CITY AND ELSEWHERE.

We regret to hear that Mr. E. Lloyd, lumber merchant, of St. Boniface, is seriously ill.

Mr. M. McMann has returned from his trip to Duluth, St. Paul and other United States cities.

His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Patterson will visit the Industrial School at St. Boniface to-morrow afternoon.

The address delivered by President A. H. Kennedy to the members of the Catholic Truth society has been printed in leaflet form.

A meeting of Branch No. 38 of the C. M. B. A. Relief association is called for Thursday evening at the hall over the Academy of the Immaculate Conception.

We were glad to meet Mr. Hugh Gillies on the street one day this week, and to learn that he is rapidly recovering from the effects of his recent accident.

Yesterday at St. Boniface, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mager celebrated their silver wedding. Their many friends assembled and presented them with appropriate gifts.

The collection taken up at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday of last week in support of the Ladies' Aid society resulted in the addition of a considerable sum to the funds.

For fine tailoring go to Wm. Markinski, Rossin House Block, near C. P. R. He does ladies' and gentlemen's tailoring in first class style and at reasonable rates. Ladies furs altered to latest fashions and repaired.

Solemn Requiem High Mass for the repose of the soul of the mother of our archbishop was celebrated at St. Mary's on Tuesday, Father Guillet being the celebrant. His Grace was present, and there was a large congregation.

We are glad to learn that Miss Killeen, whose serious illness was referred to in these columns last week, is convalescent and that in all probability she will soon be quite well again. She has lately been very much annoyed by a rumor circulated by a business rival that she intends giving up business and for the information of her numerous customers we are asked to state that this is absolutely without foundation.

Active preparations are being made for the entertainment to be given by Prof. Walker for the benefit of St. Boniface hospital, commencing Monday evening, February 3rd. The programme will be a varied one. Each night will see a new array of talent. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are to appear in a new role as half of each entertainment will be light comedy. The following drama will be produced: "The Rough Diamond," "The Foodies," "Ice on Parle Francois." Drama song and dance will be presented each evening.

On Sunday evening the Rev. Father Chierri gave the second of the series of instructions on matrimony and we were glad to see a very large congregation present on the occasion. He spoke of the words "My son take counsel, and thou shalt not repent what thou hast done," and in eloquent language he showed how important it was that those who contemplated entering the married state should take advice from their superiors; the experience of years enabling him to say that many wretched unions would be prevented if this advice was more generally and religiously followed.

THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CHURCH.

Blessing of the Organ by the Archbishop Next Sunday—Special Services.

The new organ at the Church of the Immaculate Conception will be heard for the first time on Sunday morning next. Precisely at half past ten the solemn blessing of the instrument by His Grace the Archbishop of St. Boniface will take place to be followed immediately by Grand High Mass. At this service the choir will sing Lambillotte's Mass in D, and Prof. Sale, of St. Boniface will officiate at the organ. There will be special music at the offertory, and again in the evening. The members of the choir have been practising for some weeks past for the great event in order that so far as they are concerned the services will be worthy of the occasion. It is expected that at the evening service which will commence at 7.15 sharp, a special sermon will be preached but definite arrangements regarding this have yet to be completed and will be announced in the daily press before Sunday. The offertories, both morning and evening will be given to the organ fund and no doubt will be generously contributed to.

THE CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY.

Important Meeting To-morrow Evening.

The Rev. Father LaRue, S. J., of St. Boniface College, will deliver an address to the members of the Catholic Truth Society at their meeting to be held at their hall on Water street on Thursday evening. The announcement, we are sure, will be sufficient to induce a large number to attend.

Claudeboye Bay.

On the 19th inst., a sort of pantomime was held in the school room to augment the funds in aid of the chapel. The entertainment was gotten up by a gentleman from St. Jean Baptiste, assisted by three Claudeboye young men. It was well carried out and gave the audience plenty of occasion to laugh.

Miss Agatha Tucker who has come to say good-bye to her sister before leaving St. Eustache for Lake Dauphin was present, also Mr. Letourneau from St. Eustache.

The weather at present is at least reasonable, if a low temperature be considered such for the month of January.

Fishing is still zealously carried on in the lake and fish are selling well, particularly perch.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION ACADEMY.

An Entertainment Given by the Pupils.

On Thursday evening the pupils of the Academy of the Immaculate Conception treated their parents to a very pleasant evening's entertainment. The programme comprised vocal and instrumental musical selections, recitations and dialogues, and we can safely say that not one in the audience went home without feeling more than ever satisfied with the progress of their little ones under the direction of the devoted teachers. It is not many weeks ago that we were present at the annual examination of these pupils when most convincing proof was given of the soundness and thoroughness of the methods employed in instructing them in the mysteries of the ordinary branches of education, and on Thursday evening we had before us equally good evidence that the training they are receiving will not only tend to make them good business men and women, but will also develop whatever special talents they may possess. The vocal selections demonstrated the fact that there are some very promising voices amongst the pupils and we would especially mention Nellie Tobin, Laura and Edna Landers, Henrica and Mary Boes, whilst the excellent time kept in the chorus parts and the good tone produced was a revelation to the audience and spoke volumes for the pains taken by and the efficiency of those in charge. Not less interesting were the performances on the piano of Emma Clontier, Laura Landers and Ella Markinski. A monologue "How Girls Study" by Agnes Connell was capital and the audience thoroughly enjoyed the spirited and manly way in which a dialogue entitled "Whose Turn" was given by Joseph Picard and Harold Hinds with a minor part by Leo Russell. Equally good was "Dottie's Dream," a dialogue in which a number of the girls took part all of them giving evidence of a degree of ability which was surprising in such youthful performers. Irene Connell's representation of Dottie calling for special mention as it was really a very clever piece of acting and declamation. Lizzie Klinkhammer kept the audience in a high state of amusement with her character sketch of a quack doctor in which she spoke learnedly of the values of her specifics for curing every ill which flesh is heir to. To sum up we would say that we have never been present at a more enjoyable entertainment and our thanks are due to the good Sisters for giving us the opportunity.

Translation of an Article Entitled "Le Northwest Review" From La Verite.

Among our exchanges there is none that we read with more attention, profit and pleasure than the Northwest Review, published in Winnipeg. It is a weekly review of modest appearance, but of great merit. Always edited with care, in lucid and correct English, this journal must be doing, in the Canadian West, incalculable good. From a religious point of view its doctrine is always sound. Never does one find in it any of those risky theories, of those offensive, novelties that too often mar the columns of Catholic journals in our day. The Northwest Review is essentially orthodox.

Its sphere of action in the political and social world is very important. It is the only Catholic journal published in English west of Toronto on Canadian territory. It is the only organ of Catholic thought that speaks, in the vast Canadian West, the language of the majority; the only one that can make itself perfectly understood by that majority; the only one that can effectively answer the Protestant and non-Catholic journals of that region. The latter would indeed have things all their own way, if by any mishap, the Northwest Review were to disappear.

Our excellent Winnipeg contemporary, though catering more especially for the English-speaking Catholics, is always on the best of terms with the French-Canadians. It must powerfully contribute to keep up among the Manitoba Catholics of both tongues that harmony and union which are noticed among our co-religionists of the West, and are particularly necessary for them at this critical moment.

The Northwest Review is now in its eleventh year, and we trust it may long continue its eminently useful career.

AN IMPORTANT CASE.

A VICTORIA COUNTY (ONT.) PEDDLER BEFORE THE COURTS.

Detected in Selling a Pink Colored Pill, Which he Represented to be Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—The Court Grants a Perpetual Injunction Restraining Him From Offering an Imitation of This Great Medicine—Some Facts the Public Will do Well to Bear in Mind.

In the High Court of Justice yesterday morning, before Mr. Justice Meredith, the case of Fullord vs. McGahey was heard. It consisted of a motion for an injunction to restrain Fred. McGahey from selling a pill which he claimed to be Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Mr. Douglas E. Armour appeared for the plaintiffs and stated that the defendant had been peddling these goods about Victoria County, claiming them to be Dr. Williams' genuine Pink Pills. It was impossible, however, on the face of it, that they could be genuine, as he sold them greatly below what they cost at wholesale price. The defendant had given consent. Mr. Armour said that the motion should be changed to one for judgment against him. No defence was offered, and his Lordship gave an order for judgment restraining McGahey from continuing to vend the article as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

The above paragraph, taken from the legal columns of the Toronto Globe of the 15th inst., contains a warning which every person in Canada in need of a medicine will do well to heed, and shows the care and pains the Dr. Williams Medicine Company takes to protect the public from imposition, and to preserve the reputation of their famous Pink Pills.

It is only a medicine that possesses more than usual merit that is worth imitation. Ordinary medicines are not subject to that kind of treatment, as there is not sufficient demand for such medicine to make it worth while.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have achieved a reputation for sterling merit unparalleled in the history of medical science. In every part of the Dominion the remarkable cures wrought by the use of this great medicine have given it a name and a fame which has made the sale of Pink Pills simply wonderful.

It is because of this great merit, and the consequent enormous demand for the medicine, that it is being imitated by unscrupulous persons in various parts of the country. The imitation is cheap, usually worthless, and is only pushed because the imitator can make more money by its sale than he can by the sale of the genuine Pink Pills. Hence the pains he takes to sell the imitation.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company annually spends thousands of dollars endeavoring to impress upon the public that the genuine Pink Pills can only be purchased in one form—namely in packages enclosed in a wrapper (or label), which bears the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." No one can buy them in any other form, not even if they offer many times their weight in gold for them. And yet in the face of these continuous warnings there are people confiding enough to permit some unscrupulous dealer to convince them that he can supply them Pink Pills in loose form by the dozen or hundred, or ounce, or in some other kind of a box. Any one who pretends to be able to do this is telling an untruth. Bear this in mind and refuse all pills that do not bear the full trade mark, no matter if they are colored pink, and no matter what the dealer says.

Please bear in mind also that the formula from which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is compounded is a great secret known only to the company, and any one who claims he can supply you with some other pill "just as good" is guilty of misrepresentation, for he does not know the ingredients of the genuine Pink Pills and is only trying to sell you some other pill, because he makes more money on its sale.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company is determined to spare no expense in protecting both the public and themselves, against these unscrupulous imitators, and will always be thankful to receive information concerning any one who offers to sell an imitation Pink Pill purporting to be Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, or "the same as" the genuine Pink Pills. Such cases will be investigated by the company's detective and the name of the person giving the information will not be made public, while any expense entailed in sending us the information will be promptly refunded.

Ask for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and take nothing else. They cure when all other medicines fail.
