Forest Fires of Vancouver Island Now Sweeping Towards

Them.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 20. - Forest fires on Vancouver Island are extending in every direction, and the latest report indicates that the settlements are threatened. In Noksilsh district 20 square miles are ablaze. The fate of the scattered ranchers is unknown. The flames are advancing on Goldstream and 30 inhabitants are back firing to save the villages. Several lumber camps have been wiped out. A dense pall of smoke hangs over 50 square miles, and only a soaking rain can arrest the march of the conflagration. Some of the richest lumber lands in the province have been laid Sealed tenders will be received up to moon on Tuesday, Aug. 25, 1908, for supplies as follows for Victoria Hospital:

Waste, and a severe blow has been dealt to the lumber industry. Telephone and telegraph messages state that the and telegraph messages state that the eastern side of Bowen Island is a mass of fire. A settlement of 80 souls were scattered about the section which has been swept by the flames. But it is impossible to ascertain their fate.
