or the United States.
 Change of Address. When ordering change of address, both old and new addresses should be given. Notice should be entione week before change is to take effect.
 To Discontinue. The MONITOR will not be discontinued to any subscriber's address until a request is made, and arrears, if any, are paid in full at the rate of $1.60 per year. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10.h 1902.

Che Weekly Monitor,

ISSUED ON WEDNESDAY,

At Bridgetown, Annapolis Co, N. S.

M. K. PIPER. Proprietor and Publisher

Terms $1.50 per year; allowed at $1.00 if paid strictly in advance.

Postage-Prepaid to any address in Canada or the United States.

-The coal strike has existed for -A suicide by drowning occurred Monday night, when an unknown young man leaped from the rail of the ferry steamer crossing from Halifax to Dartmouth. eighteen weeks and still continues without promise of any early ending of the contest. Governor Stone has been requested to call an extra session of the legislature for the purpose

sion of the legislature for the purpose of framing a law which will bring the present dead-lock to a close, and he has agreed that if a bill can be framed to have the desired effect he will im-

WEEKLY MONITOR.

Local and Special News.

-Halifax exhibition opens today.

-Call and see J. W. Beckwith's 18c and 30c. dress cloths for fall and winter wear.

-Mr. J. E. Lloyd has purchased the goodwill and stock of Messrs. Beeler & Peters', grocers.

-H. Pineo will not be at his office

-The town water is to be shut off in all cases where payment therefor is not promptly made. The collector will call once. F. L. MILNER, Town Clerk mediately convene legislature. Public sympathy generally is with the mine owners who decline to arbitrate with an organization which they assume is supported on principles contrary to individual freedom, and whose leaders -The death of Mrs. Isaac Moore are tyrants, holding in subjection the occurred on Sunday last at her home in Brooklyn, this county, after an ill-ness of only a few days. The inter-ment took place yesterday at the Pine Grove cemetery. people they profess to defend. Mr.

Abram S. Hewitt, when interviewed on the subject recently, declared his nviction that appropriate legislation -For the Nova Scotia Provincial is the only remedy. He says: "It would be far better to abandon

--ror the Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition at Halifax the Dominion Atlantic Railway will issue excursion return tickets from all stations at very low fares from Sept. 20th. good to return until Sept. 20th. the business of mining anthracite coal the business of mining anthracite coal than to concede the demand for any man or set of men to deny the rights of employment and labor upon which the whole structure of free government is founded, and to which this country owes phenomenal progress. In my judgment, therefore, the operators are only doing their plain duty in declin-ing to arbitrate a question which is -The members of the W. M. A. S. -The members of the W. m. A. S. in connection with the Baptist church intend having an ice cream social on the grounds of Mr. J. E. Lloyd, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 7.30. Proceeds for missionary pur. ing to arbitrate a question which is n the domain of conscience and in-

-Truro News: Miss Ida Bishop, one volves the personal liberty of the in-

-Truro News: Miss Ida Bishop, one of our successful teachers, and who has been at work in Annapolis county for some time, is heartily welcomed back to .Truro. She has been added to the efficient staff of our town "The only solution of the grouble is for Mr. Mitchell to order the strike off without delay. When this is done, if there be grievances to be arbitrated if there be grievances to be arbitrated they will be promptly adjusted between local operators and local unions. The teachers. -As last year, the Nova Scotia Farmers' Association will furnish a room at the Provincial Exhibition, where writing material, etc., can be found and all exhibitors or those inright of right of association is not in ques-tion. This is admitted by both em' ployers and employes. What is danied, and properly so, is the power by the issue of union cards to refuse employ-ment to non-union men and thus conterested in agriculture, are cordially invited to make use of it, to rest, demn them to ostracism, starvation and death. Such a result is abhorrent to justice and is fatal to personal write or meet in. NOTICE.—On and after Saturday, 27th inst., the Bank of Nova Scotia, Bridgetown, will close at 12 o'clock, noon, on Saturdays, instead of at 1 o'clock as heretofore.

"There is a principle more import-ant than the obligation of private property to subordinate itself to the general welfare. The demand of any J. IMRIE, Manager. Bridgetown, Sept. 3rd, 1902. NOTICE.-On and after Saturday. 27th inst., the Union Bank of Halifax, man or set of men, not occupying public office, to decide upon the con-ditions upon which labor shall seek its living and to make it subject to a Bridgetown, will close on Saturdays at 12 o'clock, noon, instead of at 1 o'clock as heretofore. J. D. LEAVITT, Manager. Bridgetown, Sept. 3rd, 1902. license from irresponsible leaders, whether representing capital or labor, is in effect a claim to the power of life and death, and can never be con-

-F. C. D. Bristowe, formerly organ-ist of St. James' Church here, is now organist in St. James' church at Or-illa, Ont. A few ecenings ago, assist-ed by Edward Barton, late basso solo-iet of the American State St ed without a base surrender of duty to greed The coal operators, therefore, are not fighting so much for the con their own property as for the right the citizen to labor where he may ind employment, without interfere from organizations or men who have no right to control his free ing a short vacation in Wolfville.

Miss Mary A. Blood and Miss Minnie Marshall return to Lynn today.
Mrs. Agnes Murdoch, who has been spending several weeks in Montreal, has returned home.
Miss Jessie Beckwith returns to Halifax Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Taylor of Halifax
dent, Mr. W. E. Armstrong, who also gave a review of the year's work. An Burgins, his subject being "The S. S. teacher as a Soul Winner." Field Secretary Muirhead followed with a practical and helpful address upon "Individual work for Individuals."
On Wednesday morning the praise service was followed by reports of district presidents which were on the -The Shaw property on Granville street was sold by auction last week, Mr. O. S. Miller becoming the pur-chaser for something over $1850. -The ladies of Tupperville intend holding an ice cream social at the home of Miss Bessie Whitman on the evening of Tucsday, Sept. 16th, from five to nine. Automatic for something over $1000. fax Ladies College this week to com-plete her musical course. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Taylor of Halifax are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ruggles. are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ruggles. Mrs. Melville Johnson, of Macwahoc, is visiting her sister, Miss Lyle Mc Cormick. is visiting her sister, Miss Lyle Mc-Cormick. Cormick.
Mr. Cecil B. Lloyd, of the Union Bank staff, is still suffering from an injured ankle.
Mrs. and Miss Taylor, who have been visiting Mrs. H. kuggles, left for Bed-ford last Thursday.
Mr. Alfred Morse, of North Sydney, is spending his vacation at the homo of his father, Mr. Albert Morse.
Mr. Aubrey Fullerton has retired from the management of the Ladies Magazine, published at Toronto.
Rev. Mr. Harris, rector at Mahone Bay, wife and two children, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lloyd, recently.
"Their Home Study" by C. F. Arm-strong, and "Their Care Between Sun-strong, and "Their Care Between Sun-strong, and "Their Care Between Sun-strong, and "Their Care Between Sun-days" by Rev. T. B. Layton. Each paper was followed by discussion of a vory practical and instructive nature. According to the sceretary's report there are 80 schools in the county, 67 of which reported. Sixty was the largest number previously reported. The 67 are divided as follows: 40 Bap-tist, 15 Methodist, 6 Union, 4 Episco-of these schools are evergreen. The three home departments. There is one eradle roll, 15 schools have separate primary rooms, there are 4 teachers' meetings, and 12 white ribbon armies. Mr. Cecil B. Lloyd, of the Union Town Clerk. greensty, recently,
Mr. W. Welton, of Auburn, Cana-dian Apple Inspector, has been in town a day or two, the guest of Mrs.
John Lockett.
Miss Mary Quirk, who has' been vis-iting friends in Halifax, was a guest last week at the home of Rev. J. J.
Armstrong, Wolfville.
Capt. J. E. Leckie, late of South Africa, and Mr. J. W. S. Bessonet, friends Mr. and Mrs. J. Ervin.
Miss Mary H. Rice, who has been spending the past few weeks with her brother, Edward W. Rice, returned on Friday last to her home in Worcester, Mass.
Halifez Her Ha Govern Article and the second for general work by 33 schools. Already this year $43.90 has been contributed by 42 schools.
The devotional service of the after-noon was led by Rev. H. N. Parry, and was followed by a conference for year day and Friday with their friends Mr. and Mrs. J. Ervin.
Miss Mary H. Rice, who has been spending the past few weeks with her brother, Edward W. Rice, returned on Friday last to her home in Worcester, Mass.
Washier, Halifer, Her Haliffer, Kanger, Ka recently Mass. Halifax Herald: George J. Hoyt of Weymouth is at the Central House. His many friends will regret to learn that he is in ill health and comes to the city for treatment. the city for treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson, and Miss Viola Corbitt, who have been visiting Mr. Wm. Corbitt of South William-ston, returned to their home in Rox-bury, Mass., last Friday. Dr. Anderson leaves for Montreal next Monday to attend the Canadian Dental Association which meets in that Dental Association which meets in that city from the 16th to the 18th inst. The Dr. will be absent one week. Miss Blanche Randolph, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. C. Young, left for Boston on Saturday, en route for her home in Kansas. Miss Randolph was much pleased with her visit in Nova Scotia. Mr. Edwin Ruggles left last week

Mt. Allison Seminary at Sackville,

HYMENBAL.

PHINNEY-RUGGLES.

the coming year.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Miss Lenora- Lloyd is, visiting rela tives in Mahone Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Crowe arrived here last week en route to New. York, but in consequence of the illness of their little son Lawrence, Mrs. Crowe

Mr. Edwin Ruggles left last week on a driving trip through the valley to Halifax. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Bessie, who will remain at Windsor to attend the Edgehill school the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Crowe arrived here last week en route to New. York, power of r be con r di X 1, James' Church here, is now organisti in St. James' Church here, is now illa, Ont. A tew exemines ago, assist-fore, are ed by Edward Barton, late basso solotist of the American church, Paris, France, he gave an organ recital at the church, which was very highly appreciated by a large and fashionable who have edimee.
 * *
 * *

FELT Opening and Selling fast -AT-There is work for the Maritime-trained ALL THE TIME. St. John, St. John, Sydney, Pictou, Windsor, Sydney, Halifax, Halifax, Chartered Accountants. -AND-LOADED SHELLS WINDOW GLASS TARRED PAPER. BUSH SCYTHES, and other goods.

2 young men, 2 young men, 2 young men, 1 young man, 1 young man, 1 young man, 1 young lady, 6 young ladies Halifax, N. S, - ON-majority sustaining the action of the directors, amalgamation with the Union Bank has become a certainty. The shareholders of the Commercial receive 100 per cent for their shares in Union Bank stock. "The consequences of such strikes are so disastrous not merely to the par-ties concerned, but to the whole com-munity, that every effort should be nade as soon as the existing strike has been called off and the excitement is abated, to prevent by appropriate legislation the recurrence of such calamitous conflicts whereby every-body is injured and no one is bene--Frost made its first appearance fisted.

"The enactment of such legislation will not be attended with more diffi-culty than in the case of other dis-putes now regulated by law and subject to the adjudication of the courts, when the miners shall realize that they are making war upon their own rights secured by centuries of conflicts and sacrifices and that a present victory will result in depriving them of all personal freedom. Such disastrous conflicts will cease to recur and arbis tration may then well be invoked to settle local disputes. "The hope of the working classes in the future as in the past, for better ect to the adjudication of the courts

the future as in the past, for better the future as in the past, for better conditions, rests upon personal liberty and the security of property. The English-speaking miners understand this proposition perfectly well, but for the time being they are powerless in the presence of bad leadership and the state of terror which prevails in the coal region, subjecting them to oblo-quy, violence and death, by which un-willing acquiescence is enforced.

"What is wanted to end this de-what is wanted to end this de structive conflict is not arbitration, but the stern repression of violence and the assured protection of the miners who desire to earn a livelihood for themselves and their families. "To this protection they are en-titled and the overspment which faile titled, and the government which fails to afford it is a reproach to republi-"The demand for arbitration con with an ill-grace from a leader who began the conflict with an order calling on the engineers, firemen and pump men to abandon their task, thus ex-posing the mines to utter ruin. If this order had been observed the re-sumption of work would have been sumption of this desperate expedient re-indefinitely postponed and the helpless duced to hopeless poverty. To rule or ruin is not a policy which com-mends itself to the American people who l'effisive in the old-fashionest rule that he who downeds county must -A serious driving accident victims of this desperate expedient re-indefinitely postponed and the helpless duced to hopeless poverty. To rule or ruin is not a policy which com-mends itself to the American people who believe in the old-fashioned rule that he who demands equity must first de equity."

—The termination of the war in South Africa has not been followed by that degree of amicability and good will which was hoped for. The loyalists are bitterly aroused over the
—A serious driving accident took place last evening on Young's Moan-tisle, while driving down the mountain on her return from the Young's Cove tea-meeting was thrown from her waggon and sustained serious injuries by cuts and bruises, besides a severe nervous shock. A team behind at-tempted to pass hers, causing her horse to sheer quickly to one side, overturning the waggon. Her com-panion, a lady, escaped unhurt. Dr. deBlois was summoned to attend Mrs. loyalists are bitterly aroused over the concessions granted to the whilom foe and are demanding that the constitu-tion of the colony shall be suspended. Mr. Chamberlain has promptly decided against such a measure. His policy is to assume honorable intentions on the part of the late Boer belligerents, and to avoid any measures which would tend to create hostile feelings. In this, policy he is supported by all temperate thinkers, but the view of the loyalists is that while the rebels have been pardoned and granted fav-ors on every hand, the services of the faithful have gone unrewarded. The complainants are in the position of the elder brother of the "prodigal son." It is not always easy to accept the old saw that "virtue is its own reward." loyalists are bitterly aroused over the Bent.

Thursday. Two charges were preferry and the drive over the mount and the delicious ediles provide for the county of Annapolis, in 1899, and the other for committing at the same time an aggravated assault upon Constable Wright, being the assault upon Constable Wright, and the drive over the mount of this statigable efforts of the rector, Rev. The society was to lose one of its chief at law ere bounteously fed and the rector, Rev. The society was to lose one of the stating for the prosecution, for the access. The accused was committed for trial in both cases.

 Frost made its first appearance here on Saturday night, damaging corn and some other crops. Though its visit was unlooked for at so early a date, localities of a warmer climate appear to have suffered more severely. A despatch from New York reports tomatoes frozen and other vegetables and buckwheat damaged.
 Mr. J. J. Ritchie, K. C., will be detained in Halifax by legal business until Saturday the 4th of October. On that day he will return to Annapolis. In the meantime his office at Annapolis will be open and the business communications addressed to Mr. Ritchie either at Annapolis or Halifax will receive prompt attention. The marriage of Mrs. Emily Ruggles of Oak Farm, Paradise, to Mr. J. Carey Phinney also of Paradise, took place last Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, a. m., at the home bride, the Rev. E. L. Steeves ing. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present. The bride was becomwere present. The bride was becom-ingly gowned in a travelling suit of fawn ladies cloth, with chiffon trim-med hat to match. After the ceremony the happy couple left on a driving trip througn the valley, visiting Kent-ville and other places, returning home on Monday. They will be at home to their friends on the evenings of the 23rd and 24th inct receive prompt attention. -Yarmouth Times: The remains of Mrs. Annie P., wite of F. L. Murphy, a former resident of Brooklyn, Yar-mouth Co., arrived from Boston on Monday morning and were conveyed to Wilmot, Annapolis county, for in-terment. The deceased ladv died of gastritis at Everett, on Friday, after a short illness. A few days ago she did considerable washing and while heated took a cold bath which was really the cause of her death. She was a daughter of the lato George Moir, of Wilmot, and leaves a husband and five children. -The officers and soldiers of the An elaborate home wedding too place on Tuesday evening, Sept. 9th, at the residence of Mr. Jas. Marshall Clarence, when his youngest daughter Ethel, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Orrien Barker, of Hyde Park Mass. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. E. Daley in the pres-ence of a large number of relatives and friends. The parlor was very tastefully decorated with plants, flowers and evergreen. Among the decora-tions were the American and British flags prettilv arranged. The bride was charmingly attired in white silk on trians with build woild. and five children. —The officers and soldiers of the local corps of the Salvation Army are certainly pushing their Harvest Festi-val with commendable enterprise. They

23rd and 24th inst. BARKER-MARSHALL.

The bride was charmingly attread in white silk en traine, with bridal vail and bouquet of white carnations. The bride was attended by two little rib-bon girls, the Misses Stella Foster and Mabel Marshall, who were also gowned in white. After the ceremony and congratula-tions a dainty luncheon was served. are busy collecting vegetables, grocer-ies, etc., which they will sell for the benefit of the Army work, in the bar-racks on Thursday, 18th inst. The amount which the local corps aims to raise is $45.00. We wish them success. The officer in charge, F. G. White, is busy preparing a program for the festival celebration, which promises to be one of exceptional in-terest. tions, a dainty luncheon was serve A pleasing feature of the evening was the music discoursed by the Bridge-town Band the music discoursed by the Bridge-town Band. The many pretty and useful presents show the esteem in which the bride was held. The bride's travelling suit is mauve road-cloth with moire satin trim Mr. and Mrs. Barker leave today for their future home in Hyde Park.

_____ LAWSON-ROGERS. An event of much happiness took place at the residence of Mr. John A place at the residence of Mr. John A. Lawson, of the Post Office Department, this morning at 7 o'clock, when his daughter, Miss Bessie J., was united in the nuptial bonds of matrimony to Mr. D. B. Rogers. late of the firm of W. K. Rogers & Co.

best.

Sub. agents wanted.

Mr. D. B. Rogers, late of the firm of W. K. Rogers & Co. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. F. Fullerton in the presence of a number of friends. The bride was attired in a travelling suit of blue royal broadcloth. The large number of beautiful pres-ents received included a set of furs from the groom and several cheques. After partaking of a sumptuous wedding breakfast the wedding party left by the morning express en route to Brandon, Manitoba, where a worthy position awaits Mr. Rogers. A large number of friends assembled at the station to bid them adieu, and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, parents of the groom, accompanied them to Summerside. At a meeting of the Christian En-deavor of the Zion Church, Monday night, the pastor, Rev. D. B. McLeod, spoke of Mr. Rogers' near departure, and with others regretted that the society was to lose one of its chief members. The society presented Mr. Rogers with a book of poems in re-membrance.—Charlottetown Examiner.