In a letter on "Canada and Land Settlement," published by the Morning Poet, Sir Geo. McLaren Brown, European manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, says that the agricultural salvation of Western Canada lies in mixed farming, which calls for smaller and more numerous agricultural holdings than wheat growing does, and results in closer settlement and better communication. The bigger and more densely settled the rural population, the more social amenities there are and greater advantages generally, he says.

Councils viz.: Matapedia Council, Restigouche County Council and Bonaventure County Council and Bonaventure County Council would nook into this matter with a view to providing an interprovincial bridge at Runnymede The cost would not be a tenth of the cost of a bridge between Cross Point and Campbellton, though the Restigouche scheme should not prejudice at all the Cross Point proposals.

Yours truly.
