

great because they were wise enough to build a wall at the first. Gritty-Sand says the vision Cobden told Cartwheel-Dick that our squaws would grow rich if we protected them! Would you rather have the squaws of the Spread Eagle tribes to grow rich? If we did pay more to our squaws for our baskets, we would still have our money amongst our own people. But we would pay higher at most for but a short time, for basket-making would soon regulate itself, and in the meantime we would have gained the foot path on our road to greatness. Brothers see! I raise my hatchet! I go for building our wall as high as that of the Spread Eagles if it reaches to the summer clouds! And I would fix the gate money so that not only our basket makers but our ploughmen will never suffer more! Look! I smear my face with war paint! I and the warriors of my wigwam are ready at this moment and need but your bidding to snatch the feathers from
