Sic vos, non vobis

The stone for this grand undertaking was conveyed from river craft in the St. Lawrence below, by machinery, on an inclined plane of which the remains are still extant.

ST. LOUIS GATE, DEMOLISHED, AUGUST, 1871.

St. Louis gate was originally built in 1694; it underwent if pedestrians, should ascend the ramparts 25 feet high, on which will be found a covered way, extending from the Citadel, and passing over St. Louis and St. John's Gates, to the Artillery Barracks, a distance of 1837 yards, occupied by bastions, connected with curtains of solid masonry, and pierced at regular intervals with sally ports. This forms a delightful promenade furnishing especially at St. John's Gate, a series of very fine views.

The Artillery Barracks at the south west corner of the fortifications overlook the valley of the St. Charles. Part of the buildings which are extensive, was erected by the French in 1750;
