

CHICAGO MARKET.

WHEAT CLOSES PRACTICALLY UN-CHANGED—PROVISIONS QUIET—CORN FIRM.

Chicago, April 10.

A considerable amount of nervousness was exhibited during to-day's trading. The Government report will not be issued until four o'clock, and will, therefore, have an indirect influence only on to-day's trading. Reports are numerous and contradictory, causing sharp rallies and recessions. Should the injury done appear serious, farmers may restrict shipments of wheat. On the other hand, a few warm days may put new life into the plant, change the entire outlook, and start a movement of wheat to market of considerable proportions.

Foreign houses continue to sell on all the strong spot, and have shifted the short interest of March along into July and September deliveries, expecting the new crop prospects to bring down the price eventually.

The early cables were at a discount of ½.
