

A second fact from the same authority :

A person came to him, begging prayers for a dying woman. Her family were engaged in making a Novena in honor of the Most Precious Blood. "Fifteen days later," said the venerable Ecclesiastic, "that woman came to thank me for her perfect cure."—"Give thanks to the Precious Blood," said I, "for, by It, you have been cured."

***

We are informed of the following :

"By the help of the Precious Blood and of Our Lady of the Holy Rosary," writes a woman I have been enabled to place my young daughter, as a boarder, in the Convent of.....

***

"During the month of May, I solicited a Novena in honor of the Precious Blood, promising, that if I obtained a particular favor, to publish it in your Annals, and also to subscribe for that pious Review. With happiness I can say to you to-day : Love and gratitude to the divine Blood that has heard my prayer !"

***

"I have the happiness to acquaint you with the cure of my daughter O. D. who had been troubled with inflammatory rheumatism in the legs, since the beginning of last February. After recommending her to the Precious Blood, and having promised to publish her cure, if granted, in your Annals, I am happy to say that she is now perfectly cured, and resumed her work on the 14th of last July. Since that time, she has not once been sick.

A thousand thanksgivings be rendered to the Precious Blood !"

***

"For several years, I suffered much with epilepsy. Some time ago, I had promised to subscribe to the Voice of the Precious Blood if I should obtain any relief.

Since my promise I feel greatly improved, and now I ask you, in the name of the Blood of Jesus, to help me in thanking that powerful and divine Remedy."