DISTRICT COUNCILS

IN IRELAND.

For several reasons we devote a good deal of space this week to the recent District Council Elections in Ireland, which we take from the Dublin Freeman. The accounts which have been published in the secular press of Canada, had come through English sources, being dated from London, and had been written in a vein calculated to throw ridicule upon the grand democratic victory which has been won. The true significance of the elections, as showing the increasing strength of the demand for Home Rule, was left out of account altogether. The progress of the movement for unity amongst the Nationalist ranks was not mentioned. In addition to these reasons there is one more; and that is, that perhaps some of our readers may find in the list of Aldermen and Councillors elected the names of relatives or friends of theirs. As the Freeman remarks—

"We hope all our readers will scan the results carefully, and note for themselves the immense significance of the verdicts freely delivered by the people. In the first place it will be observed that in nine places out of ten—in every place except some Ulster towns and a few of the more bigoted and aristocratic Dublin townships—the voters have pronounced in favor of Home Rule with unmistakable emphasis. No matter what local issues were at stake the people saw to it that the seats at their disposal were given to candidates who believe that Ireland is entitled to self-government. Where Home Rulers were in the majority House Rulers were returned. No one dreamed for a moment of surrendering the cardinal principle of Nationality in favor of the doctrine of "toleration," which would mean a confession of Nationalist Ireland's inability to dispense even for a season with the precious services of the men who looked down upon them with scorn under the old regime. Whether in Dublin or Cork or Limerick, the same story is to be told. Nationalism triumphed everywhere—and in Dublin and Cork and other places, where coteries insisted upon dividing the Nationalists into warring sections, lessons of the most remarkable significance were taught to the disturbers. The elections have carried us far on the road to Unity."

The following is the full list:—

T. O'Connor (Labor) 1,562
J. Murphy (A. P.) 1,366
P. Barry (Labor) 1,354

D. Meade (Labor) 1,093
P. J. Madden (R) 1,077

In this ward the Redmondites lost five seats.

LIMERICK.

For the Market Ward the elected were all members of the council dissolved by the new Act with the exception of Mr. William Stokes, J.P., who was returned in the interest of the commercial interest. All the Labor candidates were defeated in the Market Ward owing to the small number of workmen voters. In the Shannon Ward Alderman S. O'Mara retained his position, being returned at the head of the poll, and being accordingly re-elected Alderman. Two other old representatives of the Ward Messrs. Herbert and Spain, were re-elected, the labor candidates securing two seats. In the Custom House Ward the labor candidates obtained two seats also; in the Abbey Castle, Dock, and Irishtown, a large majority, while in the Glentworth Ward they won every one of the five seats, defeating the Mayor and Mr. John Guinean, J. P. In all the Labor candidates won twenty-four of the forty seats in this council the merchants and large ratepayers' representatives, five, and the outgoing members of the Corporation seeking re-election, eleven seats. There were something like ten members of the late corporation who retired. Mr. John Daly, the Alderman of the Irishtown Ward, headed the poll, although he came low in the list of candidates for the Dock Ward, where he was also nominated. There is talk now, and all but a certainty, that at the meeting of the Corporation on Monday he will be nominated and proposed for the Mayoralty, unless the sentence of penal servitude passed on him, and the ticket of leave on which he was discharged from Portland, prove a legal disqualification. However, the first elections under the new Act have revolutionized municipal matters in this city. An old favorite in the person of Alderman Hall, J.P., was defeated for the representation of the Council.

DROGHEDA.

In the Fair Gate Ward the candidate, Mr. Peter Paul Keely, headed the poll, and is the Alderman, with the popular Mayor, Mr. Francis Gogarty, who is second on the poll. The figures are:—

Peter Paul Keely, 271; Francis Gogarty, Mayor (Nationalist), 254; J. Downey (Redmondite), 143; James Kelly (Nationalist), 237; Peter Lyons (Redmondite), 182; Patrick Gorman (Redmondite), 179; John Dolan (Nationalist), 152; Nicholas Farrell (Redmondite), 144.

The result of the contest is a gain for a Labor and a Nationalist standpoint, especially considering the fact that two Redmondite Aldermen were ousted from their positions.

The Aldermen are as follows:—Mr. Thomas M'Cullough, President of Drogheda Trades Council, and the Right Hon. Thomas A. Dickson. They replace Dr. Kelly and Mr. Christopher Tighe.

The following are the figures:—Alderman, Mr. Thos. M'Cullough, 484; Right Hon. Thos. A. Dickson, 482; Councillors:—Christopher Tighe, 285; James M'Carthy (Redmondite), 261; Thos. Callan (Nationalist), 258; Luke J. Elcock (Redmondite), 247; Peter Lynch (Nationalist), 223; Dr. Kelly, 194; Laurence Moore, 167; James Weldon (Redmondite), 91.

The following is the result of the contest in the West Gate Ward:—Owen B. Collier, (Nationalist and Labor candidate), 286; M'Guinness, 282; Councillors, John Mangin, 263; Gerald Daly, (Nationalist), 248; Patrick Drew (Nationalist), 215; Simon Healy, 205; Thos.
