

Local Happenings

The dance given on Monday night in the Court House under the auspices of the Melody Men was largely attended and by all odds the most successful of the season. There were a number present from Middleton, Annapolis and intervening places. The programme included twenty-two dances. It is the intention of the management to put on a dance every week during August, September and October and also to furnish music for one hour previous to regular opening of dance to afford beginners a chance of learning the art.

Roy Calkin, junior member of the firm of T. P. Calkin and Co., Ltd., of Kentville, suffered a double fracture of a leg Monday afternoon at Aylesford, when he fell from the firm's truck on which he had accompanied the driver with a load of merchandise. He was standing on side of the car, and was jolted off backwards. X-Ray examination at the Nova Scotia Sanatorium disclosed two breaks in the femur, and the injury is so serious that Dr. A. S. Burns, who is attending him, ordered his removal to Victoria General Hospital, Halifax.

The tea habit in this country is one of the best habits we have. It's a habit that brings both health and pleasure. And it is not an expensive habit either. With a pound of MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE you can make 240 cups of the most delicious tea that any one ever tasted.

The Rev. Canon Underwood was in Halifax for the week end being the special preacher in All Saints' Cathedral, at his services on Sunday. The services in Bridgetown parish were taken by Mr. W. G. Smith, of Clementsport.

Watch Buckler and Daniels' window for specials during sale. There will be no service in St. James' Church, on Friday evening of this week.

A number of sports from Middleton apparently in a more or less fuddled condition aroused East Granville Street, citizens from slumber on Thursday night last. The number of the car was secured also names of parties but through leniency which will not likely be again extended under similar circumstances no further action was taken. Reiterations of Thursday night proceedings will not likely be tolerated.

The rains during the past week or so have done incalculable good and withered vegetation has been revived and crops have taken a fresh start. The downpours have also relieved in a measure the anxiety felt on account of scarcity in towns water supply.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peters, Mrs. Dora Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Abbott, Mrs. Parker Whitman, Mrs. O. C. Jones, Mr. Henry Wheelock, Mr. E. Balcom, and Mr. Stanley Marshall attended the I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge sessions in Wolfville last week.

Always Kept On Hand Mrs. David Gagne, St. George, Que., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my three little ones and have found them such an excellent medicine that I always keep them on hand and would strongly advise all other mothers to do the same thing."

Obituary

Annie Journeay Payson Mrs. Annie Journeay Payson, widow of the late Walter W. Payson, of Deep Brook died at Weymouth on Friday, July 25th, after an illness of only a week, while visiting her niece Miss Grace Brooks. Mrs. Payson was born in May 1843, one of the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Journeay, of Weymouth. She was married to Mr. Payson in 1870. For many years prior to her death, she has been a resident of Deep Brook, where everyone who knew her regarded her with the highest esteem and warm affection. She was a woman of splendid upright character and sincere Christian faith. The death of Mr. Payson left her a widow in April of a year. There are surviving the following children: L. S. Payson, of West Roxbury, Mass.; W. W. Payson, of Malden, Mass.; Mrs. L. B. Wilson, of Bellevue Falls, F. O. Payson, of East Cleveland, Ohio; R. F. Payson, of Digby; Mrs. Payson's funeral took place on Tuesday July 29th, there being prayers at her late residence, service in St. Mathew's Church, Deep Brook and interment in Forest Hill (Church of England) cemetery in Digby. The services were conducted by her Rector, the Rev. A. W. L. Smith, assisted by her son-in-law, the Rev. A. S. Payzant.

CAIRN UNVEILED ON SITE OF ANNAPOLES FIRST SETTLEMENT

Ceremony Conducted Under Auspices of Annapolis Royal Historical Society—President Cheered ANNAPOLIS ROYAL.—Wednesday afternoon being the town's weekly half-holiday, a great crowd availed themselves of the opportunity of attending the unveiling of the cairn in Lower Granville, under the auspices of the Annapolis Royal Historical Association. The President of the Society, Mrs. J. M. Owen, presided and after a short and impressive speech performed the ceremony of unveiling, saying: "To the immortal memory of those men whose gallant adventure was the seed from which has sprung the mighty maple of the Dominion of Canada, I now unveil this cairn and tablet as marking the site of the first settlement of this country." A wreath of flowers from Fort Anne Chapter of the I. O. O. E. was then attached to the cairn by Miss Charlotte Perkins, Regent of the Chapter, after which Doctor Clarence Webster, of Shediac, N. B., gave an most interesting and instructive address on the work of the Historic Sites and Landmarks Board of Canada, explaining why a cairn had been chosen in preference to another form of memorial, and showing what help these monuments would be to the younger generation in marking scenes of action that would otherwise soon be forgotten. L. M. Fortier, Honorary Superintendent of Fort Anne Park, followed with a particularly appropriate and beautiful poem entitled, "The Order of Good Cheer." Unfortunately some of the essential players in the band were unable to attend, and the selections announced on the programme had to be cancelled. This cairn, which was erected by the Historic Sites and Landmarks Board of Canada, is eleven feet high and made of stones collected from the shore of the nearby Annapolis Basin, with a bronze tablet on front, bearing the following inscription in both French and English:—"Site of the first fort or 'habitation' of Port Royal. Built by the French under deMonts and Champlain, 1605. Attacked and partially destroyed by British force from Virginia, 1613. Restored and occupied by Scottish Colonists, 1629. Laid waste on their retirement from the country, 1629. Home of the 'Order of Good Cheer'. Birthplace of Canadian Literature and Drama." The work of erection was under the supervision of J. H. Byrne, of Ottawa, who also had charge of the improvements in Fort Anne Park. Dr. Webster paid a splendid tribute to the work done by Mrs. Owen, President of the Association, and the assemblage emphasized its approval of his remarks by giving three rousing cheers for her. The two great errors into which a mistaken devotion may betray us are enthusiasm and superstition.—Addison.

Lawrencetown Won Tennis Tourney

Defeated Middleton in Five Out of Eight Events in Matches in the Valley League. LAWRENCETOWN.—Playing the fifth tournament in the Valley League, Lawrencetown Tennis Club won five of eight events played on the courts Saturday, defeating Middleton. Much brilliant playing featured throughout the entire series, the two teams being very evenly matched. Middleton, who had taken a win from Lawrencetown on their home courts were handicapped for regular players. There remains to be played one more league game between Bridgetown and Lawrencetown, which will be played the coming week after which the winner of this section will commence their play-off with the winner of Section C, including Annapolis, Bear River and Digby.

Webster, Middleton, 8-6. Tea was served on the grounds to players and visiting guests by the ladies of the Lawrencetown Tennis Club.

$50 Damages For Window Broken in a Scrap

The case of J. W. Hogg, Proprietor of Hotel Wallace, vs. Duncan Murray and G. Adam Carson, a civil suit for damages for a broken window, was heard in the county court by Judge Patterson this morning. Dr. Murray did not put in a defence and lost by default. After trial the judge gave a decision against Carson for $52 and costs. It is likely that the plaintiff will take out orders against both defendants. This case arose out of a fight between the defendants in Hotel Wallace. Mr. Carson's evidence was to the effect that Dr. Murray had asked him to go into the hotel with him and when they had got there had abused him because Mr. Carson's daughter, the correspondent of the New Glasgow News, had sent in an item about the doctor having been convicted of an assault on Miss Eva Morrison, daughter of Chief of Police Morrison. Mr. Carson said that he had tried to reason with the doctor, but to no purpose. The doctor kept on abusing him and his family and finally he started to withdraw. As he was doing so the doctor hit him suddenly and treacherously. He could not stand this and defended himself with the result that he had finally driven the doctor through the hotel window and knocked him out. The judge agreed that Mr. Carson had simply done what any man of spirit would have done but, under the law, he was compelled to give decision against him for the cost of the broken window. (Pictou Advocate.) Know that really to enjoy pleasures you must know how to leave them.

Laundry dainty things twice as often, this way

It's not necessary to keep your prettiest things folded and laid away. Wear them—often. Launder them just as often as necessary. But do it this way: Use Palmolive PRINCESS SOAP FLAKES—and see fragile crepes, silks, laces, come from laundering absolutely unharmed. Colors brightened and freshened, if anything. The great foam of suds contains nothing to hurt the daintiest fabric, the most delicate coloring. It dissolves the dirt, however, most thoroughly—and washes it away. These snowy, crinkly flakes contain nothing but pure soap. So they go farther, cleanse more efficiently. That makes it economical to use them in the washing machine, for all laundering, and for every general household purpose. If only to try, get some today of your dealer. He has them—in handy one-pound packages.

PALMOLIVE PRINCESS SOAP FLAKES Made in Canada. For finest silks, or coarsest wools.
