

YOU MUST NOT:

- have worked overseas for a development organization for more than 4 weeks;
- have lived in a developing country for more than 8 weeks after the age of 14; or
- have spent 13 or more consecutive weeks working in one of the developing countries specified by CCI after the age of 14.

Volunteers are chosen on the basis of their cultural sensitivity, adaptability and commitment to promoting international awareness. Basic knowledge, special skills or a trade are useful. (Applicants who have special skills are easier to place but non-skilled people are selected as well.)
