AT CRONYN MEMORIAL.—A misnursery, of which they daily saw great need in the city, until now their efforts seemed to have met with no response. At yesterday's meeting, however, the secretary, Miss Blanche Friend, was able to announce that the Red Cross had offered financial support for a day nursery in London up to the amount of $3,500, or $3.500, this to be the cost of its upkeep for one year.

The Red Cross Helps.

The Red Cross Ommunication, which came from Mrs. Lorna Harris, the honorary secretary, stated that this money had been taken from the special comfort fund, such a denation being possible under the enlarged peacetime charter of the society, all the bills to be sent into the Red Cross treasurer, and certified by her.

The whole meeting showed itself to be most enthusiastic over the idea of taking immediate steps towards the establishment of a day nursery, to which working mothers may take their children during working hours, And every effort is to be made by them to get the nursery established as soon as very effort is to be made by them to get the nursery established as soon as working hours, and every effort is to be made by them to get the nursery established as soon as working hours, and every effort is to be made by them to get the nursery established as soon as working hours, and every effort is to be made by them to get the nursery established as soon as working hours, and every effort is to be made by them to get the nursery established as soon as the search of the Union Autotners by Miss Sibyl Higman, vocal solos by Mrs. Maynard and piano numbers by Miss Ethel Burtch and Miss Dorothy Cline.

must first be found, and the Neighborhood Workers are looking to the public for that.

Now is Time to Act.

"Almost every or zation in the city has at some time declared itself strongly for the establishment of a day nursery in London," said the president, Miss Hilda Keene. "Now is the time for them to act and show that they meant what they said. It is possible that the city may be able to supply us with a building, but cots must be provided and societies or individuals destring to help might furnish these cots. We want to begin as soon as possible and make the nursery a success, so that by the end of the year we shall be able to prove to the city that it is worth while keeping on with the work."

The nursery will be located in some central place, and be in charge of a superintendent, with two helpers. Here siring to help might furnish these cots. Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 9.—The budget of the inter-church world movement, to be used in co-ordinating the energies of the Protestant denominations and the evangelization of the world, was approved today at the conference of 1,460 church leaders here. The budget calls for the expenditure of $1,330,000,000 in the next five years. It provides for evangelistic work in America and the foreign fields, proper financing of hospitals and homes. liboffice.

Gives Every Opportunity.

Mr. Baker also pointed out that every opportunity is given the cltizens to know whether their names are on the list. For weeks before the election they are urged by official advertisements to see the list and make sure their names are there. In addition to this every voter receives a notice telling where to yote and to the consent of the denominations.

America and the foreign fields, proper financing of hospitals and homes liberal awards to struggling colleges, for the fighting of social and industrial unrest and better wages both to ministers and missionaries.

It is specified that no part of the budget shall be changed by a board of review to be appointed, with equal representation for all denominations, without the consent of the denominational board directly affected. OUT, ALONG WITH STYLE IN FLASKS New York, Jan. 10 .- Prohibition will sweep hip pockets in men's trousers into innocuous desuetude.

according to a prediction by experts of the International Association of Clothing Designers, who today issued an edict: "Make them smaller and shallower this season."

Commenting on the attitude of the designers, George W. Hermann, a member of the organization, said:

Reports having been circulated unchallenged for some time to the effect that Kurt von Lersner, head of the German delegation, would be designated as first German charge d'affairs, it had become accepted as a fact. Baron von Lersner, however, told the Associated Press this morning he had not been named for the post and was in utter ignorance of the intentions of his Government.
