

Fifth King: Tarquinius Priscus.

Handwritten text in Hebrew script, likely a translation of the Latin text for Tarquinius Priscus. It begins with '509' and '578' and contains several lines of text.

Handwritten text in Hebrew script, likely a translation of the Latin text for Tarquinius Priscus. It begins with '509' and '578' and contains several lines of text.

Sixth King: Servius.

Handwritten text in Hebrew script, likely a translation of the Latin text for Servius. It begins with '578' and '509' and contains several lines of text.

Handwritten text in Hebrew script, likely a translation of the Latin text for Servius. It begins with '578' and '509' and contains several lines of text.

Consuls.

Handwritten text in Hebrew script, likely a translation of the Latin text for the Consuls. It begins with '509' and '578' and contains several lines of text.

Seventh King: Tarquinius Superbus.

Handwritten text in Hebrew script, likely a translation of the Latin text for Tarquinius Superbus. It begins with '578' and '509' and contains several lines of text.