CATARRH.

A New Home Treatment for the Cure o Catarrin Catarrhal Destaces, and Hay Fover.

The microscope has proved that these distancing itself good the the timely use of remembrane of the upper air passages and out tachian tubes. The eminent scientists—Tyndall, Husley and Bealo—endorse this, and these autorities cannot be disputed. The regular mithod for treating these diseases is to apply and irritant remody weekly and over daily, thus keeping the delicate membrane in a constant stage of irritation, accompanied by violent aneazify, allowing it no chance to head and as a natural consequence of such treatment not one permanent cure has over been recorded—It is an absolute fact that these disacases cannot be ourself by an application made oftener than once in two wooks, for the membrane must get a chance to head before any application is repeated. It is now soven years and since then his remedy has become a household word in overy country where the English and since then his remedy has become a household word in overy country where the English and soven years ago are cures still, there having been no return of the disease. Coughs 26 Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested.

cure of such diseases had been fully tested.
It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no option any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Alley's 1 une Balsem will prerenied, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.
