THE GRAND TRUNK AND THE ELECTIONS.

Parnell-McCarthyite Meetings.
QUEENSTOWN, March 9.—The steamer
Etruria, which sailed from Queenstown yesterday for New York, had among he passengers James O'Kelly, John Redmond, John O'Connor and Henry Harrisou, members of Parliament, who go to America to raise money as representatives of Mr. Parnell. Thousands of persons came by train from Cork to express their farewells and good wishes to the delegates, among the visitors being the mayor and councilmen of Cork, who accompanied the delegates on board the steamer.
The Parnellite crowd met with a hostile reception from the anti-Parnellites at The Parnellite crowd met with a hostile reception from the anti-Parnellites at Queenstown. The efforts of the former encountered so much resistance that four attempts which they made ito present an address to the delegates proved ineffectual. The disorder culminated in the Parnellites attacking their opponents with black-thorns. The police intervened, and the Parnellites were finally enabled to present their address. Delegate O'Connor's speech of thanks for the address was interrupted throughout.

DUBLIN, March 9.—Successful meetings were held by the anti-Parnellites at Hilltown and Lislea, Ireland, on Sunday. At the former place Messrs. McCartan, Knox and Pinkerton, M.P.s, made speeches, and at the latter Timothy Healy and Deasy orated. At Dundalk the populace unyoked the horses and dragged Mr. Healy's carriage through the town and part of the way to Lislea. Mr. Parnell, on returning from Newry, through Dundalk, was groaned and looted at by the people, and the crowds becoming so violent that the police had to go to the rescue. Archbishop Croke has sent to the National Press, the new McCarthyite paper, a letter in which he strongly opposes the retention of Parnell as the leader of the Irish party.

Messrs. Lane and Maurice Healy, members of Parliament, went to Middleton to address an anti-Parnellite meeting. On arriving they were received by the town commissioners. Outside of the station a large crowd hooted at the visitors and a band which had been engaged to escort them to the town refused to play, but followed mute. The subsequent meeting, however, was a success, being attended by contingents from every parish in East Cork. The feeling in Middleton is shown by the fact that the material required for the construction of the platform of proday's meeting had to be brought from a place six miles outside the town, the local builders refusing to do the work.

While speaking from the window of a railroad carriage on Saturday to a crowd at the Drogheda station, while he was en route to Newry, Parnell vehemently threatened to drive the secoders from his ranks, from out of Parliament and out of the country. In several short speeches made by Mr. Parnell, at stations where his train stopped on the way to Newry, he said he was confident that Ulster was as sound for him as the other provinces. Mr. Par-

Mr. Parnell was unable to speak at Dundalk, where he encountered a hostile reception. On arriving at Newry he was escorted from the railway station to his hotel by a torchlight procession. In his address he attacked Justin McCarthy for traducing the memory of John Mitchell in his history. The meeting passed a resolution of confidence in Parnell. Mr. Parnell reminded his hearers that the Liberal party had been as active coercionists as others. WIMAN AND BLAINE ON THE ELECTIONS.

THE GRAND TRUNK AND THE ELECTIONS.

Mr. Wainwright, assistant general manager of the G. T. R. was seen at Montreal in reference to the statement sent from Chicago that the G. T. R. shipped free of charge 148 Canadians from Chicago and vicinity to Canada to participate in the Parliamentary elections. He stigmatized the story as false. The Grand Trunk, he said, had carried no electors. Feeling that they had not been fairly dealt with finey decided to work neither for nor against either Liberals or Conservatives. Mr. Wainwright was very indignant at the thought of his road being made the victim of such a statement.

The Telegraph says we cannot call it a glorious victory, and the talk about annexation will not assist Sir John Macdonald's negotiations with the United States, but rather prove a hindrance, and in fact, the question that now confronts him is iraught with formidable difficulties.

The Gazette says annexation is repudiated. Past experience warrants the belief that Sir John Macdonald will long be able to maintain himself in power. Mr. D. W. Karn, who opposed Mr. sutherland in North Oxford, loses his deposit.

It is said that a ballot box for Caistor division in the Wentworth election is missing, and another count will be necessary if this is the case.

The Reformers of South Grey will hold a convention at Durham on Friday next tor the purpose of nominating a candidate to contest the riding in the Reform interest owing to the death of J. H. Hunter, M.P.P. that Sir John Macdonald will long be able to maintain himself in power.

The Times says the zeal of American friends of the Canadian Liberals will probably cool when it is discovered that no practical result has crowned their efforts. Whatever may be the elements of weakness in Sir John Macdonald's present position there seem to be others equally dangerous among the Liberals. A Mississippi Colored Bar.

HYMAN'S MAJORITY.

Official Count Gives the Liber Candidate a Majority of 182.

Shortly after 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon Returning Officer Overell proceeded to make up his official count of the recent election contest in this city. Member-elect Charles S. Hyman, his agent James Magee, Richard Bayly, agent for Hon. John Carling, and Secretary Mapherson, of the Reform Association, were present. The work occupied the greater part of an hour, and when completed the returning officer declared Mr. Charles S. Hyman elected by a majority of 183. The figures in each polling subdivision were exactly the same as those recorded on the ADVERTISER bulletin half an hour after the close of the poll on Thuraday evening. The rejected ballots numbered 34, the greater proportion of which, it is affirmed, were marked in favor of the successful candidate. The only hitch in the entire proceedings was caused by the failure of Deputy Returning Officer J. M. Cousins to make out the requisite statement. In its absence the returning officer accepted the statement which had been furnished Secretary Macpherson. The vote by wards was:

Sir Charles Dilko's Case.

London, March 7.—Editor Stead will issue to-day a pamphlet vehemently denouncing Sir Charles Dilke, recalling his promise not to return to public life till his character was cleated; analyzing the Dilke pamphlet circulated in the Forest of Dean Division as an addition to his offense by putting up falsehood; and invoking a combination of Liberals to prevent the relection of Sir Charles. Sir Charles' Liberal opponents now challenge him to take the only course open for legal vindication—to prosecute the persons charged in the pamphlet with conspiracy and perjury. On Monday Sir Charles will speak in the Forest of Dean when his opponents will ask him to step down or prosecute.

Mr D'Oyly Carte personally directed the play, which was witnessed by 200 persons. The Queen sat in an arm chair, surrounded by the royal children down to the youngest one. Girls of Canada, you should never become so old or so womanly as to forget that dear word of the English language, "Mamma." Some may say that it sounds babyish and childish for girls of 18 to 20 to use the word.
