

against drug trafficking itself and the laundering of its proceeds.

53) Accordingly, we resolve to take the following measures within relevant fora:

- Give greater emphasis on bilateral and United Nations programs for the conversion of illicit cultivation in the producer countries. The United Nations Fund for Drug Abuse Control (UNFDAC), and other United Nations and multilateral organizations should be supported, strengthened and made more effective. These efforts could include particular support for the implementation of effective programs to stop drug cultivation and trading as well as developmental and technical assistance.
- Support the efforts of producing countries who ask for assistance to counter illegal production or trafficking.
- Strengthen the role of the United Nations in the war against drugs through an increase in its resources and through reinforced effectiveness of its operation.
- Intensify the exchange of information on the prevention of addiction, and rehabilitation of drug addicts.
- Support the international conference planned for 1990 on cocaine and drug demand reduction.
- Strengthen the efficiency of the cooperative and mutual assistance on these issues, the first steps being a prompt adherence to, ratification and implementation of the Vienna Convention on illicit traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances.
