CONCERNING the semi-centennial celebration, held last week in Knox Church, Dundas, the Bunner of that town says: Knox Church pastor and people have a long time now looked ferward to the jubilee which came off in the church on Tueslay, 29 hult. Not Presbyterians only, but our citizens of all denominations attended showing the general interest taken in the auspicious event by the townspeople. T. H. McKenzie was charman, and on the flatform were the pastor, Rev. Dr. Laing; Rev. Dr. Reid, of Toronto; Rev. E. C. B. Hallam, pastor of the Biptist Church, and Rev. S. Lyle, B.D., of Hamilton. The choir of the church sang an opening anthem Lean fully, and then Dr. Laing read a short but remarkably comprehensive and interesting paper, giving the history of the Church and going tack seventy five years. Dr. Reid also told stories of olden times in the Province, and particularly in this neighbourhood. Solos were sung by Miss Davies and Professor Johnson, accompanied by Professor Pearce, all of Hamilton. Rev. Messis. Hallam and Lyle, and Missis. Bain and McQueen made remarkably good spee hes, Mr. Ly e paying a graceful tribute to the pas or, Dr. Ling. The entire proceedings were of a very happy nature, an Knox Church, Daudás, certainly now occupies a very enviable position among the Presbyterian Churches of Canada.

The Orillia Times, which, by the way, is brigatened by its appearance in new type, has the following: As an nounced, the Orillia Presbyterian Church held its thirty sixth anniversity on Sunday and Monday last, with a success that was beyond all expectations. On Sunday, the Rev. John Smith, of Totonto, occupied the pulnit both morning and evening, taking the theme of his discourse at the former service from the book of Isaiah, and delivered an impressive sermon on the love of God. A large number were present to hear him, but was considerably increased at the evening service. The rev. gentleman reflected the text, "And the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchantman buying pearls, who when he had foun tone of great prize, sold all that he had and bought it." His remarks were interesting and teleful. On Monday evening, about 500 people gathered in the church—after an excellent tea had been disposed of—to hear a little about church work in general, from several popular preachers, from different parts of the field. The choir furnished some new and beautiful selections in excellent form. Several bright and pithy speeches were made by Rev. Messis. Armsiring, of Orillia; Jones, of Medonte; Gassford, of Wauhaustene; Knox, of Victoria Harbour; Drumm, of Severn Bridge, and the pastor, Mr. Grant. Dr. Gray occupied the chair, and the Rev. Rural Dean 5 ewart, M.A., occupied a s-ar on the patform. The proceeds amounted to over $100, part of which was devoted to the putchase of a set of c ockery for church testival and picine use. We congratulate the managets of the affair upon taving their efforts rewarded by such a brilliant success.
