

A MANLY BOY The Devil... Names

A Series of Talks
And Tales for Boys

BY

REV. LOUIS ALBERT BANKS, D.D.

Author of "Christ and His Friends," "Twentieth Century Knighthood," etc.

Price, 50 cents, Postpaid

THE chapters which make up this book were, all of them, originally delivered in a series of Saturday Morning Talks to a large audience of boys in the Y. M. C. A., of Cleveland, Ohio. "They were prepared," writes the author, "with that bright-faced, sparkling-eyed audience of live boys from twelve to sixteen years of age in mind." Dr. Banks' name is too well-known in Canada to need any word of commendation. We are delighted to have this, his newest book, issue through our presses. Here are some of the topics presented:—Vin—Push—Pluck—Stick-to-it-ive—Grow Fat—A Woodpecker at the Heart—Laugh and tracked—Obedience—Parasites—Politeness—Polish—The Fortress of the Heart—A Boy's Religion: Why? When? Where? How? There are in all 36 topics and 144 pages in this little volume, which every boy should be given the chance to read.

THE many friends of Mr. Lanceley, whose death in the prime of his vigorous manhood came as a shock and a great sorrow wherever he was known, will be glad to know that some of his most popular lectures, and two of his best sermons are to be published in book form at a popular price. His originality, wit and the striking way he had of presenting his thought, gave Mr. Lanceley wide popularity as preacher and lecturer. In his introduction, Dr. Parker writes:—"In him we had found a character of great depth, and a mind of unusual brightness. . . . To be with Mr. Lanceley was like living on the banks of a flowing river clad on both sides with luxuriant foliage. . . . If there is such a thing as genial intuition, intuition inspired by humor, that was one of the highest qualities of the intellectual life of my brilliant and beloved friend."

EXPOSITOR'S BIBLE

Edited by REV. W. ROBERTSON NICOLL, LL.D.

The Old Testament and the New Testament complete in 25 volumes

Large Crown Octavo Volumes, about 860 pages each, aggregating 21,546 pages.

THIS SERIES CONSISTS OF EXPOSITORY LECTURES on all the Books of the Bible, by the foremost preachers and theologians of the day. While having regard to the latest results of scholarship, the volumes are essentially popular and adapted to Bible-class teachers as much as to the clergy.

"The series is planned so as to give the reader all the good of a scientific commentary without the padding, technicality, and detail that have made the Commentator's name a proverb for dreariness in the world of literature. In every book of the Bible the rich, fertile and perpetually significant portions are selected, and continuously analyzed, illustrated and explained by interpreters who are scholarly and yet interesting."—British Weekly.
