Mercantile Summary.

L. C. ROBINSON & Co., woodworkers, at Kingston, Ont., whose failure we lately reported, have settled at 30 cents on the dollar.

DOUGLAS & DOUGLAS, general storekeepers, at Leduc, N.W.T., have assigned. The business is comparatively an old one, and at one time they did a nice trade, and had a considerable surplus. The immediate reason for their assignment has not been given us.

RODERICK MACKINNON, of Montreal, who started a tea and crockery business in a small way, only last summer, has consented to assign, and owes about $2,000.—A demand of assignment has been made upon H. Lefkowitz & Co., doing a small gents' furnishing business in St. Henry suburbs of the same city.

W. H. TOWLE succeeded one Johnston, as a grocer, in Guelph in June last. Formerly Towle had been book-keeping and we are told knew nothing about groceries. Already he has assigned, losing the hard-earned $500 in cash that he invested in the stock.—A winding-up order has been granted by the courts to the Rat Portage Fish Co., Limited, of Rat Portage.—An offer of 20 per cent. has been made to the creditors of J. T. Marsh & Co., grocer, London. They owe $700, and have nominal assets of $100.

It is not many weeks since T. O. Rush, who was not successful as a grocer, opened a clothing store in Peterboro. He has already assigned.—An assignment has also been made by H. W. Nutson & Co., who were liquor dealers, Windsor. Previous to this Nutson had been clerking in a coal office there. Being tired of the duties of clerking, he bought the stock of White & Co., for $2,500, in June, 1896. He does not seem ever to have prospered, being always slow pay.—The Diamond Machine Screw Co., Toronto, will be wound up by authority of the court. After going through several changes, the company was incorporated in October, 1899. Shortly after this date, the company developed internal troubles; their manager was dismissed, and they reorganized. Then they thought their old difficulties were settled, but in this they were mistaken, and the result is as above stated.
