A birthday celebration of more than ordinary interest was celebrated in a quiet way at the residence of John Frost, Grimsby Park, the other day, it being the 100th birthday of John Jeffries. The old gentleman has always enjoyed the best of health and has his faculties unimpaired. Notwithstanding his great age, his eyesight is femarkably good, while his memory is surprisingly active, he being able to inquire) after his many grandchildren, some of whom he has not seen for years, the most surprising thing being that he remembers their Christian names distinctly. Mr. Jeffries has two sons, John Jeffries, of Fisherville, and Charles Jeffries, of Fisherville, and Charles Jeffries, of Beamsville, also two daughters, Mrs. Frost and Mrs. Richard Morgan, of Smithville. Among his many grandchildren are John Jeffries, of the Peterboro Collegiate Institute; S. A. Morgan, B.A., of the Hamilton Collegiate Institute, and W. H. Morgan, hardware merchant, of Smithville. Mr. Jeffries was born in Devonshire, Eng. Coming to Canada about 35 years ago, his life has been one of activity, his habits being temperate, while a doctor was to him an unknown quantity. He is at present able to move about quite comfortably, and on fine days enjoys a walk around the grounds.
