

b) Export licences, entry visas and exit visas, as the case may be, for members of the Canadian personnel and their dependants and for materials, professional and technical equipment, and the personal effects of said members; and

c) the status of "Funcionario Administrativo o Técnico" to members of the Canadian personnel and members of Canadian non-governmental organizations carrying out projects established under subsidiary arrangements and shall issue identity cards recognizing this status to the aforementioned members.

ARTICLE XVI

Differences which may arise relating to the interpretation and application of the provisions of this agreement or of any subsidiary arrangement shall be settled through diplomatic channels or in any other manner mutually agreed upon by the two parties to this agreement.

ARTICLE XVII

This agreement shall enter into force on the day the Government of CANADA receives notification from the Government of URUGUAY stating in writing that the administrative measures required for its entry into force have been carried out and that the publication of the said agreement in the "Diario Oficial" of the Government of Uruguay has taken place.

The Government of URUGUAY shall endeavor to notify the Government of CANADA of the date of publication of the said agreement within thirty (30) days of publication of the agreement in the "Diario Oficial" of the Government of URUGUAY.

This agreement shall remain in force until terminated by either party on six (6) months notice in writing to the other party.

The responsibilities of the Government of CANADA and the Government of URUGUAY with regard to projects being carried out by virtue of subsidiary arrangements entered into pursuant to Article II of this agreement and begun prior to the receipt of the termination notice referred to above shall continue until completion of such projects as if this agreement remained in force in respect of and for the whole duration of such projects. This agreement also applies to all projects being carried out under subsidiary arrangements made pursuant to Article II of this agreement and begun prior to its signature or entry into force.