Berlin, Dec. 22.—George Tchitcherin, the Russian Soviet foreign minister, who is on his way to Moscow, discussed political topics yesterday with the correspondents, and made his cusmary criticism of the league of nations as "an organization for intrigues and machinations between govern-oviet's readiness to negotiate with the United States on all disputed points, including the Kerensky government oan, and declared that Great Britain's entinued hostility was Russia's greatest obstacle in foreign relations. "We cannot make fresh proposals to Great Britain," he went on, "unless the British government says which points o the agreement reached with the Mac-Donald government are unacceptable.

We desire a settlement, but realize that Great Britain does not."

He insisted that the Locarno treaty rather than better, as it "increased Great Britain's sphere of action and hereby enlarged the area of friction. A. G. SUTHERLAND BURIED.
