tions. The scholarship of the "Collegiate Dictionary" is also shown in the completeness of its etymologies. To the student and the careful user of words these etymologies cannot fail to be of great value.

Pronunciation is indicated by the simple and effective method of respelling with the diacritically marked letters familiar in the school-books of the country.

Other important and instructive features of this appendix are a pronouncing vocabulary of Scripture, Greek and Latin proper names, with modern geographical and biographical names.

As its name indicates, it is especially adapted to the use of college and university students, and is very highly commended by educators of the highest rank.

The Domestic Blunders of Women. By a MERE MAN. 12mo, cloth, 206 pages. New York and London: Funk & Wagnalls Company. Toronto: William Briggs. Price, $1.00.

This clever and humorous book, with its amusing pictures, will not win the suffrages of all its readers. In its pages "A Mere Man" sets forth, among other "blunders of women," "Women's Ignorance of the Value of Money, "The Management of Servants," "The Mis-takes of 'the Missus," "The Manage-ment of Children," "Misuse of Kitchen Utensils," "The Love of Dirt," "The Waste of Food "" "Fooding of Children" Waste of Food," "Feeding of Children, "The Folly of Flowers and Bric-a-Brac," and last, but not least, "Things in General." The men and women who are anxious for an ideal home life, with peace, quietness, and mutual esteem, will find abundant material for consideration in this lively book. It is easy enough to poke fun at the mistakes of Mrs. Newlywed, who complains that her sponge cake was a failure because the chemist must have sent the wrong kind of sponges, but the ladies can retort after the manner of John Crumlie's wife in the Scottish song.

New Sacred Anthems for the Choir. By CHARLES H. GABRIEL. Cincinnati: Curts & Jennings. 'Toronto: Wm. Briggs. Price, per copy, 75c., postpaid; per dozen, $6.50, not prepaid.

A most excellent collection of anthems for church choins. Forty-five in all, including solo, duet, quartette, and full chorus part of a popular grade of difficulty, full of melody and rhythm. A high spiritual tone pervades the entire collection, calculated to awaken deep religious feeling. Many of the songs and choruses are worthy to rank with the sacred oratorios. A number of the selections are given for offertory use.

Retribution and Other Addresses. By SAMUEL G. SMITH, D.D., LL.D. Cincinnati: Curts & Jennings. New York : Eaton & Mains. Toronto : William Briggs. Price, $1.00.

Dr. Smith is a man of distinguished reputation. Most of these addresses were delivered before philanthropic or learned societies, one of them at the Pan-American Congress of Religion and Education held in Toronto. That new social force in character building, the University Settlement, is strongly endorsed in an address given before the Northwestern University.

The Bramble King, and Other Old Testament Parables. By MARK GUY PEARSE. London : Charles H. Kelly. Toronto : William Briggs.

In this dainty booklet are collected a number of Mark Guy Pearse's beautiful studies of striking parables of the Old Testament. They have all the charm of his poetic style and keen scriptural insight.

THE ONWARD WAY.

Our life is one long journey, and the road Is sometimes rough and rugged; but our God Who loveth us, His children, knows the way And He will gently lead us, day by day. We meet with certain milestones on our way, That help to cheer us onward, for they say, "Our God hath kept you so far, year by year, Then will you dread the future? Will ye fear?" How can we, when He holds us by the hand And promises to lead us to His land? Then let us simply trust Him, nor allow One single shade of doubt to vex us now.
