MOTTO FOR THE YEAR: "Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded."

Prayer topic for June. For Miss Clarke, that she may quickly acquire the language, and realize in her new work the abiding presence of our Lord.

For our Associational gatherings, that every session may be for the glory of Christ, and the advancement of His kingdom.

WE REST ON THEE.

2 Chron. xiv. 11.

"We rest on Thee," our Shield and our Defender,
We go not forth alone against the foe;
Strong in Thy strength, and in Thy keeping tender,
"We rest on Thee, and in Thy Name we go."

Yea, "in Thy Name," O Captain of Salvation,
In Thy dear Name, all other names above;
Jesus, our Righteousness, our sure Foundation,
Our Prince of Glory and our King of Love.

"We go," in faith, our own great weakness feeling,
And needing more each day Thy grace to know;
Yet from our hearts a song of triumph pealing;
"We rest on Thee, and in Thy Name we go."

"We rest on Thee," our Shield and our Defender,
Thine is the battle, Thine shall be the praise,
When passing through the gates of peerly splendor,
Victors, we rest with Thee, through endless days.

EDITH GILLING CHERRY.

ABNEGATION OF SELF.

Love took up the harp of life, and smote on all the chords with might;
Smote the chord of Self, that, trembling, passed in music out of sight.

— TRINITY.

Abnegation of self is an indispensable duty on the part of all who are called by the name of Christ, and are seeking success and blessing in Christian life and work. "I am crucified with Christ," says the Apostle Paul, "nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ, liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me." (Gal. ii. 20.) These words indicate a spirit of holy abnegation which ought to permeate and characterize the daily life and work of every child of God. "Know ye not that your body is the temple of
