

The Boers Lost Fully 3,000 Men

In the First Battle With the British at Glencoe.

Results of the British Bayonet Charge at Revington.

The Enemy Swept From the Hill Like Leaves Before a Wind.

Boer Official Reports of Recent Engagements Show That They Suffered Heavy Loss.

London, Oct. 28.—The war situation this morning presents no new features. It is presumed in Natal that the Boers are reconstructing their plans, and that the English are resting. But telegrams from Ladysmith at express rates still occupy 48 hours in transmission to London, and therefore it is not impossible that something is happening.

The special dispatches assert that Col. Baden-Powell, the British commander at Mafeking, is aware that Pretoria has given Gen. Cronje orders to stay his hand, as already there is quite enough to employ the Boers in Natal.

The government has chartered the City of Rome as a hospital ship.

According to the latest account of the first battle at Glencoe, the Boer army amounted to about 7,000 men, and at noon, another army, almost as large, under the command of Gen. Joubert, advanced within 600 yards of Glencoe Camp and then retired. The Boer losses were very heavy—quite 300.

A BRITISH "CHARGE."

A special dispatch from Cape Town gives details of the defeat of 700 Boers by the British at Riverton, north of Kimberley, on Wednesday, in which the enemy was completely routed, with heavy loss. The British loss being 3 men killed and 20 maimed, including 2 officers wounded. This is probably the same fight, though a different date is given, as referred to in the Cape Town dispatch previously cited to the Associated Press, in which it was said that official reports from Kimberley Tuesday announced that Col. Scott Turner, with 270 men, had an encounter with the Boers, during which a detachment of 50 men of the Lancashire Regiment distinguished themselves in a most gallant way, and the Boers were unable to withstand the splendid charge of the Lancashires, who cleared the hill occupied by the enemy.

AT THE POINT OF THE BAYONET.

The Boer losses are described as very heavy. Col. Scott Turner's force consisted of the local volunteers, who, with the Lancashires, completed the rout of the burghers after Murray's artillery had driven them out of their entrenchments. Both commands were under the command of Gen. Buller. The fight lasted four hours. Before the sortie, Kimberley was apparently in high spirits, as a dispatch from there, dated Oct. 23, says everyone was happy and that a wedding was celebrated there that day. The dispatch adds: "Great enthusiasm has been aroused here by the news of the British success in Natal. Several farmers in the neighborhood of Kimberley have been noted in the ranks of the Boers. A letter from Father Roche said 600 Boers, with 100 wagons, were hanging at Mafeking. All the whites are believed to believe that the Boer commander has promised to protect them. FIVE HUNDRED AND FIFTEEN BOERS KILLED.

The magistrate at Vryburg is responsible for a report made to Premier Schreiner, at Cape Town, that 615 Boers were killed at Mafeking. The news from the northern border indicates that the Boers are actively striving to prevent Col. Plummer from relieving Mafeking. The absence of news since Pretoria announced the bombardment of the place is creating considerable alarm.

THE RETREAT FROM DUNDEE.

A delayed Cape Town dispatch says the story of the retreat from Glencoe and Dundee shows the British were forced to move their camp in order to get out of the range of the excellent Boer practice. Just as they had decided to evacuate the second

GIVEN UP TO DIE BY TWO DOCTORS.

But Third Doctor Prescribed Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Saved the Young Lady's Life.

Dr. J. W. Bates, of Corfu, N. Y., states: "A most remarkable case has come under my hands of late, and has fully convinced me of the wonderful power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food over diseases of the nerves."

"A young lady who was treated for over two years for epilepsy by two doctors was given up to die. She came to me, and on careful examination I found that her sickness was not epilepsy, but nervous trouble, due to menstrual derangement, and prescribed four of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Pills a day, after meals and at bed time. It is three months since she began this treatment, and she has not had a single bad spell. Her health has rapidly improved, she has gained about fifteen pounds in weight, and I do not hesitate to state that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has saved her life and made her well. (Signed)

formed, and therefore remained at Dundee watching their guns in the morning. Our cavalry and infantry have been fired on Sunday noon, and chased by the enemy near the scene of the Rietfontein engagement. The Boers show signs of coming together. We learned first of the capture of the Hussars in response to a military wire sent to Commandant General Joubert.

THREATENING THE NATIVES.

A telegram from Bulawayo, Rhodesia, dated Monday, says: "A Boer force of 100 men, including Khama and Linchwa, who are loyal to Great Britain. Khama and Linchwa's country lies at the extreme northwest of the Transvaal, and includes Bechuanaland. It is a vast and fertile country, and seems a gross mistake for the Boers to make any attempt to take possession of it. The probable explanation is that the Boer force intends to destroy the railway at Bulawayo, which runs through Khama's country, and to capture any ships of Cape Plummer's Rhodesian train engaged in the Mafeking."

AT KIMBERLEY.

According to late advices from Kimberley, the Boers removed their killed and wounded in carts. No reliable estimate of their losses has been made. Mr. Rhodes rode out and watched the fight. The townspeople, including the women, watched the trenches, watching eagerly for the return of the troops. Mr. Rhodes is cheerful and optimistic, and the Boers are abundant. Great indignation has been caused at Cape Town by the announcement that Hoffman, a member of the Cape House of Assembly, and a member of the Transvaal, is going to the Transvaal to do ambulance work. It is suspected that he will give information to the enemy.

ON THE RHODESIAN BORDER.

Related dispatches from Tull fort partially elucidate the situation on the Rhodesian border. It appears that Col. Plummer ascertained that all the Zouthansberg Boers, numbering 700 men, mustered under Piet Joubert at the Brack River, and proceeded to Limpopo River, where they arrived Oct. 15, accompanied by a number of armed Shangan and Zouthansberg Kafirs, whom they had compelled to take up arms. The British then proceeded to capture three Kaffir chiefs, who are now held as hostages for the good behavior of their tribes. On Oct. 19, reconnoitering patrols proceeding along the north bank of the river in an easterly direction, suddenly encountered a party of Boers in some dense brush on the Rhodesian side of the Limpopo. The patrol retired, and the Boers fired, wounding a trooper. Subsequently Capt. Glynn, with a patrol, left Tull with the object of locating the Boer force. On Oct. 21 a strong Boer patrol was engaged at Rietfontein, in a thick bush. A sharp skirmish was the result. Two of the British were killed and two were wounded. The Boers had seven men killed and many wounded. The Boer retreat to a strong position at Pont's Drift. Major Pilsen, with an ambulance, proceeded to fetch the dead and wounded, and while placing the bodies on the ambulance, the Boers reopened fire, killing two horses. But in spite of the sharp shooting the British succeeded in carrying away their comrades.

BRITISH PROCLAMATION.

A Cape Town dispatch says: Sir Alfred Milner, governor of Cape Colony, and Sir William Schreiner have issued a proclamation, declaring null and void the proclamation of the Orange Free State, stating that a portion of Cape Colony is now Free State territory. Sir Alfred Milner's proclamation was all British subjects of the colony of the duty and obligations to the Queen.

THE BOERS' STRENGTH.

The war office is still in the dark regarding the true size of either Joubert's or the Free State legions, as the Orange Free State reports a force of 16,000 to 20,000. Taking the mean estimate as true, the Boers have at least twice as many men as the British, and an equal number of guns.

READY FOR THE FRAY.

The proposed attack on the combined forces of Sir Buller and the Orange Free State, who are coming through Tintwa Pass, is still to be realized so far as any reports reaching London are concerned. The British continue to stand in readiness for battle, but apparently the enemy is still out of sight. All reports from the front predict an Orange Free State victory. The fact that the Free State did not make their expected appearance through the Tintwa Pass leads to the belief that the Boers have been made aware of the British concentration, and have turned their course so as to join Joubert's Boer force without interruption. In case the two united forces collide, the Orange Free State is the most important engagement of the war will be fought.

AT DURBAN.

Many spies have been arrested at Durban, and some of them will be shot. It is reported that one of the Indian transporters is being fitted out to convey the Boer prisoners elsewhere. A Durban dispatch says: After searching the Transvaal National Bank yesterday the blue jackets and marines withdrew and the bank was reopened.

OFFICIAL REPORT.

Two telegrams dated Lorenzo Marquez, Oct. 25, have been received at Cape Town, and in view of the fact that Pretoria news is now coming from Lorenzo Marquez, the authorities are inclined to believe they are copies of official bulletins from Pretoria. The first evidently refers to the Glencoe battle, and says: "Gen. Erasmus as expected was compelled to retire, his men having been driven back by Gen. Erasmus. Gen. Erasmus seems to have been decoyed into the wrong direction by the enemy, and the British succeeded in capturing the Glencoe and Dundee forces. The number of killed is unknown, but the burghers suffered heavily." The second telegram bears evidence of being a report of the same engagement by Commandant Treichardt. It says: "The Glencoe burghers in charge of the artillery, apparently led from Dundee. They were reinforced by 60 (?) Pretoria burghers, under Gen. Erasmus. The English opened a snipe fire, and De Jaeger, with a Krupp, yielded. Our wounded were numerous, including Commandant Crobler. We also lost 243 prisoners."

AT DUNDEE.

Commandant Zuberberg is in charge of the Boers at Dundee. The stores were looted by individuals who were unarmed. The hospital has been removed from the old camp to houses surrounding the railway station. The principal medical officer states that everything was going well, and that everyone was cheerful and confident. It is alleged that a number of sporting rifles and express bullets were found in the Boer camp at Glencoe, which has aroused indignation. Gen. Yule's command is recovering from the fatigue of the march from Glencoe. The morale of the troops is splendid. The rifle association at Pietermaritzburg has been ordered out for the defence of the city."

BOERS' MISTAKE.

The Daily Telegraph prints the following from Ladysmith, dated Tuesday: Gen. Symons ordered his column to march back to Ladysmith, and under his instructions himself and all the prisoners were placed in a hospital at Dundee. It is supposed that the Boers puzzled by the retreat, imagined that a trick was being performed, and therefore remained at Dundee watching their guns in the morning. Our cavalry and infantry have been fired on Sunday noon, and chased by the enemy near the scene of the Rietfontein engagement. The Boers show signs of coming together. We learned first of the capture of the Hussars in response to a military wire sent to Commandant General Joubert.

A few days ago Peter Sharp was committed to jail at St. Thomas for 40 days for neglecting to pay a debt when ordered to do so. On Tuesday morning his four children walked into the mayor's store and said they had no one to provide the necessities of life for them. The Children's Aid Society was notified.

The death occurred on Wednesday morning at the residence of her brother, Mr. Graham Symington, St. Thomas, of Miss Helen Symington. Deceased was in her 36th year, and had been ill for some time. She leaves one brother, George, and two sisters, Mrs. Blinn, London, and Mrs. T. McCombe, Toronto.

Charles H. Marshall, wanted in Clayton, Ill., on a charge of horse-stealing, was arrested at Windsor on Tuesday evening. There are said to be at least a dozen charges against Marshall, for whose arrest a reward of $200 was offered. He came to Windsor Tuesday morning. Sheriff Keith of Summers County, Ill., is expected to take Marshall back, but the latter says he will fight extradition.

A prominent West Zorra man drove into Woodstock on Wednesday morning, and was the victim of a robbery. On Tuesday night he was taken from her home, a son of a neighboring farmer disappeared at the same time, and it is presumed that they left together. The girl, only 17 years of age, and her youthful lover is not much older. No trace of them could be found.

Ingersoll Chronicle: An outsider reading the London and Woodstock papers would be led to believe that Ingersoll was behind in contributing recruits from the Twenty-second Battalion to the South African contingent. As a matter of fact, A. Edwards and A. Marshall, both of whom are credited to Woodstock, belong to No. 4 company and are from Ingersoll. The country town is not slow in taking honors to herself whether deserving of them or not.

Albert Houston, who resides at the Home of Industry, Chatham, met with a shooting accident the other day that may result in the loss of his hand. He took his gun and was going out shooting quail. In climbing a fence the charge exploded and Mr. Houston's right hand and leg were shattered. The powder was also blown. The doctor says it is hard to tell yet whether the wound will be fatal to the hand or not. Houston had been working there for 17 years. He is now in a hospital, where, with his wooden legs, he gets about and does his work as usual. It is said that he could do with his natural limbs intact.

Reasons for Generosity—Canadian Prosperity—The Claims of the Fund.

Toronto, Oct. 27.—Hon. Geo. W. Ross, premier of Ontario, was one of the speakers at Cook's Church, Toronto, on Tuesday, at a largely attended meeting in aid of the Presbyterian century fund.

Rev. Dr. Worden, in calling on Hon. Geo. W. Ross, said: "We Presbyterians ought to have a good deal of confidence in the government of this province, as not only does a venerable Presbyterian occupy the chair of the Premier, but so successful has been the work of the Presbyterian Church in Canada."

Mr. Ross said: "Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, being a parliamentarian, I suppose I might consider that we are tonight in committee of ways and means for the advancement of the century fund as a committee of the whole house, with the finance minister of the Presbyterian Church in the chair. The question before us is 'Shall we raise $1,000,000 for the advancement of the century fund?'"

Mr. A. M. Brown, of the Brantford branch of the Bank of Commerce, has been transferred to the head office in Toronto. Mr. Brown's place at Brantford, will take Mr. Brown's place at Brantford.

Now, the chairman might have taken other ground, and said that as Presbyterians or as members of another church it would be becoming to the people of Canada as Canadians at the close of this great century, to our generous acknowledgments of thanks for the wonderful prosperity of the nation. One hundred years ago, and the Presbyterian Church in Canada was only 230,000, just a few more than the population of the city of Toronto, and behold, what a mighty nation we have become. Somewhere between five and six million people are gathered through our streets, our granaries overflowing with grain, and our people enjoying the blessings of peace and content-
