HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

Notices of the Press.

There are few intelligent American families in which HARPER'S MAGAZINE would not be an appreciated and highly welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can afford to be without. Many Magazines are accumulated. HARPER'S is edited. There is no Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.-New England Homestead.

A repository of biography and history, literature, science and art, unequalled by any other American publication. The volumes are as valuable as a mere work of reference as any cyclopaedia we can place in our libraries. HARPER'S MAGAZINE is a record of travel every where since the hour of its establishment. Livingstone and Gordon Cumming in Africa; Strain among the Andes and Ross Brown in the East; Speke on the Nile and Macgregor on the Jordan-inside all recent travellers of note have seen their most important discoveries reproduced in these pages. Most of our younger and many of our older writers find here their literary biography.

NEW NATIONAL MAGAZINE FOR CANADA.

Prospectus of the

CANADIAN MONTHLY

AND NATIONAL REVIEW.

A feeling has long prevailed that the intellectual life of the Canadian nation ought to have some organ in the form of a good periodical. Attempts have been made to give it such an organ, but hitherto they have not been successful.

In some measures they may have been premature, but it is believed that their failure has been mainly due to the want of a sufficiently strong and well-organized staff of writers, and of a fund sufficient to guarantee to contributors the fair remuneration, without which, as multiplied experience proves, a periodical cannot be successfully carried on.

These requisites have now been effectually secured.

The literary aid and materials requisite for the support of a first-class magazine will be sought, without restriction, from all quarters-Canadian, British, and Foreign. But it is intended that the Magazine shall have a specially Canadian character, such as, it is hoped, will enlist Canadian patriotism in its support.

Politics will be treated with the aim of infusing as much as possible of the historical and philosophical spirit into the popular discussion of political questions.

Religious questions, if they form the subject of any papers, will be treated with a similar aim.

Mr. GOLDWIN SMITH has consented both to contribute regularly, and to assist in conducting the magazine.

Intending subscribers will please send us their names.

THE 'NEW YORK TRIBUNE'

FOR 1872.

The consolidation of Italy, so long fragments and impotent, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital; the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege of Capriation; her vast but decaying population; the expulsion of the Spaniards from the Philippines and the substitution for them of a faction of the liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the Kingdom of Saxony Wurtemberg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, and Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arising Russia to reassert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great empire founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and anachronical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the ever changing phases of the Old World. THE TRIBUNE, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great movements are in progress, illuminates, aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and mirror the prolonged struggle between middle-class Radicalism and Reactionism on the one hand, and the old world of aristocracy and secularism on the other. Recognizing a Divine Providence in all that proceeds and in all that looks hopefully on the conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to involve from strife, disaster, and seeming chaos a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corrupt and anarchy in office has been inaugurated in our midst, whereby the Government of our State has been revolutionized through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated will not stop until it has effected a complete reformation of our polity, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union; rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and compelling those who would be ruled to wield their power to this beneficent and vitally needed reform. THE TRIBUNE will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, to securing the choice of honest and faithful men to office at all the New Departments the most essential and auspicious.

The virtual surrender by the Democratic party of its hostility to Equal Rights regardless of Color has divested our current politics of half their bygone intensity. However parties may henceforth rise or fall, it is clear that the fundamental principles which have hitherto honorably distinguished the Republican party are hereafter to be regarded as practically accepted by the whole country. The right of every man to his own limbs and sinews-the equality of all citizens before the law-the inability of a State to enslave any portion of its people-the duty of the Union to guarantee to every citizen the full enjoyment of his liberty-until he forfeits it by crime-such are the broad and first foundations of our national edifice; and palsied by the hand which shall seek to displace them. Though not yet twenty years old, the Republican party has completed the noble fabric of Finance, Education, and many fairly invoke thereon the stern judgment of Man and the benignant smile of God.

Henceforth the mission of our Republic is one of Peaceful Progress. To protect the weak and the humble from violence and oppression-to extend the benediction and blessings of Civilization-to stimulate ingenuity in the production of new inventions for economizing Labour, and thus enlarging Production-to draw nearer to each other the producers of Food and of Fabrics, of Grain and of Metals, and thus enhance the gains of Industry by reducing the price of exchange and increasing exchanges between farmers and artificers-such is the inspiring task to which this Nation now addresses itself, and by which it would fain tribute to the progress, enlightenment, and happiness of our race. To this great and good work THE TRIBUNE contributes its zealous, persistent efforts.

Agriculture will continue to be more especially elucidated in its Weekly and Semi-Weekly Editions, to which some of the ablest and most successful tillers of the soil will steadily contribute. No farmer who sells $200 worth of produce per annum can afford to do without our Market Reports, or others equally lucid and comprehensive. It should read nothing else but what relates to his own calling and its rewards, we believe that no farmer who can read at all can afford to do without such a journal as THE TRIBUNE. And we assure he is entitled to the same care and interest by those of 1872. Friends in every State help us to make our Journal better, by sending in your subscriptions and increasing your Clubs for the year just before us!
