr. E. E. Davis' little 5 year old boy, Winifred, gets off some pretty good things every once in a while in his own peculiar style. The other Sunday the golden text at Sunday School was "I will arise and go to my Father," and Winifred had the text firmly impressed upon his mind. On Friday night he wanted to sit up until his father came home, but as it would be too late he reluctantly retired leaving the message "tell Daddy I am glad he came home." The little fellow sleeps down stairs in his crib in the same room with his aunt, and about 5 o'clock the next morning she heard him turn in bed and stretch his limbs. She was about to speak to him, but on second thought decided to lie still and see what he would do. It was dark, but he sat up in bed, and as he began to climb out she heard him remark is a low tone of voice as if speaking to himself "I will arise and go to my father," and he did, toddling off up stairs to his father's room and got in bed with him.

The following article taken from "The Department News," of Washington, D. C., will be read with pleasure by many Aylmer friends of the party mentioned. "One of the hardest working secretaries of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States is Mr. George F. Tibbitts, now of Washington, but formerly secretary of the large Cincinnati association. Mr. Tibbitts holds the very responsible positions of State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association for Maryland, Delaware, District of Columbia, and West Virginia. It was the pleasure of the writer to know Mr.
Tibbitts in Cincinnati, and he can truthfully say that there was no more popular and well liked gentleman in that city than Mr. Tib-bitts. His courteous and generous actions won him a place in everyone's heart whose pleasure it was to meet him. The Department News is glad to know that Mr. Tib-bitts is in Washington and wish him great success in his good work.

appearance of his house on Talbot St., by removing the fence in front of it.

Wanted.—20,000 bushels of good dried apples at my warehouse this month, for which the highest cash price will be paid.
J. Siler.

Mr. Blackwell has gone to Glencoe, where he has been appointed permanent day operator on the G. T. R., and Mr. Hubbard goes to New Sarum.

Mr. Eber Millard died at his home in Richmond on Thursday last, from appendicitis.
He was 63 years, and was well and favorably known throughout this section.

Mrs. H. P. Evans and children who have been spending the past couple of months in town with Mrs. T. G. Dochstater, returned to their home in Smith's Falls last week.

Mr. E. J. Adams says that he cannot beat Thos. Martindale on mangold wurtzels, but he thinks he can do them all up on winter radishes. He raised one that weighs 8 pounds.

Mr. Frank Tibbitts is following fast in the footsteps of his brother Geo. in the way of advancement in his chosen calling, and we are pleased to see that he has been afforded and has accepted the position of General secretary of the Y. M. C. A., at Courtland, N. Y.

Mr. Ephraim Crouk, who was a resident of Aylmer many years ago, was 80 years old last week, and a large number of his friends gathered at his home in St. Thomas, and after spending a very pleasant evening with him and his estimable wife, presented them with an address and a purse of money, as an expression of the esteem in which they were held by the other members of the Central Methodist church, of which they both are members.

On Monday morning of last week Mr. E.
A. Caughell left on the 7 o'clock train for Muskoos, with the avowed object of slaughtering moose and deer by the dozen, regardless of all law. How he managed to get up in time to catch that early train, is one of the mysteries of the trip, but he got there, armed with the latest and best of modern guns, revolvers, and knives, with ammunition enough for a man-a-war. The torics went into deep mourning because they were certain that he would never leave the joys of the Muskoka woods to come home and happy, while the Grits were correspondingly vexed. Thirty miles an hour seemed like a snail pace to Ern in his anxiety to get there and begin the fun and the slaughter. He kept Ben Arnum, on the rack, all the way to Jarvis by such questions as "why don't this old gravel train move a little." "Say Ben, shall I get out and push." Etc. etc.

He threatened Ben with instant dismissal, should he miss connections at Jarvis. Ben only smiled and suggested that he was much more liable to miss connections on a deer trail than even on the G. T. R. Then Ben got a little mad and said he need not take so on about mission his connections, as none of his connections would miss him, if he never came back. We might go on if time would permit, and give a full account of his journey to the land of sport and happiness but we will draw the curtain over the balance of the journey by rail, and take it up briefly from there on. He secured a team and wagon to convey himself and baggage back into the wilderness of forest, and started. The driver, thinking evidently that he had in tow a millionaire, or a British Officer, judging by the quantity of baggage, charged him three prices for the trip, and made him believe he was getting a bargain. At last they got away, but had only gone a few miles, when on account of the bad roads and heavy load, Ern was obliged to get off and walk. He walked all day, and at night had to sleep in a barn. After getting settled down in the hay, he thought of his cosy home, and good warm comfortable bed so far away. His legs ached, his back ached and his heart ached. In fact he was a bunch of aches from head to foot. He had purchased a pair of the latest hunting shoes, without any heels, and they strained the cords of his feet and ankles. Rats bigger than woodchucks tried to make friends with him, but Ern declined. Sleep would not come, except in dozing snatches, and in the morning he crawled out of his hole in the hay, took one long wailing, despairing look into the deep recesses of the Muskoka woods, and turning his face towards home, he struck out like a little man, and never stepped until he reached Aylmer on Friday tired, footsore, and weary, but with a higher appreciation of home, and a different idea of deer hunting than he ever had before.

Davidson's infant son, who was injured a short time ago, by being upset from the baby carriage, has entirely recovered, his injury not being as serious as at first thought.

We are very sorry to learn that Mr. C.
S. Bridgeman leaves on Saturday next for Toronto, where he has secured a good situation with Gordon McKay & Co. Charley has a host of friends in Aylmer who will miss him very much, but who will be glad to learn of his good fortune. In musical circles, especially the Methodist church choir, his sweet tenor voice will be greatly missed.

Watch our clubbing list. It will save you money.

The services at the Methodist church next Sunday will be in the interests of the young people of the Epworth League, who have secured the Rev. G. H. Cobblestick, of Bothwell, for both morning and evening services. Mr. Cobblestick, who is said to be a very clever young man, is president of the Epworth League for the London Conference, and he will no doubt be greeted by large audiences.

FOUND—A small flat key. Owner may have it by calling at this office.

Last Thursday the Schooner Reuben Doud, of Detroit, was driven in to the shore of Lake Erie by the heavy south-eastern gale, and to avoid going ashore, was compelled to drop her anchors off Pt. Bruce.
The wind shifted to the west during the night and threw the vessel in the trough of the sea. Her main and mizzen masts were carried away and she was in bad shape. Capt. Yoang, with the tug Enterprise went out to her in the morning and brought messages from the captain who sent to Buffalo for a tug. She got off all right, and it is thought her cargo of wheat was not much damaged.
