THE WOMAN'S PAG

SEES PERIL IN EARLY WEDLOCK

Regina Missionary Claims Young Foreigners in Canada Marry Too Young.

"If we teach them what the Bible stains, and nothing else, I think we done a great work," said Miss speaking of the "New Candelegates of the London District Women's Missionary Society Tuesday afternoon. Miss Forman is on a year's furlough, after spending five years in of a mission in the eastern secsettlement, Miss Forman has accom-lef work she boasts of is her Sunday school class, with a membership of 150. "When these children first ship of 150. "When the ship o banquets, and encourage them in every way we can.' Hold Baby Clinics.

"In the mission we also hold a baby clinic once a week, which is very es-sential, as only one-half of the children, born to these new Canadian parents live, which is due chiefly to improper feeding." "The girls marry to know how to care for children prop-erly, and we impress upon them the great folly of early marriages."

Miss Forman stated that she did not ried, which she declared frequently arose out of unhappy marriages, of the two evils she preferred the former. "All the leading men of Regina are interested in our boys' and girls' clubs, and receive their supportion all oc-casions," stated Miss Forman.

Teaches Cullnary Arts.
The mission also possesses a kitchen The mission also possesses a kitchen class, at which the women are taught the art of Canadian cooking; a mission band with a membership of 40 members, and classes in which lectures are given to explain everything pertaining to household problems, political questions, legal questions and anything in Canadian life that is not quite clear to these new Canadians.

Atkins.

From vegetables to embroidered smocks, the country store is a place of interesting surprises and queer hobobings, presided over by Mrs. Childs and Mrs. Treleaven.

Home cooking to make the mouth water, side by side with flowers and candies, makes its bow under the chaperonage of Mrs. Coombs and Mrs.

with the Woman's Missionary Society, where they also rub elbows with pow-in order that strangers may become acquainted and brought into the Exquisite materials and beautiful

London conference branch, gave a re-port on the board meeting, and stated shop. that the missionary society in Canada "Or "One woman's white elephant is not the field twenty missionaries in the field twenty missionaries i

Reports were given from the mission bands and their great importance; and Mrs. Gloyne, representing talk on the mission bands and their great importance; and Mrs. Sparling of the, First Methodist Church, spoke on the mission study book.

The afternoon session closed with an interesting little play given by the Ridout Street Mission Pand.

A source of delight to grownup children as well as little people, and a more substantial meal from 6 to 8 o'clock, in charge of Miss Connie Masuret, Miss Babs Chisholm, Mr. Allan Murray, Mr. Ross Childs.

A feature attracting special attention is the art gallery of surprises, in charge of two small boys.

Wednesday evening the men of the church are attending in a body for supper at 7 o'clock, and the R. C. R. Band will be in attendance. The proceeds of the bazaar, which are attendance or delight to grownup children as well as little people, at a delightful little tea on Tuesday afternoon. Among those present were, Miss Connie Masuret, Miss Babs Chisholm, Mr. Allan Murray, Mr. Tennant and Mr. Allan Plunkett.

Mrs. Sidney Slingerland entertained a number of the cast of Biff, Bing, Bang afternoon. Among those present were, Miss Connie Masuret, Miss Babs Chisholm, Mr. Allan Murray, Mr. Tennant and Mr. Allan Plunkett.

Mrs. Sidney Slingerland entertained and the relief of hiccoughs.

A POOR STRETCHER BEARER.

For Chilbiains—Get 1/4 lb. of sal ammonia, dissolve in a pint of hot water. While warm bathe the affected parts. Do this for exert at a delightful Halloween party on Monday evening in honor of the popular yound.

Thanksgiving Special

$7.50

materials in these hats, which are patterned on the newest ideas of

CORSAGE BOUQUETS $1.50 to $4.50

We have just received by express from Paris, 360 Corsage Bouquets, boxed individually, Bouquets, boxed individually, which are especially interesting at this time of the year, as they give furs that little bright touch ich seems so necessary. tic hand work in this direction, this shipment is fully up usual high standard.

RYAN HAT SHOPS

260 DUNDAS STREET.

Scene of Charm Is Big Bazaar

Opened by Rev. G. Q. Warner.

Imagine a private view of the show-rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, filled to overflowing with the delightful things that one dreams about for Christ-mas, and you get some idea of the in-terest and charm of the mammoth ba...aar of Women's Aid Association of the Cronyn Memorial Church (assisted by all the other women's societies), which was formally opened at a quarter to three o'clock on Tuesday afternoon by the rector, Rev. G. Quintin Warner. Of course everybody takes it for granted that the Santa Clauses are supreme artists, hence the foregone concharge of a mission in the eastern sec-tion of Regina, known as the foreign actilement Miss Forman has accom-the Cronyn Memorial Parish Hall, is a thing of beauty and fascination in it plished wonderful things while working with these "New Canadians," as mart of industry. Lest the visitor she terms them. Her mission members include people of every nationallity of Europe. found, good generalship has marshalled all into order in departments or booths come to the mission they know nothing rangement to their majesties, the of the Bible, but are eager to learn all it contains," stated Miss Forman.

"We give them picnics, parties and Boughner and Mrs. Jewell are the fairy Boughner and Mrs. Jewell are the fairy godmothers presiding over fascinating sweaters, hoods, beruffled and "just plain becoming," exquisite handmade garments, and every conceivable con-ceit that a fastidious baby might rents live, which is due chiefly to proper feeding." "The girls marry young that it is impossible for them work which incloses the children's department in charge of Mrs. Whetter and the control of her and head. A transformette or long waved piece of hair, also waved, is attached near the top of the head, and follows the partment in charge of Mrs. Whetter and line of hair backward. It is fastened at Mrs. Orr. Dresses are to be found the nape of the neck. The hair is left there, pyjamas, sweaters, all sorts of free over the ears. Then at the nape approve of divorce, but as there was dubbed their nook the Kitchen Booth, with waved hair like a roll. ing together of persons not legally marof wares calculated to satisfy the de-mands of "the compleat housekeeper." Specially worthy of note are dainty sash curtains all ready on their rods to be put up at a moment's notice. Every kind of apron ever heard of seems to have been collected for the array in charge of Mrs. Anstie and Mrs.

in Canadian life that is not quite clear to these new Canadians.

Mrs. John Cottam, later in the after-Mrs. John Cottam, later in the atternoon, spoke on the great necessity of a strangers' secretary in connection association the things that men especially want, bedroom slippers, pyjamas, with the Woman's Missionary Society, where they also rub ellows with row.

Miss Jean Maitland left Saturday for Erie, Pa., where she will spend will be in attendance. The proceeds of the bazaar, which owes much to the general convenership of Mrs. Charles Keene, gresident of the Women's Ald Association, will be devoted to the fund for the renovation of the church. for the renovation of the church.

It was decided that in the future the annual convention would be held maset date, which would be fixed master date.

MAKES A RETURN VISIT. Dear Friends of the Mail-Box,-again, and the October sun is bright on the hills of home I know, and on the red-gold autumn leaves, but Heart of the Night Wind is far from the old home ways, and longs to see again the moon rise o'er the tall pine tree and hear the gold leaves rustle low on the sen-gold leaves rustle low on the sentinel poplars at the gate.

A year has slipped away since last I greeted you, and since then Heart of the Night Wind moved to a new camping grounds, where the grass was growing green in the springtime, and so, missing remembered paths and friendly faces, I bered paths and friendly faces, I come to you again with the same old song on my lips, but tuned to a sadder key, and if you have listened well when the winds held sway in the treetops and the moon was weaving silver fretwork at your feet, you'd catch the new wistful note of yearning for the hours that are mine no more, for my gypsy heart would always have just what was beyong my grasp. Yet alien though these scenes may be, still autumn ways are almay be, still autumn ways are alwass fair, and I can see to the westward against a background of scarlet and golden-brown woods two country churches lifting their heads heaven ward; half close my eyes and they could well be two old-world castles nestling some-where in the land beyond the sea, and you're back again to the days of plumed knights and prancing charges, and a dimpled face at the not stay away so long next time, as we all enjoy your letters very much.

The winter months are coming. Why not get in touch with the La Salle Extension University IMPERIAL BANK CHAMBERS.

JUST SIT STILL And Let Us Do the Work While You Listen to the Music. STARR (GENNETT)

RECORDS, 65c Wendell Holmes, Limited "The Convenient Bookshop," Opp. Advertiser. Phone 300. Fashion's Latest in Hair Dress! Try Them Out

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Here are the very latest fashions in hair dressing.
"The Debutante," for girls and young women under twenty-three, the Indian Circlet for whatever age has the right contour of neck and head.

necessaries for the older small folks. of the neck is fastened a "cage" of net and hair. This is completely covered

The Indian Circlet is one of the love-liest Nestle fashions. The circlet of hair is partly braided and fastened behind one ear and brought across the forehead, the hair having been waved

Mrs. William G. Boug is in Toronto guest of her sister, Mrs. Lillian, E. H. McDonald.

Master Alfred and Leonard Kemp, Grosvenor street, were the small hosts of a Halloween masquerade on Satur day evening.

the winter, the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. I. Millard.

by the executive.

Reports Board Meeting.

Mrs. Gordon Wright, president of the London conference branch, gave a respect to the later one suggestions in her irresistible gift.

Wind do you lack in the way of gifts? What do you lack in the way of gifts? The evening was spent in playing many Halloween games and later in the evening a dainty supper was served.

kitchen utensils. The house was prettily decorated in the Halloween colors.

In honor of Miss Bertha Hodge, former well-known London girl, who is former well-known London girl, who is returning shortly to mission work in China, Mrs. Jared Vining Monday afternoon entertained the present and past executives of the London Presbyterlal Women's Society and representatives of the city auxiliaries. During the progress of the tea on behalf of the city auxiliaries Miss L. M. Fraser, who had taught Miss Hodge when she first attended mission band, presented. first attended mission band, presented her with a purse, containing sufficient funds to purchase a lantern to be used in her work.

Miss Doris Yarker was again a guest of honor Monday evening when a delight-ful supper party was given for her by Mrs. Gordon Hunt at her home in Wellington street. The house was at-tractively decorated with autumn Wellington street. The house was attractively decorated with autumn flowers, the table massed with huge bunches of yellow mums. Among the guests present were, Mrs. John I. A. Hunt, who poured coffee, Miss Eula White in charge of the ices, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Edwards, Mr. Dug. Hunt, Mr. James Cowan, Mr. Redmond Meredith, Dr. John Hunt and Mrs. Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. John Pope.

A most enjoyable evening was spent A most enjoyable evening was spired at the home of Miss Madeline Gough, Port Stanley, on Monday when she en-tertained a number of her friends at a Halloween party. The house was decorated with Halloween colors and decorated with Halloween colors and during the evening dancing and the playing of spooky games were indulged in. Those present were Misses Lena Going, Helen Thorne, F. Taylor, Clara HEART OF THE NIGHT WIND.

It is a long time, Heart of the Night Wind, since we heard from you. Do not stay away so long part time of the Night

Caril, Dannie, Heien Thorne, F. Taylor, Clara
Glover, Nina Morgan, Aleha McKenzie, Alice Hawes, Mrs. Shaw, Irene Catling, not stay away so long part time of Caril, Dannie, I'm Day, Irente Second. Cyril Dennis, Jim Day, Irwin Spearin, Hugh and Fred Jones, Monte Moore, Tirrel Decon, Bill Oliver.

> many a day in the lives of the press women of London was the charming manuscript night party held Saturday evening at the home of Miss Beatrice > Taylor, Flowers and an open fire lent an added touch of hospitality to the rooms, where a cordial welcome awaited the guests from the charming young hortess her mother and sister. Previhostess, her mother and sister. Previous to the reading of unpublished manuscripts by the members, the annual election of officer was held, which resulted in the unanimous choice of Mrs. R. M. Graham as president, though she has deserted the journalistic field recently for service under the Mothers' Allowance Board. Mrs. D. C. McGregor was re-elected vice-president and Mrs. Gordon Hutchinson and Miss Margaret Wade prevailed upon to accept the offices of secretary and treasurer for another year.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

PHONE WANTS SONGS. Dear Miss Grey,-Isn't this lovely weather for October? Your page is very interesting, and more than that, helpful. I am inclosing a few seeds, and would like some in return for them. I got some in the spring, and the Canterbury bells dld not come up, the marigolds were lovely. I wonder if any reader has a few old songs with music that they could spare. My girl is taking lessons, and that seems about all we can afford just now. I will leave my address with Miss Grey, in case someone has them. I have slips I could send in return, if the party who sends would care for them. PHONE.
I am mailing you a few packages of seeds, which I think will suit you. I thank you for sending us the seeds which grew from Mail-Box stock.

A Smart and Popular Pattern 3686 was used to make this stylish "One-Piece" Dress. It is cut n 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches. bust measure. quire 4% yards of 42-inch material. For panel, collar and cuffs of contrasting material 1% yards are required. Checked or plaid suiting would be at-tractive for this style with facings of plain material in a matched shade. is good for gingham, linen, serge, taffe-ta, tricotine, Canton crepe, and broadcloth. The width of the skirt at the foot is 2¼ yards.

A pattern of this illustration mailed One of the most interesting events in to any address on receipt of 15c in many a day in the lives of the press silver or stamps.

heated up each day. Also good for broken chilblains. For Hiccoughs—Place a piece of cotton batting in both ears, securely a great help.

closing them. Then take a good of water till it takes your

Dear Miss Grey,-I have found use for the seed envelopes sent in mistake by Wife. Under separate cover I am mailing you 65 envelopes of pink aster seeds. Last spring I got one package of this same variety from the Mall-Box, and now I have 65, so you see they really originated from your Mail-Box.

Hoping that you get good sale for these seeds, as they are lovely flowers, I am, yours as ever, GLEAMS OF SUNSHINE.

RECEIVED NO ANSWERS.

It is only a short time since my last appearance, but I did not receive any reply to my request for peren-nial phlox and larkspur also a day Illy, so thought I would write again.

have quite a large lawn, and am anxious to get a few perennials in this fall, the value of the bulbs or roots to go toward the S. C. H. F. I will pay all postage. My address is with Cynthia Grey. I have excellent luck growing Boston ferns.

If any of the Boxites would care to one I purchased two years ago; it had thirteen leaves, and now has about one hundred and fifty.

LAUGHING LIZZ. You might write again, Laughing Lizz, and tell us how you care for your Boston ferns, as I am quite sure that all the flower lovers will be interested. I have kept your name on file, in case it is asked for by someone wishing to bear Miss Grey,—I have been a keen reader of your splendld pages for some years, and, of course, am going to bother you for something. I have two little twins, a boy and a girl, of 6 years, real fine little tots, going to school. Of course, we tots, going to school. Of course, we are in great need of your stocking-foot pattern for the children. I also noticed Aunt Rose sent in lots of nice seeds, so dear Miss Grey, kindly send me as many kinds as you see fit, for I mean to have a nice garden next year. By the way,

HAS TWIN BOYS.

I have a whole lot of red, orange, yellow and white dahlla roots, that I would like to exchange for some different colors, perennials, phlox roots. Wishing the Mail-Box and Miss Grey every success. Please find mite. THE TWINS.

Dear Miss Grey,-I have been a how to care for them, I would

Dear Cynthia and Mail-Boxites,- after the banquet was well under way.

Mr. Somerville rose from his place near the head of the table and the opponents shook hands most cordially, the Harmony Trio, which was providing the musical numbers for the entertainment, striking up the old refrain, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." Hearty hand-clapping from both city electors and the women visitors greeted the evidence of good-will and good sportsmanship.

Mr. Somerville and Mr. White each

I rushed down the corridor, I couldn't face myself face my maid. I couldn't face myself in my mirror. I was overcome with disgust. Not a living soul could I face until I had recovered my poise. I turned from the stale air of the studio into the court where the motors were parked. I stepped onto the platform—and looked squrely into Dick Barnes' eyes.

He must have seen that I was flushed and ready to weep. He blushed violents Mr. Somerville and Mr. White each

CITY BANQUETS

WOMEN GUESTS

Friendly Meeting of Election Opponents.

The big banquet which filled McCor-nick Hall to its capacity at 6 o'clock

Tuesday evening was the tribute of the City of London to welcome gave brief and strictly non-political ad-dresses, the former touching upon the supreme duty of the hour devolving upon all citizens to aid in the national task of reconstruction, bringing the Cana-dian dollar back to 100 cents value, making the credit of Canada good. What we need," said Mr. Somerville, is one hundred per cent efficiency in the work of men and women, in household work as well as elsewhere; economy personal, municipal and national. It strikes me that the sphere of women today is in adapting herself to many

Mr. White touched upon the modern breath away.

Thank you for sending this help to ur readers, and if the cures are as conveniences, telephone, rural mail delivery, automobile, gasoline engines and the introduction of hydro-electric, which effective as you say they will indeed be are making country life more efficient and more attractive to the young people. Mrs. Sutherland Ross, a vice-president of the Dominion Federation of Women's Institutes, expressed the thanks of the delegates for the hospitality extended by the city, the Women's Caradian Club

Guest, Toronto; Dr. Annie Ross, Guelph; Dr. A. Backus, Alymer; Mrs. W. T. Mead, Chatham; Mrs. Sutherland Ross, Embro; Col. C. M. R. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Somerville, Col. W. J. Brown, Dr. H. W. Hill, Miss May Wilson, Miss Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, Mr. Branch, Miss S. Blackburn, Mrs. E. T. White, Mrs. H. Coleman, Mrs. Greenslade, Mrs. Jared Vining, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. John Stevely, Miss Yates, Miss Weir, Mrs. A. T. Edwards, Mrs. C. Cowley, Mrs. Frank Lawson, Mr. Frank McCormick, Mrs. Sherwood

Previous to the banquet, the Women's Institute visitors found a tour through the "white factory" most interesting, Mr. Frank McCormick presenting each guest with a favor, a ribbon-trimmed box, which suggested tempting things PRELITT-MANNING. On Oct. 20th at Zion Tabernacle Hamilton, a quiet wedding took place when Gertrude Annetta, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Manning of London was married to Mr. Herman Fred Prelitt, only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Prelitt of Hamilton.

HUBER-BOHNERT

A very interesting marriage took place at St. Mary's Church, Formosa, on Oct. 25th, when Miss Olivia Bohnert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bohnert of Culcross Township, was married to Mr. Seraphine Huber of Deemerton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Brohman in the presence of many of the friends of the bride and groom. The bride looked charming in a dress of navy blue parletta silk, with hat to match Miss Fortney of Guelph, cousin of the groom, was bridesmaid, and was gowned in copenhagen blue habutai silk, with The stocking-foot pattern has been forwarded for the twins, and several packets of seeds for your garden. I will Friends were present from Kitchener, Guelph, Hanover and Deemerton. The young couple will reside on the groom's farm, south of Mildmay. keep your name on file in case anyone should care to exchange roots with

Confessions of a Movie Star CHAPTER 10.-A KISS THE CENSOR CUT

NEVER shall know what possessed Institute Delegates Witness I "reconciliation and embrace" in the fade-out of "Love in Leash." But I remember that I saw Dick watching us, and that on an impurse I may be a seen to be in the fade-out of "Love in Leash." But I remember that I saw Dick watching us, and that on an impurse I may be a seen to be seen to be a me when Cissy and I went on for

"Make it the real thing this time, Cyrus if you want to. Let's put it over—and make no end of the criti-went back to my dressing-room. More-honored guests, the officers and delehonored guests, the officers and delegates attending the seventh annual convention of the Women's Institutes of Western Ontario. Asked by the city to

F. E. Leonard, the president, saying a few cordial words of greeting. In the absence of Mayor E. S. Little, Lieut.—Col. C. M. R. Graham, an old friend of the institutes, acted as chairman.

By special invitation, both the Government and Liberal candidates for London in the election were present accompanied by their wives. An incident of great interest and significance, in view of the campaign in progress, followed the arrival of Mr. Frank White after the banquet was well under way.

I rushed down the corridor, I couldn't I was giad Cyrus had reformed. It and ready to weep. He blushed violently, raised his hat, started to speak im-hated him for his power over member that I saw Dick watering us, and that on an impurse I murmured to ten minutes."

"You're a sport, May! I only hope you some in order to be fascinating." I couldn't help comparing Dick and act as hostesses, the members of the executive of the Women's Canadian Club graciously played their part, Mrs.

F. E. Leonard, the president, saying a F. E. Leonard, the president, saying a reasonable that good reason.

The minute the cameras stopped, I was pleased and sorry at the same time. There was, I had to admit, an embarrassing little thrill in Cissy Sheldon's Cyrus—so I called him because it's his

A committee was formed on Tuesday afternoon to arrange for the placing of popples on the graves of the soldiers of popples on the graves of the soldiers of the soldiers of the graves have been decorated by this Chapter on Ypres Day, afternoon to arrange for the placing but this has been changed to Armistice Day this year. The meeting was held on Armistice Day, at the meeting of the C. E. F. Chapter, I. O. D. E. The committee choosen was, the Regent, discussion tea was served by Mrs. Mrs. W. G. Coles, Mrs. Wyatt, Mrs. A. decorated with flowers, was presided and the contribution of the musicians.

Mr. G. A. Putman, superintendent of Ontario Women's Institutes, spoke briefly.

The long tables, laid for reveal has a convention at the convention at the province was vividity told to the Women and a laid for reveal has a convention at the convention at the convention at the convention at the convention and the Western Ontario of the works done by the Northern Onta briefly.

The long tables, laid for several hundred guests, were beautifully decorated with cosmos and other autumn flowers. A Halloween touch was given by the lamp shades adorned with witches riding brooms. Seated at the head table were Mrs. F. E. Leonard, Mrs. George Edwards, Mr. Putman, Mrs. Todd, Dominion president; Mrs. J. Patterson, Miss Guest, Toronto; Dr. Annie Ross, Guelph:

province was vividly told to the Womanda and a bit of fine wool rag weaving, and a bit of fine wool rag weaving, and a bit of fine wool rag weaving, and a bit of fine wool rag weaving. Street of Toronto, a demonstrator for the department. Following a demonstration tour through Muslooka, Nippising and Parry Sound districts last summer, on request of Superintendent G. A. Dear Miss Grey.—In answer to Twice Eight's letter re cure for chilblains, having suffered mystf from same, after trying all kinds of sa-called cures, I was given an old

"Some of the women motored 60 miles to attend," said Mrs. Greer, "bringing with them samples of their institute work, weaving quilts, comforters, rag rugs, work done in the sewing classes. The north women are wonderful. Some walk five miles to attend their meetvery much need the classes in home nursing and first aid. Think what it

WOMEN ARE GREAT | would mean to have someone in the family break a wrist if the nearest doc-IN NORTH LAND!

The story of what Women's Institute

Institute of the word of the story of what Women's Institute of the Western Ontario convention samples sa-called cures, I was given an old recipe, which proved successful. It consists of equal parts of linseed oil and limewater, rubbing gently on affected parts. ENGLISH LASS. It is very good of you to pass on your remedy for chibains, English Lass, to help those who are suffering from

All the delicious aroma and flavor are retained in air-tight tins of

Rideau Hall Coffee

NOTHING ADDED NOTHING TAKEN AWAY SOLD IN TINS ONLY-BY ALL GOOD GROCERS

GALLI-CURCI USES THE STEINWAY PIANO

Grand Opera House Tomorrow Night.

Exclusively

Ready for the Chilly Days?

Are you ready for the germs? Preparedness for sudden changes of weather calls for food that gives warmth and strength to the body.

Shredded Wheat

With HOT Milk

Makes rich, red blood and healthy tissue and gives that "comfy feeling" that fits you for the day's work in all sorts of weather. A nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of a few cents. It is ready-cooked and ready-

MADE IN CANADA

