

Old Egypt and its Newest Wonders, the Proposed Dam across the Nile at Assuan, The Royal Champion of England, How Pepper Helped to Discover America, and The Best One Hundred Books for a Young Folks Library are some of the contents of the first spring number of St. Nicholas for 1900. . . . The current number of the Canadian Magazine is one of great interest as it is a military number, and reflects the greatest credit on the enterprising publishers in putting before its readers throughout Canada such an admirably conceived and well executed series of articles and illustrations. (Canadian Magazine, Toronto, $2.50 a year. EDUCATIONAL REVIEW and Canadian Magazine only $2.50 a year for both). . . . The Delineator, a magazine devoted solely to the interests of women, does much to give directness of aim to their work. In the March number there is a well illustrated article, of great interest to women, dealing with the leaders of Women's Colleges, and some of the co-educational institutions. $1 a year. (Delineator Pub. Co., Toronto.
