THE WEATHER PROPHET. THE WEATHER PROPHET.

TO::ONTO. Dec. 22—11 p.m.—The disturbance which was in the Northwest Territories last night has traveled with rapidity and increasing energy to the lake region, where it is now situated at the same time an anticyclonical spidity spread over the Northwest Toulories. Local falls of snow and rain have rearred in Eastern Canada and in the Northwest the mild weather has been displaced by decidedly colder condition. Temperatures of colock to night: Edmonton, 4 below zero: Nontreal, 16; Quichec, 10; Haiffax, 30.

TO:DAY'S PHOMABILITIES.

TORONTO. Dec. 23—10 a.m.—The indications for the next 24 hours for the lower lake region (covering the peninsula and as fax cast as Belleville) are: Strong winds and gales, westerly to northwesterly; generally fair, turning gradually colder; snow flurries in some localities at night; cold on Wednesday.

the members of the club who are disposing of tickets are being kept busy. The plan opens on Friday morning and Monday and Tuesday are the evenings on which the performances will be given.

—The Sunday school pupils of the Askin Street Methodist Church enjoyed their annual Christmas entertainment last evening, and so did their parents and friends in large numbers. A bountiful supply of good things was sadly depleted in quantity. Then the children had satisfied their ap cittes. An adjournment was then made to the church, where Mr. Kershaw entertained his andience with line-light views. Some church, where Mr. Kershaw entertained his audience with lique-light views. Some musical selections, including Christmas carols, were well rendered by the pupils. Rev. C. E. McIntyre, the pastor, presided, and was assisted by Mr. James Learn, the Sunday school superintendent.

The Coming Elections.

Reeve Lacey, of London West, has decided not to seek municipal honors again.

Ex-Councilor Rockett has been requested by a number of London West people to stand for reeve, and has promised to do so.

Mr. Alex. Alkman is out for school board honors in Ward 4.

Mr. Alex. Aikman is out for school board honors in Ward 4.

Mr. Dennis Collins has his eye on a seat in the London West Council.

Mr. E. J. McRobert is announced as willing to be a 'rustee from the 4th ward.

Ald. Moule's decision to run for the mayoralty makes three candidates a certainty, while there may be four or five. Mayor Taylor, Ald. Anderson, Ald. Moule and Mr. J. R. Minhinnick are the names mentioned, and that still another will enter the field is among the probabilities.

Ald. Jones having stated that he will not stand for water commissioner leaves a doubt as to whether the present board will be opposed.

A New Candidate.

With the already large batch of candidates seeking both mayoralty and aldermanic honors, and the two great questions of reductions—in the number of wards and so foliquor licenses—the municipal election this year promises to be unusually exciting. The latest aspirant for public favor is Mr. Thomas Gillean, the popular Richmond street jeweler. Wishing to verify the report an Advertisent representative called upon Mr. Gillean at his store, No. 492 and the jeweler, "I have lived in the city for the return of the statement. "Yes," replied the jeweler, "I have lived in the city for the everal years and I think I can watch business and still have time to broach something in the novelty line. You can say that I have decided to run off one of the finest stocks of holiday goods that London has ever seen. My stock is complete, and persons in want of Christmas and New Year's presents should consult their own interests by looking at my goods before they make their purchases. I can sell at prices that will astonish, and at the same price that will astonish, and at the same prices will astonish, and at the same price that will astonish, and at the same price that will astonish, and at the same price that will astonish, and at the same prices will astonish, and at the same prices will astonish, and at the same price that will astonish, and at the same prices will astonish and at the same prices."
