OUTSIDE DISTURBANCE CHECKS WHAT WOULD BE A BULL MARKET - A PROMINENT HOUSE BULLS DULUTH, DOM. COT. AND ELECTRIC - CONSOLS 1/2 LOWER.

Montreal, Nov. 8.

One of our leading brokers today on being asked to state his impression about the present market said that we are certainly in a bull market, if it could be left alone. Prices now are good, but they would be very much higher but for the derangement of outside affairs caused by the war. My impression, he said, is that in six months prices will have advanced very materially. The present position of the market continues as often before to deepen my conviction that our local market never has had a sufficiently large short interest connected with it. Many abrupt breaks and many days of inactivity would be avoided by stronger short interests and the speculative activity short interests generate would keep high average prices up while allowing of large fluctuations.

Perhaps the most prominent feature in this morning's session was Dominion Cotton's advance some 3 points, on the buying of a prominent house which bought up the stock on comparatively small dealings to 103 1/2. It required a 3 point advance to bring out 100 shares as holders receiving 6 p.c. dividend now for several years, are in no hurry to sell.

The same house was noticeable also in the low priced stock movement and on purchases of 225 shares raised Duluth Common's quotation 1/2 at least to 63. Stock bought by this house may be looked on as having innate merit and its business showing up to date is of a very favorable description. As still higher quotations may be therefore looked for, it may be recommended as a purchase.

Business in Pacific while less than yesterday ran up to a considerable quantity and formed the largest of the fourteen sale items that were transacted.

Royal Electric on three sales at an advance may be said to have gained 1 point on previous price. New stock today sold at virtually former value 100. The old stock showed greater strength at the closing.

On good buying of 200 shares in one lot, a price 1/2 higher was got by Toronto Ry., but it closed weaker. War Eagle and Republic changed hands at the same price. Payne fell off 1 point and Montreal-London on sale of two broken lots, as always happens with broken lots, fell off some two points.

Gas, under a tentative raid from opposing interests, suffered a little depression to 192. At this point there was support and consequently the bearish bid of 191 1/2 was not accepted.

Montreal Telegraph advanced 2 points to 177 Halifax Ry dropped 1/2 and Bank of Montreal selling at 285 1/2 gained 1/2.
